

This is what I understand, from what I have read in The Bible. I give some examples of the text from within The Bible to show us that there are some special people within The World, as described within the Biblical scriptures to be given five talents and were able to expand on this (by preaching the Word of God correctly and effectively) to gain another five (being effectively 'the interest' – to other people, on the knowledge and information given to them in the first instance). To these special people The Almighty God (Yahweh / Jehovah) gave an additional portion, another talent as a bonus at the end of their 'evaluation' term – because they were able to use it effectively. Thus they now ready for the greater work being that within The Millennium.

These are not your 'every-day' worldly Christians, these are the Jesus' Apostles of this world who as The Bible says:

“Forsake everything” to accurately preach The Word of God to 'the masses' in the name/character/authority of Jesus – being The Word of God – all this against worldly adversity.

Thus the reader can see – these are very special people; because I ask the reader:

“How many people do you see within The World 'forsake everything to preach the word of God'?”

Instead we see around us the vast majority of people (acclaimed Christians) who either clutch onto (the latest) worldly thing or enjoy The World by spending their wealth (being time/opportunity/materialism) within it, rather than 'giving it away' for no return, as the Bible requests us to!

But this simple observation (that we can all make), does not agree with general Christian thinking propagated by the worldly Christian Leaders in support of their very worldly doctrine. They believe that this number is symbolic of many more people destined for this special calling that The New Testament speaks of in so many places. The problem is that the vast majority of Christians believe they all go to heaven when they die and you must be a Christian to go to heaven – because this is what their worldly Christian Leaders have told them! But so do the Muslims, they believe what their Imams say: that only “Believers go to (the seven) heavens” and “unbelievers go to the eternal doom of fire” – and within the Islamic faith Muslims are believers, but Christians are Non-believers.

I know that both the Christian and Muslim populace are very sincere in what they believe – but both groupings subject to a propagated worldly doctrine by their very worldly religious leaders.

And likewise with Judaism now abandoned by Yahweh, only because He has opened up the entry to “All the Nations of The World” – to become that 'New Spiritual Israel' during The Gospel Age).

Thus to a rationally thinking outside observer (excluding all other worldly religions as being 'mere noise to reality' – and this website explains why) then these three ideas are diametrically opposed to one another.

So there must be another way!

This website promotes this 'another' way.

In writing this piece I first had to get inside The Christian Leaders' head(s) to try and understand why they believe in something that is not logical, has no justice and most importantly does not actually fit with God's Word found within The Bible – which I find utterly extraordinary when they have had 2000 years 'to get it right' (but in reality 'to get it wrong' over that period of time)!

When I started to read all the quotes they give to justify their reasoning it became clear to me that they all did not, and still do not understand God's overall Plan, nor do they understand the scriptures well enough to even get to an understanding of God's Plan.

I have a feeling that it is not through the lack of ability, but their doctrine is holding them back from seeing and so understanding God's Plan – which is quite sad for them!

As an aside now during my review of this piece:

Many years after writing this, now in my mature years and looking around me I have come to the conclusion that many worldly practicing Christian Leaders (particularly those higher up within 'The Establishment') do not even want to understand – but merely push all the same buttons within 'The Establishment' as their previous leaders did and just expect the worldly pension at the end of 'their game'. What a sad state of affairs this has come to!

I then realised that in their youth (because the older ones generally have become hardened/callused/seared), while the young and fresh religious leaders believed The New Testament was for Christians (being what their older peers told them) and the understanding gave: Christians go to Heaven because 'that is what the New Testament tells us' and those who are not Christians end up in everlasting death because 'that is what the New Testament tells us'.

In a small and partial sense they are correct in this understanding but they are looking at all the wealth of information within The Bible at such a superficial level that they have the utterly missed God's Master Plan, and thus they are teaching something that Satan would desire instead!

The reason why I say it suits Satan's desire, is because the message that many worldly Christian Leaders give is so confusing, illogical, obviously incorrect and similar in some respects to all the other worldly religions that are obviously incorrect and sourced by Satan to confuse The World, so the great masses of people just think:

“What a load of rubbish and: It is no more than like all the other stupid religions – they all say if you don't believe in our religion – then you are doomed!”

People then go on to think – So what – I am not wasting my time in this rubbish – I have better things to do with my ('one' and 'only') life – live it while I can!

And in this respect with what they have seen – then they correctly ignore this worldly religion! But these worldly Christian leaders think they are doing the correct thing (God's work) by peddling this ridiculous conceptual idea to everyone, followed with the (now assumed worthless) threat you go to be tortured in Hell, because you do not believe what they preach - then it must be you who is the one in league with Satan and so be like the Pharisees in Jesus' day - if anyone questions their doctrine!

However there are several points they have missed when they speak up on this subject:

1. The quotes they use only consist of no more than two verses when perhaps twenty should be used to place the quote in full context. This is precise what the Pharisees did in Jesus' day. It is also precisely what Satan did when he tempted Jesus.
2. The quotes are then greatly embellished with the worldly Christian leader's own explanations to bend the meaning so that people believe 'the bent meaning' rather than 'The Truth'. Jesus said this is what the Pharisees did.
3. The Christian leaders run the Christian Religion. The Pharisees ran the Jewish Religion. Both sets of people working the system for the returns that it gave – for statistically the mindset throughout the groups will be the same!

So I ask the reader: Who then - is more like the Pharisees of Jesus' day?

After that rather brazen introduction to rattle the thought processes let me now move onwards.

Let me now give the reader an insight to God's plan, pre and post Christ's existence on Earth. It is important for the reader to follow every word through thoroughly, to understand precisely God's Complete plan, but also the many parallels that run through the two schemes – they mirror each other perfectly – to show us a pattern from Yahweh God (being that all this was beyond the control of man – that is why this is so wonderful). When the reader has grasped the miraculous nature of the parallels and obviously God's Motive behind it all, then I can show the reader who are God's Sons and the number spoken about. Also I can then show how very wrong many Christian Leaders are in their understanding of 'The Real Truth', being “The Absolute Truth” presented on this website for you to read!

Before Jesus' ministry period here on Earth, God required a nation to establish a line through which He could save The Human Race of those individuals whom God wished to be saved (being those ultimately living according to His standards).

God could see beforehand (at the fall of Adam and Eve) it would be Abraham (whose name translated means 'The Loving Father') to establish This Nation.

