

Basic Plan for ‘Saint’ Selection

Issue date: 02 Aug 2007

God conceived Jesus, just as God made Adam (now through Jesus). Thus all ideal/good things are From (and recognition of this are given To) The Almighty God (Yahweh) however it was Jesus who used the basic Laws of Nature to create DNA to then form The Life that we see on this planet culminating with his greatest creation on this planet “Mankind”.

So only Jesus could be a fit ransom for Adam’s sin that has descended down to all of us. Jesus started here on this Earth perfect from his Father God – However, We as individual humans did not!

Jesus started perfect, lived a perfect life according to The Law given to us by Moses from Yahweh God, but moreover he fulfilled Yahweh’s Desire (being most important) to:-

1. Preach of Yahweh’s Acceptable Year (Mark.1v39, 3v14, Matt.4v17, 11v1; Luke.4v18,43; 9v60, etc).
2. Provided The Undeserved Gift of The Ransom Sacrifice (Matt.20v26; Mark.10v45; 1Tim.2v6, etc).

This was something that no one else had been able to do.

Yet, ‘wrongly’ (to The Law and to Yahweh’s Desire) Jesus died (by murder) on the wooden post.

Rom.5v18

He was a fit Ransom for all humans.

Because of this, All humans are ‘entitled’ to stand or fall without being ‘fallen’ from the start, due to Adam’s sin (irrespective of colour/creed/grouping/nationality/{or heinous crime they might have done}) this being a resurrection to Life – for Jesus showed no distinction nor qualified it (except stating “blasphemy against The Holy Spirit” that I fully explain in Glossary).

This entitlement to a second (equivalent to starting as a perfect human being) could be considered as a ‘CREDIT LIFE’, because it is for all those in their graves as well as those still standing now.

This is a ‘free gift’ for all people that have ever existed since Adam given by Jesus for his creation to balance a fundamental law made and enforced by The Almighty God (Yahweh).

The difference this time, compared with Adam, is that Jesus and his Priests (being the 144000 – see Glossary) will be covering them in The Millennium. Not Satan (the covering spirit, and appointed ‘ruler’ for the present 6000 years). Evil ‘broke out’ in Satan after he had had been appointed the ruler for 6000 years. The difference in The Millennium will be that the ruler has been ‘tried, tested and proved’ and all his Priests will also have been ‘tried, tested and proved’ too. Not only have proved themselves worthy, but also to the whole of creation, being fellow humans around about who just cannot argue with The Evidence demonstrated that these individuals are fit = worthy (proved to the task in action against Satan) to rule. Thus Jesus and his assistants called ‘The Bride of Christ’ have been assayed by trial during their life here on the Earth in a fleshly body. However, in The Millennium there will be no Satan to hinder them (nor the fleshly resurrected humans)! For in the 1st part of their lives the humble 144000 were hindered through oppression/persecution by the religious authorities (directly, but more often indirectly) imitating Satan’s self-indulgence, but when in The Millennium these 144000 shall have the full power of Yahweh’s holy spirit to expedite Yahweh’s Desire on the resurrected fleshly humans. “They were the least, but now become the highest” to paraphrase The Bible.

Naturally Yahweh God in His wisdom and foreknowledge knew that Satan had the capacity for evil and that he would bring ‘down’ Adam and Eve from their perfect state before ‘The Law of Yahweh’. But also knowing that in The Culmination, to bring forth gold refined as in a fire – something else which could not be manufactured – being selfless, ‘by principle Loving’ Sons (His first/only begotten Son - Jesus, plus 144000) refined from the dross of this wicked worldly system.

What a wonderful entrants these 144000 True Christians into The Family they will be for their Father. In addition, these “sons of God” shall teach and purify the whole Earth during The Millennium of 1000 years so that when The World is handed over to Yahweh God it shall be populated by millions of happy humans resurrected within fleshly but perfected DNA bodies.

All this work by The kings/Priests shall be ‘overseen’ by his Proven Servants, who now are Loving ‘Princes’ picked from those given ‘The Promise’ prior to Jesus’ Ministry period being The Ancient Worthies (Abraham, Isaac, Job, etc), the righteous leaders of The Old Israelite Nation (Moses, Joshua, David, etc) and prophets (Samuel, Isaiah, Daniel, Amos, etc) who existed prior to Jesus’ Ransom Sacrifice (and thus likely to be in fleshly bodies).

