Determined as such because earlier documents now discovered do not have these words within them. All can be explained away as repeats of earlier verses, in or outside the Gospel or trying to force false doctrine (Purgatory and Trinity Myths) into the text during 6th to 16th century. This listing relates to the more standard translations of (RSV etc) however modern translations are so far from reality in places being mere worldly interpretations at best (NIV and Good News Bible are examples) and thus this listing bears no resemblance to what is stated in those travesties!