This is to be liken to God also establishing even further into the future, a perfect nation, being a nation where 100% of the individuals wanted God foremost in their life and demonstrated it in utter hardship; these would be the Son's of God – not Son's of Man – because they did not want to act like mankind within this present world. These very special ones desired not to be sons of Adam but rather Sons of “Abraham” (= “The Loving Father” = Yahweh God) and thus become part of this special perfect Family as one perfect nation elected by Yahweh from out of a pool of 'common faith' people termed The Christian Nation as the whole “pool”.

These special ones elected/chosen from out of this 'future fleshly general nation of Christians' would be specifically chosen/elected by Yahweh God to become His personal Sons to become kings/priests of The Millennium to teach the whole world righteousness. See Glossary on “New Spiritual Israel”, “Old Spiritual Israel”, “144000”, etc.

But for God to work His ultimate plan through on two levels He had to establish a fleshly nation first. Thus it was through Abraham a new nation must be created first, it had to be separate (= holy) from the other worldly nations; and to enter this special nation, whether you were good or bad, you cut off a part of your fleshly body symbolic of cutting yourself away from this present world – in circumcision (all these are parallels for later). (An aside: Also it has been shown to be an improvement for hygienic reasons.)

However God had to work with the natural mix of people who are born with a spread of affinities – from worshiping God at one end and to those worshiping Satan at the other end. The Israelite nation was established by Yahweh God to lead The World and demonstrate through works that they were God's Chosen people.

Through works they must show themselves to be different (to thus become strangers/sojourners in this present world) to the other nations living in this present worldly system of Satan.

However they failed (and God knew they would) and God dissolved them up into the nations and they had no power as a concerted nation anymore (this was to change at The End Times of The Gospel Age - more later). God's Covenant with The Worldly Fleshly Israelite Nation had come to an end at this dissolution in about 600 BC. But only held together in prophecy to bring forth The Righteous King – Jesus, which once occurred then this fleshly nation was of no more use as a vehicle for Yahweh's Word, so the Jews were finally utterly dissolved in 70 CE by the Romans – all subject to multiple prophesy.

Thus the priesthood was moving from the Levites to Judah as Gen.49v8-12 tells in prophecy and Paul picks up in his letter to the Hebrews.

So at this time we have Yahweh God giving a promise to those (termed Ancient Worthies – Abraham, Job, Isaac, Jacob, etc) who believed, The Promise of a resurrection into a Fleshly body like that of Adam and Eve. God never promised anymore than this in The Old Testament (no words contrary to this are written) – certainly no place in the heavens (plural to mean all 'zones above the Earth' = The Universe) nor any other type of bodily existence, except this fleshly body. But God's promise was of an existence within an everlasting fleshly body (being a DNA perfected fleshly body) – thus these people never understood themselves to die again – because their trust was in The Almighty God to raise them again. The question of possible second death did not come into their heads!

Why?

Because these Ancient Worthies proved themselves by works in believing as they did (as we are told in Heb.11v1 onwards), and living a life in direct accordance in every best way they humanly could (and suffering genuine remorse if they sinned). These are of the individuals written down within the Bible for this reason. Of those who did not believe in Yahweh God, they believed in their own destiny, but they are also not forgotten (Jesus mentions 'being more tolerable for the inhabitants of Sodom than those of Capernaum) – we will leave these ones here for the moment.

(1) Thus in conclusion we have a fleshly nation called "Israel" whose individuals, collectively as a nation were to be God's Light (being knowledge) to show The World how to live by works.

In reality a very few individuals of this nation followed God's way, but the vast majority were just like the people of today in The Christian Nation having the responsibility of carrying God's knowledge to the rest of The World today – but "God" has no (real) meaning in their life (which is to precisely imitate Jesus' lifestyle within their own life)!

Jesus was now born and later started his Ministry.

Jesus now preached something quite different. He now regularly speaks of a place in the heavens is now possible. He also speaks of it being very difficult to get to the heavens, in many places within The Gospels.

We are told that you personally must separate yourself from the ways of The World (to thus become strangers/sojourners in this present world) – behave differently to all the other people around about in this present world of Satan. You need to enter this 'community' through an act of Baptism casting off your old fleshly body, being the tie to this world – to live in faith/fidelity/assurance), as demonstrated by Jesus.

Jesus took on the twelve disciples to mirror the twelve tribes of Israel (sons of Jacob) to head this new future nation for his Father Almighty God.

Jesus had a two-fold mission:-

1. To head-up and preach The Good News of a New Spiritual Israelite nation specifically for God – the purpose (as with the first nation – now disbanded) is to show The World how to live by God's Standards, and this can only be done by works and so repeat the head's (Jesus) mission within their lives to accurately preach The Word of God to the rest of The World.
2. To provide 'the means' for God to legitimately provide (before all entities within The Universe) a most righteous saving route for all those individuals who desire to live within God's wonderful establishment and environment if and only if they believe (by having faith/fidelity/assurance/commitment) in Jesus and act through works to demonstrate this commitment to Jesus (All the way through the Bible - works must be persistently demonstrated. The Parables show this, Fruits of The Spirit are works, and the often said, "faith without works is dead" – See In-depth Explanation entitled "Faith without Works" and Glossary under "Work").

Jesus was murdered and perfect at the time of death. By right, God had to raise Jesus to a fleshy body – Jesus had not sinned!

But No! – God did not want to do this! He had a much better plan!

And to righteously fulfill His plan then as we are cryptically told in Matt.3v15 Jesus must be baptized to fulfill all righteousness. And this is the reason why:-

Jesus was baptized – to show a more perfect way (Hebrews). As Jesus said during his baptism – He must be baptized.

Why?

Because – it enabled God to raise Jesus into a spiritual/celestial/heavenly body and not a fleshly body!

Why?

For several reasons:-

1. Firstly it put Jesus back into his original Spiritual body – like that when he existed in the heavens from the beginning of the Earth.
2. Jesus the first of ‘The First Fruit’ (being “the head” of “the body”) had set ‘the path’ for others to follow – being his future Bride – being Yahweh God’s new sons – the 144000 as we are told three times in Revelations.
3. Jesus’ Bride (being the Kings and Priests of The Millennium), they too could be resurrected in spiritual bodies and not fleshly bodies, because they had set themselves upon the example of Jesus before them. Jesus had shown them the way (being the tight/narrow gate) – set The Righteous Standard upon which those following could then be assessed against – solely by Yahweh.
4. Just like Jesus, these Sons of God (as The Bible tells us Rev.2v11, 20v6) would never be subject to The 2nd Death, and are thus able to be in the heavens.