From Jesus, the Mystery which had been hidden since the beginning of time, has been revealed:
Being that:

Yahweh intensely desires a ‘Family of Sons’ to become like His only Begotten Son – Out from this Earth’s people – being a Creation from of His Son Jesus!

They must (in the face of Satan’s obstruction, wiles and persecution) prove that they Love Yahweh God above all else. God does not desire robots (or ‘zombies’), but for they, themselves, to want and love Him. This must be proved before He will choose and change them to be the same as Jesus is now (having been elected from out of ‘the pool of nominally worldly centred Christians’).

This is what is termed ‘The Assay period’ over The Gospel Age.

Though this selection of the Kings/Priests will taken out of The Christian Nation over this period of 2000 years, only some of those called will be these Sons of God. There are some who shall not quite make it because the responsibility will be too great for them and Yahweh in His righteousness shall not choose/elect someone who has not the propensity or capacity to be used in this future demanding role, by being responsible to teach The World righteousness (perhaps “over 10 cities” – to quote The Bible).

Thus let us go through this again to clarify things – together with Bible support.

Those few humans who clearly recognise “The Expectation” for the future are in fleshly bodies and their synapse construction (mindset/personality/spirit) desires to imitate Jesus (as he was in his fleshly body). They work hard against all adversity from The World to accurately promote Yahweh’s Word to the masses as best that they are able. In this manner they graft/bond themselves closely to Yahweh – and likewise He responds by supplying more Holy Spirit to further their work (which is only by accurately publicising Yahweh’s Word).

This is the generation process of being “Born Again” (see Glossary for what this term really means).

This work is nothing else other than publicising Yahweh’s Word because The Only Instruction Jesus gave about the work we should do is:

“Go out into the world and Preach about The Acceptable Year of The Lord.”

He also said:

“I go to do my Fathers Desire and that is to go out and preach of The Lord’s Acceptable Year.”

Sadly virtually no one today does this. How do we know? By asking the populace!

So I cordially ask the reader:

“When did YOU last hear of The Millennium being preached?

I strongly suspect ‘never’ before 2007 – but perhaps until you came to this website!

If you hear people saying: “They are a good Christian – because they do good works!”

I robustly say:

That does not uniquely define you as a Christian, nor does it mean that you automatically have Yahweh’s Favour.

For there are many inherently ‘good people’ in the world who are perhaps Atheists, Muslims, Hindus, etc, who can be commended for the admirable work that they perform to their neighbour – but it does not make them righteous to Yahweh’s Desire of them. He feels very sad for them because they are misdirected and do not have the most wonderful full Knowledge of Him and His Son Jesus. It is specifically His Desire that those who are like this have the opportunity to come to know about The Real Truth, rather than it being lost in the propaganda pumped out by the present inept god of this world that most people pray to in one form or another (worshiped by their works). And this is precisely why Jesus gave us the instruction to preach The Millennium to The World and thus imitate Jesus’ Lifestyle in doing this – just as Paul told us: “Imitate him as he imitates Jesus.”

Yahweh wants these people outside The Christian Faith to come in and be given the possible opportunity to become Sons of God, because being outside the Christian Faith they stand no opportunity to become a Son of God and perhaps there are many outside who could make the grade – if only they knew.

That is why it becomes incumbent upon those who are already claim to be Christians to go out and imitate Jesus and Paul. In this manner then you then fulfil Yahweh’s Desire.

The only people who will stop you are those religious leaders of the various worldly religions because their worldly livelihood is threatened being power/position/money/prestige that they presently enjoy over the masses. It is this basic hypocrisy that Yahweh detests (and Jesus directly condemned) – because these religious leaders have no genuine interest in their congregations’ future but merely to perpetuate a system to support their lifestyle and pension – thus worldly (consequently being of Satan).

If they were genuine about the future interests of their congregations then they would personally and sincerely search for “The Absolute Truth” (contained on this website) for themselves – because they being interested in it would then promote it! But the vast majority of these religious leaders do not know anything outside what they preach and just like zombies perpetuate the myths handed down to them from their peers of the same thought processes before them – to support their own worldly pension!

However it is Yahweh who makes the final decision who is to become part of His 144000 elected/chosen Sons.

No human here on Earth has any right or claim to be able to make Saints of Men. Even Jesus has no right to choose (who is to become his bride) because he said several times that he had no right to choose who could sit to the left-hand side or the right-hand side of him but only The Father (Matt.20v23; Mark.10v40). So any human who presumes they are 'The Almighty God' and thus can make saints of humans are seriously deluded, thus ensuring they are not fulfilling Yahweh's Desire Perhaps worldly power has gone to their head!