So the reader can now see all the connections and the fulfillment of Yahweh’s Master Plan righteously running in parallel to all life on this Earth at present that operates according to Satan’s way of doing things (being self-indulgence expressed to fulfil worldly desires often to the hurt of one’s neighbour within and between countries). God now has a nation separate (called “holy” by The Bible) from the rest of The World. Rather than a fleshly Israelite Nation by ethnic name, it is a Spiritual Israelite Nation whose individuals have all shown their faith/fidelity/assurance in “The Expectation” of “The Inheritance” by active works during hardship by accurately spreading The Word of God in their first ‘life’ (being the 1st part of their whole life). Living like Jesus Christ during his ministry (setting The Standard), not loving the things of this world, and also shunning positions of political or religious power. These very special people imitate Jesus by going round about within their communities spreading The Word of God accurately.

This is now a 100% Nation that Yahweh wants to live with for the rest of eternity, mirroring His perfection being that they fulfil His Desire of them – just like His begotten Son – Jesus Christ – they too become His “Sons of God” to become part of that exclusive Family.

So we have during this present Gospel Age:-

(2) Thus in conclusion we have now a nation Israel growing to 144000 in number whose individuals, collectively as a Nation are now God’s Light to show The World how to live by works.

In reality all individuals of this nation followed God’s way, but for ‘the rest of The World’ – being the people of today – then Yahweh God has no (real) meaning in their life!

What about the rest of The World of peoples - some are atheists, and all those of other religions and the worldly Christians for whom “God” was not a real part of their lives?

Are they to be struck out forever from everlasting life?

NO!

Because that is why we have the proven/assayed 144000 kings and priests!

You do not have kings and priests to reign over no (= zero) humans!

As the saying goes: ‘You cannot have all Chiefs and no Indians!’

Thus there must be the ‘Indians’ around that far out number the Chiefs!

This is where The General Resurrection comes in.

The World gives up the dead (ones) to a resurrection and they are to have a thousand years to “Learn How to live” according to God’s Word. The Bible terms the 1st Death as being “Asleep” thus people effectively are “awakened/roused” as The Bible specifically tells us everywhere when this subject is written about. Thus these resurrected people are “awakened/roused” into “The 2nd part of their Life” as being a continuum of their only life upon which The Resurrection makes the entry into the 2nd part of their life. Thus now all humans are righteously in the position to learn and now believe (actions/works commensurate with knowledge) in Jesus who is know The Lord and Master of The World (while Satan is being restrained – thus he has no influence).

The Kings and Priests then teach God’s Word to all these resurrected people. However it becomes imperative that these individuals now take in and learn righteousness demonstrated by works to one another – because they shall be living on Jesus’ once only “credit life” (covering/atoning their former sinful 1st part of their life) handed to God on our behalf upon Jesus’ death and resurrection – iniquity shall be outlawed in The Millennium! Should you sin in iniquity (meaning enjoy sinning when you now know it is wrong) thus premeditated acts of rebellion, then you shall be permanently removed = The 2nd Death (of utter annihilation) spoken of within The Bible.

The Good News is that Satan shall be removed/restrained and Jesus shall be directing proceedings now – it will be so very much easier then not to commit iniquitous sin!

Only those who are willfully rebelling for selfish reasons demonstrating iniquity shall feel The 2nd Death. For Jesus in his instruction when speaking that we should forgive “our brother” (thus indicative of The Millennium – when we all shall be brothers) 7 x 70, thus keep no record of how many times we forgive, thus we can reason in The Millennium people will make innocent mistakes – and they will not be held accountable for them, it is only premeditated sin for self-indulgence to the hurt of your ‘brother’ that will bring on The 2nd Death of personal annihilation.

This is now fair and shows justice (thus utterly righteous) to those who have heard about Jesus and those who presently have not heard of Jesus (for them to believe, having faith/fidelity/assurance/commitment in imitating Jesus’ lifestyle).

Because now (as the Bible specifically instructs us):

All humans will have heard of Jesus and it is then (within The Millennium) that all humans must exercise belief in Jesus through works (not sinning to their neighbour – being then our brother/sister) commensurate to knowledge (learning righteousness), else they shall be subject to The Promised 2nd Death (permanent removal and non-existence).

This interpretation is True and consistent to every word within The Bible.

Now I hope to show it below with regard to The Sons of God - the 144000 in this explanation below.

Unfortunately to most religious Christian Leaders, my explanation of the future does not concur with theirs and so would call me an apostate. But their logic cannot resolve their earlier conundrum!

God is logical, equitable, consistent and loving for all those who desire to follow His Will. We shall see my logic seems to follow God’s logic when The Bible is accurately interpreted to present a solution for all humans on this Planet in a fair and very just manner (thus righteous), however the standard worldly Christian explanation just does not - it just banishes Muslims, Jews (and all other non-Christians) to Hell (thus like all other worldly religions – with their varying forms of ‘hell’, reincarnation as ‘a toad’ or ‘something’!).

But the Christian dogma interpretation of Hell is a place of torment!

I refute all these very worldly ideas – they are not Biblically correct or logically sound!

I have a very serious problem, many Christian Leaders pull out a few verses ‘here and there’ to use to prop up their view, unfortunately when I come along later to show “The Absolute Truth”, then I have the most difficult task to unpick all the errors (put into peoples’ minds) in a logical way to show how wrong so many Christian leaders are in their very worldly doctrine (thus sourced by Satan to ‘bend the minds’ in a most unrighteous manner). It becomes incumbent upon the reader to read more passages from The Bible (that in reality God desires you to do – to learn precisely what His Desire of you really is) and follow God’s reasoning through the text while I explain it in detail.

The final thing I would like to mention after that introduction is that worldly Christians do not seem to understand that The New Testament is not written for the worldly Christian individual!

Seems like a daft statement – please let me explain!

Yahweh God writes the whole of The New Testament as ‘A Calling’ through his trusted servant (as Isaiah says), Jesus, for The Priesthood. The New Testament is calling from out of the worldly Christians – those few humans who can become “The Elect” to be Sons of God. The New testament is setting the most perfect Target that we all as Christians should be aiming towards, but as we know in real life some hit the ‘Bulls-eye’ (these are The Elect) and many of us Christians though trying as hard as possible within our means; perhaps miss the target all together!

However if we are genuinely/sincerely trying very hard in our life to hit ‘Bulls-eye’ then God shall not penalise us – He knows what we are individually capable of!

Thus we should be trying to publicise the word ‘Gospel’ means ‘The Good News’.

What is this good news?

It is The Good News of The Millennium where we are to learn righteousness (without Satan around)!

Now the rest of the Christians (that is most of us) depending how far they reach particular grades will perhaps - be “The Great White Multitude” spoken about in Revelations, or miss that and just become one of the masses to learn Righteousness later within The Millennium. There will also be a small group of Christians who may just not be resurrected at all after their life in this present world now!

Who are these ones?

They are those being baptized now, thrown away Jesus’ credit life and then go on in their life to blaspheme the Holy Spirit by taking positions of power over their congregations and then distort/twist The Word of God to excuse their iniquity and at the same time confuse their listeners!

They might say: “You cannot believe all the Bible”, or “It is not relevant to our times”, or “Ignore some parts of The Bible”, or just spin the meaning around to support their errant lifestyle.

Thus ultimately what Yahweh God declares in many places to be ‘abomination practices’ being many things practiced by these ‘wonderful/pleasing sounding to the ear’ religious Christian (but Satanic) Leaders are preached as being perfectly acceptable to a Christian and thus effective preach the opposite of The Truth, then these leaders have no future.

They have turned their back upon The Truth to mislead the children (thus “better to jump into the sea with a millstone around their neck”) and like Judas it would be better if they had not been born!

The Bible clearly warns those within such congregations to “get out of them” for YOUR own safety!

So let us all bear close attention to that dire warning upon iniquitous Christian Leaders (however those of other religious faiths – if you have not been baptized nor claim to represent Yahweh then you have nothing to worry about – you will get a second chance – but you shall certainly miss the possibility of being one of The Elect)!

So let us quickly look at some Biblical scriptures to get God’s understanding of these special people that form God’s very Special Nation called “Israel” (see also Glossary for “Old Israel” and many of the words used below, for instance “River”, “Born Again”, etc).

Isa.43v6

Bring my sons from far and my daughters from the ends of the Earth (being those elected from out of The Christian Nation that lies within every nation of The World); Even every one that is called by my name’ (Yahweh recognising that they have washed their clothes to make them white), for I have created him (by nurturing The Holy Spirit within them and it has grown within them so that they become Truly Born Again) ‘for my glory’ (So that they may bring more people during The Millennium to come to know of Yahweh – so that they may also desire to praise Him – when they have been taught righteousness), I have formed him, yes, I have made him (to thus become My “Son of God”).

Isa.43v19

I will do a new thing (Create this New Nation from out of all the nations); now it shall spring forth (Gushing forth accurate knowledge), I will even make a way (to show humans the correct path to get to Him) in the wilderness (drawing people away from their worldly practices in the towns/cities), and rivers (always means knowledge being forced forth) in the desert (where there is no Godly knowledge – in Satan’s present worldly system).

Isa.43v20

To give drink (spiritual knowledge and Holy Spirit) to ‘my people, my chosen’ (this special group of people – Kings and Priests).

Isa.43v21

This people have I formed (created by becoming “Born Again” – see Glossary) for myself (thus imitate Jesus’ lifestyle and thus become part of Yahweh’s Family); they shall show forth my praise (When teaching Righteousness to the masses of resurrected humans in The Millennium).

Mal.4v16

Then they that feared (meaning to have great respect, awe and reverence) the Lord spoke often one to another (accurately learning the scriptures – daily and then teaching it as best they could to others); and the Lord listened and heard it (while He peered through the “glassy sea”, Rev.4v6 also see Glossary), and a book of remembrance (their name was written on The Scroll of guaranteed Life) was written before him for them that ‘feared the Lord’ and ‘that thought on His Name’ (Being the 144000 True Christians taken from The Gospel Age).

Eze.9v4

Set ‘a mark’ (being the obvious personality change – showing that they now have white clothes) upon the foreheads (metaphorically being what is plainly visible to the rest of The World when seeing their demonstrated works) of the men that ‘sigh and that cry’ (being True Christians around the whole world elected out of the worldly Christian nation sincerely caring to preach against) for all the abominations (distortions of God’s Word both in speech and works) that be done in the midst thereof (Jerusalem – but in this instance meaning worldly fleshly Jerusalem – being ‘the organisation that is supposed to represent God’ presently being very Worldly Christianity falsely representing Yahweh).

Eze.9v6

Slay utterly old and young, both maids and little children and women (allowing the present world to take them away); but come not near any man upon whom is ‘the mark’ (= Those True Christians who show the correct personality) – Begin at my sanctuary (The Temple – allegory meaning those worldly Christian leaders claiming to represent Yahweh during The Gospel Age – most of which shall be removed because of their disgusting acts).

Rev.7v2-4

I saw an angel (= messenger) having the seal (authority) of the living God (Yahweh/Jehovah) and he cried:-

Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants (= 144000 True Christians taken up at the 1st 2nd C of their Bridegroom – Jesus Christ) of out God (Yahweh's Holy Spirit within them) in their foreheads (demonstrated by their new personality displayed to The World).

And I heard the number, which were 'sealed' – they were 144000 (= the absolute number of True Christians taken from The Gospel Age).

Isa.66v2

The man he is looking for 'him that is poor (seeking spiritual knowledge) and of a contrite (thus willing to learn) spirit (want cannot be seen but causes to move = personality = synapse construction = heavenly treasure) and trembles at my word.'

Isa.66v8

Who has heard of such a thing (= so unusual = never occurred before)? Who has seen such things?

Shall the earth be made to bring forth in One Day? (Passing through to The Millennium) or Shall 'a nation' be Born at Once? (This is the 144000 – the New Spiritual Israel' nation elected out from The Christian Nation taken out during The Gospel Age rising to meet Jesus together in the air) for a soon as Zion (God's acclaimed representatives) travailed (= giving birth), she (as God's Organisation see "woman" in Glossary) brought forth 'her children' (now they are Truly Born Again 144000 meeting Jesus).