So let us return to the real subject being those who genuinely reach Yahweh's grade to become 'a saint' or Son of God. We now know what drives them to become sincere workers for Yahweh and accepted as such. But how does this operate at a righteous/equitable level with regard to Yahweh Decree in stating:

"In the day you sin you shall (begin to) die (everlastingly)."

The important thing is that they sincerely imitate Jesus during the 1st part of their life and thus in this manner put themselves into the same position as Jesus to obtain "The (same) Expectation" that Jesus was after. Being that he was aiming to fulfil Yahweh's Desire and for him to become a Son of God (to become the First/Chief/Only [at the time of writing] Begotten Son of God – see "Begotten" in Glossary). Now we are all aware that Jesus was The Original Son of God pertaining to this planet and formed all life on it, but while Jesus was in a fleshly body he had to live on The Expectation that he would become a Son of God (again). And it is appreciating this link that enables us to understand how Yahweh can righteously resurrect other humans who "follow" (to mean "imitate") Jesus' example into the same position = to become likewise a Son of God.

Jesus was able to give on our behalf a perfect sacrifice back to Yahweh and for him to say on their behalf:

This person claims they are trying to imitate me (through baptism into Christianity) and thus I hand over on their behalf my covering sacrifice because I as their creator desire this person to live for an eternity in the "presence" of me. I will start by offering some of my presence within them while they are in the 1st part of their life and dispense some of Your (Yahweh's) Holy Spirit within them.

Then You Yahweh can decide if they are suitable material to become my future Bride, based upon the work they do in imitating me. Because it is only Your Decision Yahweh, who You deem, judge (in the Special/Greater Judgement) as being worthy based upon the works that they perform in imitating me.

Seems righteous/equitable because it is a Third Party being Yahweh who makes The Decision on who is righteous/equitable (to The Standard set by Jesus) to become The Bride of Jesus.

Can the reader see the symbiotic nature of the two separate Entities and how closely they are working together during this "Saint Selection" process?

Now I will show how this process righteously operates using The Bible:-

Heb 11v40

'That now there is an even better thing available' (If we hand our credit second life entitlement back to God, to now live for the rest of our natural life in faith on Jesus, who gave us this credit life – to follow his actions here on earth).

Rom 12v1

'In Sacrifice Holy, acceptable to God'. (There is only one Sacrifice Holy and acceptable to God that we could possibly ever hand back to God, we have nothing except this one credit life, a perfect gift, handed to us by Jesus on our behalf. So It was this perfect sacrifice purchased by Jesus = The Ransom Sacrifice and so by doing this :-)

Psalms 50v5

We enter into a 'new covenant' with Him, to live in faith/fidelity/assurance. (That He will raise us up as He did Jesus, into a spiritual/celestial/heavenly body to be "Sons of God").

He in turn has promised to give us His Holy Spirit to assist us in all things spiritual (which means furthering His Desire of us – and not furthering our own desire of self-indulgence). This is why we symbolically 'die' going down under the water (as Jesus did in the tomb) and being raised up into our second new life by The Immerser (God).

These people have effectively entered into The 2nd Part of their Life. These people now have no credit life left! They are now 'out on a limb' – so to speak. If they fall away; when they die within their fleshly body at the end of their present life, it will be equivalent to their/ 'The 2nd Death'. The Bible says there is no resurrection from The 2nd Death.

Nobody, nor any entity has provided a Credit Note for The 2nd Death (thus credited us for escaping a second death), but only for the 1st death. Thus the 1st death becomes exactly as we are told in The Bible "Asleep".

Hence the example and warning given to us about Judas, thus we reason there is no resurrection because he took on The Knowledge of Jesus became baptised and intimately involved with Jesus, but ultimately rejected him by works to those religious authorities around - for he did not "believe" (John.6v64).

Likewise during the whole of The Gospel Age (of 2000 years) and especially today, we see many people disowning Jesus in their speech, actions, personality and works being so-called 'Baptised Christians' distorting Biblical truth, saying things along these lines:-

'The Bible does not really mean what it says – it really means'

The Bible was written for 2000 years ago, we must bring it up to date, change it's message to'

'God loves us we can do what we want, even if it is not scriptural.'

'Humans misusing the word 'Love' - abusing its true meaning, so as to cover for their iniquity.'

Etc, etc.