Acts.15v17

And all the gentiles (being all the nations of the world during The Gospel Age in which The Christian Nation) upon 'whom (being those elected from out of The Christian Nation) my name (specifically imitating Jesus' lifestyle) is called' (elected/chosen from out of the larger pool of The Christian Nation)

1Pet.4v17

For the time is come that judgement must begin at the house of God (those claiming to be representatives Yahweh) and if it begin at us (the 144000 part of the house of God who are chosen out of the world - First), what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (these are those iniquitous humans having the opportunity to learn and display righteousness, being iniquitous worldly Christian Leaders now at The Greater/Special Judgement or the rest of The World learn later in the standard 'Judgement Day' during and at the end of The Millennium, after having been taught by these 144000 kings/Priests).

So I ask the reader again:-

How many people does the reader see around them now fitting all the above descriptions that God gives to these very special people – being His special people (that imitate Jesus) worthy to be called/elected as being His Sons?

We see some texts above to show that there are some special people on earth who behave like that. These people are not the 'normal worldly Christians' who we see all around us – so these people must be a different type of Christian. Clearly we would suggest that Jesus' apostles would be this type of person followed by other people mentioned in The New Testament, Steven, Paul and Timothy etc. These Apostles and subsequent First Century Christians went through extreme pain and hardships (torture and death) to accurately preach/teach The Word of God, given out by their Master – Jesus Christ. We see this written down for us in John.

John 15v18-25

If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. Remember the words I spoke to you: no servant is greater than its master. If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the One who sent me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin. He who hates me hates my Father as well. If I had not done among them what no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. But this is to fulfil what is written in their Law: They hated me without a reason"

The reason why Jesus and his apostles "were hated", was because the Religious leaders at the time – The Pharisees – thought they knew everything about God, and did not like this single 'uneducated upstart rocking their boat' by showing the masses where these religious leaders were wrong in their understanding of God's Word, thus the hypocrisy displayed within their actions.

These verses (and the such like) are repeated in many places within The New Testament, and thus it becomes incumbent upon the reader to keep these verses within your mind as you read through the rest of this document to enable the reader to appreciate the separation that Jesus is speaking of, when referring to his Disciples (and subsequent growth of The Elect) and the other group of 'Worldly Individuals' who fit into The World.

We see this theme of persecution continuing in England at a time called 'The Middle Ages', where I would perhaps introduce another candidate to be part of the 144000 named William Tyndale, who brought The Bible to the 'common people' in their language and was hunted down through Europe, to then be captured and burnt at the stake for it by the Christian Religious Authorities ruling at the time. Again we are able to see, the prevailing Religious Authorities (now Christian instead of the Jews) thinking that they only had the correct understanding of The Word of God. But they saw (just as The Pharisees) another single 'uneducated upstart rocking their boat' demonstrating their hypocrisy within their works, and it was this that precipitated their hatred and so persecution followed after William Tyndale - he died for his cause in a painful manner.

And we see this all the time when The Individual 'rocks the boat' of Old Establishments, demonstrating the members' hypocrisy – it is almost a 'knee-jerk' reaction from the representatives of these monoliths, rather than meditate first upon their understanding, realize their errors, accept the obvious and then readjust their lifestyle and personality to become Christ-Like.

So continuing this train of thought processes - I do not see too many Christians around me standing up for The Word of God like William Tyndale. And neither do the very worldly contemporary Christian Leaders today in what they preach and how they behave, so they now have a severe problem!

How can they make the specific number as given three times in The Bible "144000" equate to millions of Christians to support the worldly Christian Leaders' doctrine and so draw in the populace into Their Own (worldly) religion (to support their own worldly lifestyle)? Thus endorse their errant actions!

To get over this problem they then suggest that this is only "typifies" the true numbers, and really it is many more (I give examples of their justification later). However when I look in The Bible and I see a particular number quoted three times, and when this occurs I normally accept that this should be the correct absolute number – there is no exception to this rule!

We did not have about 12 apostles of Jesus, which really just could have been 5 to perhaps 20 apostles? When Jesus sent 70 people out to preach the word of God, perhaps Jesus got it wrong – he couldn't count? Perhaps it was only 50, but it might have been 1000 people going out to preach The Word of God.

Perhaps Jesus didn't know?

When Jesus fed the 5000, perhaps it wasn't that number but only 5 – that is why there was enough food for them from the boy's five loaves and two fish!

Perhaps there were ten loaves and twenty fish!

We could take examples in The Old Testament; Gideon picked 300 people to remove the wicked people out of the camp, or was it 3000 – according to the 'wise' logic of many contemporary Christian Leaders of today!

Where do you stop?

This is my worry when you start ripping up things up out of The Bible.

Many contemporary Christian Leaders take many things out of context, spin things around and say they do not really mean what is stated word for word in The Bible!

So does that mean we might as well throw The Bible away because we only pick and choose what we personally want to believe – and throw the rest away!

Perhaps write their own Bible to suit their own whims – and this is being demonstrated!

So why do they apply this routine to certain passages within the Bible?

They do this to try and make The Bible fit their doctrine, rather than trying to make their doctrine fit what is actually written within The Bible!

Another reason is to make the Bible fit their new ideas; perhaps to say things are different now in our 'modern days'. The Bible was written for an older time and does not mean the same thing now!

However those who speak like this conveniently ignore that many times in The Bible it says:

"The Almighty God is Unchanging".

Thus what He caused to write down then is for all people, for all ages – and not for his creation to pick and choose, when and where the whim takes them, to change The Inviolable Word of God when it suits them (normally to allow human standards to slide – downwards) See the book of Ezekiel for examples of this!

When you start this sort of thing, then all credibility just flies out of the window. I would suggest that we stick to what is written in The Bible and then try to understand it within context something that these so-called religious Christian Leaders left behind at their very worldly ‘doctorate’ within their seminaries!

If you look in The Bible, whenever a number is used in The Bible it means the specified value and in this case not a different value that is about 10,000 times larger!

Try equating this multiplier with the numbers given earlier and see where it takes us – clearly we have a nonsense result!

The interesting thing is that this number isn’t given the once (which perhaps might have given some ‘credibility’ to their reasoning) but actually written down three times within the book of Revelations – so I would ‘guess’ that it should be taken literally!

So let us investigate what the very worldly Christian Leaders use to support their idea that it is ‘all Christians’ who go to the heavens, and the rest of us go to Hell (in torment) implicit within their worldly doctrine (see “heaven” and “hell” in Glossary).

But I also ask the reader to think through my explanation of God’s plan as you go through these verses below and identify “The (Spiritual) Nation of Israel” now as God’s Chosen/Elected (from out of a pool of like minded) people (thus can only be out of The Christian Nation as a whole – for it is impossible for a Muslim or Hindu person, as examples, to “believe in Jesus” as their savior and thus imitate him if they stay within their worldly religion during the 1st part of their life).

So these special people are not the ordinary people of the world, who just claim they are Christians but think no further than this (being the full implications of this statement and what it really means in Satan’s present worldly system).

1Pet.1:3-4 is used but taken totally out of context.

But I would put it into context from 1Pet.1v1 to the end of 1Pet.2v10.

John.17v20, 24 (as above) is used but taken out of context.

But I would put it back into context from John.17v1-26

They then go onto suggest that there are two flocks as shown below:-

Luke 12v32

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

John 10v16

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

And then conclude that the small flock of 144000 from Israel unites with the other flock of Christians from the rest of The World and they all go to heaven. And everyone else goes to Hell for everlasting torment.

Assuming this is what ‘mainstream’ Christians ‘is believed think’!

But sorry, this is not correct and just a superficial interpretation. Basically it is not fair (thus not righteous) to those who have never heard of Jesus but have lived a Very Good life. These Christian Leaders have now ‘Played Judge’ by pronouncing that:

“Because these individuals did not ‘believe in Jesus’, they have to be in Hell, tormented forever.”

If the Christians use this argument, then it is not fair/equitable because if that particular person had the opportunity to learn about Jesus then they would have ‘believed upon him’. The Christian Leader squirms and as they have no logical answer.

The pre-Jesus’ ministry individuals are explained away by these Christian Leaders saying they are ‘Longing as strangers for the new hope of resurrection’. But again, sorry, if as The Bible clearly states and using the very worldly Christian argument ‘You need to believe in Jesus to be saved’ then their argument collapses!

These people who have not known Jesus to believe in – and so cannot be resurrected – using their argument! Why also is it more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah than those who heard of Jesus now?

Thus worldly Christian wisdom is utterly lacking in any form of Heavenly wisdom.

So what does The Bible Really mean?

Well we must look at a few more verses than many worldly Christian Leaders have chosen to look at. Perhaps this piece may introduce them to these additional verses – which they must obviously be unaware of, because they are ignored!

If God felt that only a few verses are necessary to give the true picture, then he would have made The New Testament consist of only a few pages, and not the many hundreds that it does comprise of!

So I suggest that we should use all of them – to get God's true picture of our future and what He desires of us!

1Pet.1v1 to 1Pet.2 v10

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ (Clearly one of these special people - The Elect), To God's elect (to be an elect – you are elected from a large group – of Christians - to be a part of a small group – of Christians, you cannot be elected out of a group of non-Christians! – thus cannot be elected from out of the rest of the world – being all people, because they do not belong to the large group of The Christian Nation – thus they are outside – therefore there are three groups of people, (1) The elect – small group, elected from (2) a large group – of Christians, selected out of a larger group (3) rest of The World of non Christians – already we have shown the Christian leaders to be wrong – they only believe in two groups), strangers in the world (Clearly if you are a stranger in the world, then you are different to the world) scattered (to be scattered means thinly spread amongst the rest of the world – thus again a small number) throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, who have been chosen (elected by The Almighty God) according to the foreknowledge of God the Father (Almighty God knew He would call them before they were Baptized Christians) through the sanctifying work (being 'the process of making holy' – thus separate from this present world through the power) of the Holy Spirit (God's Power overshadowed them and proved/assayed them) for the obedience of Jesus Christ (to be obedient to Christ means do as he wants – Jesus said: "Go and spread The Word of God to the whole world and then the end will come" – they showed obedience to Jesus by doing this through works).

Grace (= gifts and favours) and peace be yours in abundance (coming from the power of the Holy Spirit supporting their work).

We now come onto the part taken out of context by these particular worldly Christian Leaders.

First the reader must ask of themselves the question:

“Who” is the writer speaking of?

It is clearly “The Elect”. The writer is not moving from group (1) above in his writings.

His writing is specifically for those chosen in the Higher Calling = The Elect. This is the Group that Jesus is trying to build up during The Gospel Age. This is the difficult group to be part of – because it opposes the desire of the present custodian god (Satan) operating in this world – soon to be terminated. But in this present system of things during The Gospel Age it is obviously very easy to backslide into the groups (2) and (3) because that is the natural course that self-seeking desires take people in this world.

Thus The Almighty God at present - is not directly interested in these groups (contrary to everything worldly Christians teach for obvious reasons) and further as The Bible tells us in many places (see Glossary for examples) both in The Old and New Testaments that He closes His ears to them, and is far from them!

BUT in His utter righteousness, He has provided the escape route for those in groups (2) and (3) later on, in the resurrection into The Millennium – through the specific actions of Jesus!

So: I ask the reader:

Can they identify when the writer moves onto group (2) and group (3) – if ever?

1Pet.1v3 and 4

Praise be to the ‘God’ also Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead (new birth living hope – exactly correct – hope and faith/fidelity/assurance now based upon fact because of the proof to them of Jesus' resurrection - if Jesus 'can do it – so can we' - through God's Power being The Holy Spirit = Yahweh's Expressed Desire in action), and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade (inheritance being part of the family of God – Sons of God - and never perish/destroyed because The Elect will be in spiritual bodies) – kept in the heavens (= the heavenly treasure – securely retained and underwritten by God in the heavens, and the heavens is waiting for The Elect),

These worldly Christian Leaders now stop here with their quotation!

What meaning does this give to the reader when this passage is quoted out of context?

And the worldly Christian Leader blithely going on to say:

This future is for all Christians – because the Bible says so!

But putting back into context we see this to be nothing more than an Lie uttered out of these particular Christian Leaders' mouths – for it is not available to all Christians!

And further for a small group of iniquitous Christians, The Bible infers they shall not be resurrected after their death occurring at the end of their present life now!

The first example would be Judas because he knew the scriptures intently and then afterwards rejected them. Jesus said it would be better for these types of people (who knew the scriptures – but turned their back Jesus or falsely preached The Word of God) to have a millstone around their neck and be plunged in the sea (to die now – in this first part of their whole life) rather than mislead the children (= people new to the Christian faith)!