In all honesty, to those acting like this, please use this passage as a wake-up call, – I judge no one but as the watcher in the watchtower (Eze.33v1-20) – all I can do is warn those who act like this. The Bible is so very clear (in very many places) to what will occur to these people who mislead God's flock by slandering God's Word.

We are told The Almighty God shall be vengeful to humans, and to be vengeful it must be against a Personal attack, and the only way humans can attack Yahweh to harm Him, is to misrepresent what He stands for to those who desire to know about Yahweh and of His Son Jesus Christ.

We are told that 'Many are called but few are chosen'. So it must be that many of those who 'enter the race' as Paul puts it, do in fact 'fall away'. Jesus gives examples in his parables, like the 'one talent man', and the 'corn that fell on stony ground' or that, which 'fell among the thistles'. Paul does say 'Many run in the race but only one receives the prize'. To me this is the same statement as:-

1 Cor 9v24

'Many are called, but few are chosen' (*Twice by Mathew, and it is about the same subject = the High Calling to be Sons of God.).

These people must 'live by faith/fidelity/assurance' (based upon accurate knowledge from The Bible and not that minced by humans purporting to represent Yahweh) so that Yahweh God will at Jesus' second coming raise them up to be like Jesus is now, just as God raised up Jesus.

Jesus had to live by faith/fidelity/assurance because he was our sacrifice, and he was awakened/roused/raised because he was perfect and faithful to God's Laws – Jesus thoroughly fulfilled Yahweh's Desire.

These people must 'demonstrate their faith/fidelity/assurance' during the remaining part of their lives by producing fruit through works, to make their faith perfect, as Abraham and many others did in the years before Jesus (as we are told in Heb.11v1 onwards). Also they continue to live as though they are expecting Jesus' second coming during their life and they do this by watching for the signs of the times so that they will not be sleeping (self auditing ourselves against The Bible requirements) when he (JCg – see Glossary) comes as a 'thief in the night' (text running on Biblical quotations). We must be (spiritually) awake at his coming (Bible says his "presence" meaning that we have already accepted him within our lives) or we shall not be taken, to "the assembly in the air". When Jesus comes in this first part of the Second Coming (1st 2nd C) it will be silent in as much people will be unaware of the day, but on the day then many will be aware that these elect have been taken – but by then it will be too late for the vast majority of people. Because only 144000 will be taken out of the whole of The Gospel Age period (possibly about half will be transformed, being alive at the time).

They that were 'sleeping', will awake to find their house empty! Or like the Five virgins with no oil in their lamps (see "Lamp" in Glossary). If the Bridegroom (= Jesus) comes at night and there is no light, so they slept in the darkness (= outside God's Word and instruction) and missed the wedding (= to be The Bride of Christ) or had no light (= The Word of God) to see (= understanding the knowledge of The Word of God) to go to meet him (Jesus the bridegroom at the 1st 2nd C). See Glossary on these terms "1st 2nd C", etc.

The crux of this is they did not see Jesus' "presence" (the word used many times in the Bible being the very necessary prelude to being in the position to be recognising the 1st part of Jesus' 2nd coming and thus being part of it), because they were not watching with the Light of God's Word. Thus they will be like the normal vast majority of people who miss this (first) part of Jesus' 2nd coming, but only become aware of it when it is too late! It is unfortunate for these particular individuals because they had progressed beyond the grouping of worldly Christians who had no real desire to become prospective brides through baptism, and then missed the occasion because they lapsed in their mission (by turning back to the self-gratifications that this present world can offer them).

In conclusion:

How wonderful and awe-inspiring God's word is when all the logic is explained by bringing The Good News of the future to us all. It is a perfect and logical plan executed with fine precision progressively fulfilled throughout all ages. It is solid and has no discontinuities within its logic and reasoning. In The Culmination, no entity can say: "We did not know what was expected of us or, we had no chance to reside in God's wonderful future system", or even to say: "There are flaws en route for any particular group of humans that may impede their rightful access to God's wonderful kingdom."

The only dissenters and hence outsiders, are those who wilfully rebel against God, to enjoy their own selfish iniquity (because at the end of The Millennium they shall know what is expected of them – they have just been taught righteousness for the last 1000 years and then actively rebelled against it because they preferred the self-indulgence to the hurt of their neighbour as we presently experience during the 1st part of our life), they will be permanently removed out of God's wonderful future system reserved for the rest of us desiring to assist our neighbour before our own self indulgence.