Why?

Because it would be better if for them in the ‘long term’ if they were resurrected in The Millennium to learn The Truth correctly (and so made to conform correctly) rather than falsely mislead newcomers now (or those weak in the truth) in this first part of our total single life (and so lose their second opportunity being the 2nd part after the resurrection).

This true understanding is reinforced by:-

2Pet.2v20-21

If they have escaped the corruption of this world by knowing our Lord Jesus Christ (these can only be baptized Christians who learnt – knowing – God’s Word and acted upon it) and are entangled in it and be overcome (meaning either disowning Jesus and God or much worse distorting God’s word to mislead people – a half truth is worse than a lie – because the half truth is more difficult for the novice to unpick the truth and leads to confusion of God’s Word – a result so much loved by Satan practiced often), they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning (by not even becoming a Christian in the first instance). It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness (having known righteousness in this world – means to fully understand and follow Jesus’ teaching = imitating Jesus), than to have known it and then turn their backs on the sacred that was passed onto them command (the sacred command was given in Luke.10v27, Mark.12v30-31 and in fulfilling both is through works as commanded in Matt. 28v18-20).

The reader is able to see very clearly that this document is supported by The Bible in many places.

So getting back to the verses, this promise of going to the heavens is only available to ‘The Elect’.

1Pet.1v5-9

Who through faith/fidelity/assurance are shielded by God’s power (Their faith/fidelity/assurance based upon accurate knowledge directly from The Bible supports their works and mutually, their works support their faith/fidelity/assurance, so this inheritance based upon faith/fidelity/assurance and works is protected and underwritten by God – as spoken of by Jesus – “Treasure built up in the heavens where no thief comes near and no moth destroys” – The scriptures tell us that treasure comes from activity - works – not faith, and these works are driven by knowledge from thoughts that create The Synapse Construction of The Brain – whose mapping becomes “The Heavenly Treasure” – see Glossary) until the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time (The Elect to be changed into spiritual bodies in the End Time – the dead Elect raised in spiritual bodies, and those alive, their fleshly bodies will be instantly changed to spiritual bodies – “at the 7th trumpet” that occurs 3.5 years before the start of The Millennium). In this (knowledge of The Good News) you greatly rejoice, though now for a little (during the 1st part of your life) while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials (*I do not hear Christian leaders talk about this aspect very much – these trials are not the normal everyday trials, brought on by our willful actions against God’s Will on how we are suppose to behave; - But deliberate actions of taunting, name calling, and malicious acts from worldly people – because you are different to The World [strangers/sojourners – see above] and so worldly people pick on you to find trouble – even though you ‘turn the other cheek’ – ‘walk the additional mile’ – ‘repay evil done to you with kindness back to the perpetrators’ – these are the trials that The Bible passage is telling us – because Satan, ruler of this preset worldly system does NOT want God’s message to be taught and is deliberately attacking “The Elect/Chosen” to try and make them fail). These have come so that your faith – of greater worth than gold (because it is your faith/fidelity/assurance is exercised/expressed in works that will ensure that you become a Son of God in The Millennium – the True Christian bonds ‘Oh so closely’ to The Father in these times of stress), which perishes even though refined by fire – may be proved genuine and may (‘may’ is used twice as a warning – you can lose it and it would be disastrous – perhaps never to be resurrected again) result in praise, glory and honor (but if you faithfully follow the works of Jesus Christ to the end of your natural life then you will be successful) when Jesus Christ is revealed (when Jesus’ ‘presence’ upon the Earth within The 144000 True Christians over the 2000 years is finally realised to just collect those who are watching for him – The Elect – at The 7th Trumpet). Though you have not seen him (Jesus) (writing to second and third generation Christians – and us today), you (by principal) love him; and even though you do not see him now (physically), you believe/entrust/committed in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the goal of your faith/fidelity/assurance (I ask the question – How many Christians around the world feel like this? And demonstrate this by physically carrying out the works of Jesus Christ by imitating him? – Clearly this is the special Elect), the salvation of your life/souls (The soul is the union of the conscious state and the heavenly/celestial/spiritual body at the resurrection of the 144000 to form a fully thinking individual, thus now a Son of God – see my section ‘What is a Soul’ and in Glossary “Life” and “Soul”).*

1Pet.1v10-12

Concerning this salvation (Resurrection into a guaranteed everlasting life – see earlier – again we are still not speaking of groups (2) and (3) above), the prophets, who spoke of the grace (= gifts and favours) that was to come to you (grace to mean the most beautiful gift comes to you), searched the scriptures intently (to understand “The Mystery”) and with the greatest care (Prophets tried to find out what this beautiful gift meant and was a mystery to them), trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them (God’s Holy Spirit being with the prophets – Isaiah - foreknowledge of Jesus Christ in their prophecies) was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow (Christ’s death and resurrection now opened the door for the human race – but also offered the most precious gift – of this specific Grace - to The Elect – to be “Sons of God”). It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you (It is The Elect with the Promise of the spiritual body and to be called Son’s of God – not the prophets – who are to only have the fleshly body at resurrection, the prophets are later shown in the Bible to be “blessed by The Elect”), when they spoke of the things that they have now been told by those (the “now” means this can only happen in The Millennium because the prophets are dead “now” but to be resurrected and then have it all explained to them by these very Son’s of God following after them during The Gospel Age) who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent (that pervades all space - to show that it is God’s power from the Heavens to assist in the understanding of The Knowledge) from the Heavens. Even the angels yearn to look into these things (even the angels are still mystified to how all this is going to work out correctly/righteously/equitably – until it all shown to everyone in The Millennium).

Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed (all this explained earlier). As obedient children (as The Elect, you must be obedient God – as Sons of God – to follow precisely what He/Yahweh Desires – to live precisely like Jesus Christ and the Apostles), do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance (as you formally behaved like the people of The World). But just as He (this is Yahweh) who called you holy (holy to mean “be separate from the worldly sins and actions of normal people”), so be holy in all that you do; for it is written: “Be holy (separate from this world of sin), because I am holy (separate from this world of sin).” Since you call on a Father who judges each man’s work impartially (= Almighty God judges everyone the same, thus to become The Elect, then your works demonstrating your faith/fidelity/assurance in imitating Jesus are the only things that will take you through to be a Son of God), live your lives as strangers/sojourners here reverent fear (= as above = separate your ways from those of worldly people). For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold (these will not help you to be a Son of God when you die at the end of the 1st part of your life) that you were redeemed from the empty way of life (a future without God’s wonderful gift that is now possible for those who read this word and then practice it) handed down to you from your forefathers (Adam’s seed – because he failed), but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect (as the Israelite’s Passover lamb to save The Old Israelites from death – so now Jesus likewise saves The New Spiritual Israel = 144000 while in this world for guaranteed life over The 2nd Death, but moreover to the whole World of mankind by giving them a Single Pass over death - to have a second chance/opportunity to get the remaining part = the 2nd part of their life back to imitate Jesus during The Millennium – notice the subtle differences but how it all logically ‘comes together’). He was chosen before creation of the world (Almighty God had already seen into the future and sorted out an exit route to a second, and final chance/opportunity salvation), but was revealed in these last times for your sake (Again this shows that the prophets could not understand how this was all going to sort itself out – it is only now that “The Mystery” being of “The Sons of God” – heavenly/celestial/spiritual bodies – and how God would be in the position to raise everyone from the graves when they had been sinful – but it has been now revealed to the Apostles, and the Elect now by Jesus Christ’s works and actions). Through him (Jesus’ ministry and selfless sacrifice) you believe in (Yahweh = The Almighty) God, who raised him (Jesus) from the dead and glorified him (Jesus), and so your faith/fidelity/assurance and expectation are in God (how can the Trinitarians explain this part – with their worldly logic? Clearly separate entities having different responsibilities, the faith/fidelity/assurance and expectation now reflected back – as it should be – back to The Almighty God in Whom all power resides when the actions are completed).

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying The Truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from a pure heart. For you have been born again (Greek word is actually ‘having regenerated’ and not the usual ‘born again’ but rather The Bible means conceived and growing from a new conception – see Glossary “Born Again” and “Begotten”), not of perishable seed but of imperishable (from the Holy Spirit – now to be Born again at the resurrection into a Spiritual Body now as a Son of God), through the living and enduring word of God (it is this time now in this world as the womb we are learning and nurturing ourselves with God’s Holy Spirit). For:-

All men are like grass,
And all their glory is like the flowers of the field;
The grass withers and the flowers fall,
But the word of the Lord stands forever.

(From Isaiah 40v6-8, we see how the wonderful creation of both man and flowers both wax and wane, then die. But working with God’s Word, we then will have the opportunity to be bathed with God’s glory for an eternity).

And this was the word preached to you.

1Pet.2v1-10

Therefore rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy and slander of every kind (being the typical actions of people operating within The World). Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk (the milk being The Word of God – living within you – making you grow to be a strong mature adult in the knowledge of God), so that by it you may grow up in your salvation (this knowledge and ‘the application of’ - will save you), now that you have tasted that the Lord is Good (= ‘the application of The Knowledge’ also improves your physical and mental well being – plus the ‘peace of mind’ now, given by knowing of your future prospects with The Almighty God).

As you come to him (Jesus), the living Stone (= solid foundation) rejected by men (most of the world - then and now) but also chosen by God and precious to Him – you also, like living stones (adding to that foundation created by Jesus– through works – Stones are deemed everlasting in The Bible and in this instance are working by supporting the building!), are being built into a spiritual house (= the future temple spoken of in Rev.21) to be a holy priesthood (= kings priests of The Millennium), offering spiritual sacrifices (Sacrifice = ‘refraining from self-indulgence’ - is pleasing to God – this pleasing sacrificial action is the spreading of God’s True Word by action through works, also confirmed in the Old Testament – God said: Works are more pleasing than the sacrificing of animals) acceptable to God through Jesus Christ (by copying the actions of Jesus Christ we demonstrate our faith in Jesus). For in the scripture it says:-

See I lay a stone in Zion,
A chosen and precious cornerstone,
And the one who trusts in him
Will not be put to shame.

Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe (see John.6v64 because “believe in Jesus” means “to precisely imitate Jesus” else you are a hypocrite to what you ‘believe’!):-

The stone the builders rejected
Has become the capstone.

And:-

A stone that causes men to stumble
And a rock that makes them fall.

They stumble because they disobey the message – which is what they were destined for.

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are a people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

In these last two verses, the apostle Peter answers it all for us!

It is exactly how I said it to be at the beginning of this study and as I have explained within the quoted passage.

But worldly Christian Leaders absolutely do not tell their congregation this message!

What is worse they mislead the ‘Christian flock’ and then decry any individual or group that tries to preach Biblical truth!

*I have never heard this preached when I have been to numerous sermons – I ask the reader now - Have YOU heard this message?

I hope this passage may inspire the Christian community to start preaching exactly what Yahweh Desires them to preach while there is just a little time remaining! Else “sacrificial blood shall be on their hands if they do not”!

Let me now take the second passage quoted by many Christian leaders to support their doctrine that all Christians go to (the) heaven(s) when they die.

But I shall put it back into context by writing out John 17v1-26 (I would like to have started earlier in The Bible before this position - but that is different topic ripe for another dissertation!).

The reason why Jesus made this very sincere and very personal prayer to his Father (Almighty God) is that Jesus (conversely to the illogical worldly sourced Trinity reasoning) was a separate entity from his Father in the Heavens. This prayer was to mentally strengthen Jesus to face the immanent future by reinforcing the bond between two separate Entities (and so to become ‘one mind’ in purpose), where one entity (Jesus) knew he was in severe danger - ‘right out on a limb’, but still prepared to be in total submission to his Father’s Desire, knowing that without God’s Power, he (Jesus) would not be resurrected from his immanent murder (so while he - Jesus - was unconscious [and ‘out of it’], namely “very dead”, he must rely entirely on Yahweh God to uphold His end of ‘the bi-lateral agreement’ – to provide Jesus with a resurrection). He is mentally reinforcing his purpose to continue with his Father’s wishes. Thus he is going through all the reasons why he had to come on this earth, reinforcing within his mind (and unifying with his Father) the fact he has succeeded (in fully performing his Father’s Desire) in producing an embryonic nation (= The new Spiritual Israel) – starting with his Apostles. These apostles will continue with God’s power of The Holy Spirit (dispensed by Jesus as the specific god of us when he returned to the heavens) and ‘oneness of mind’ between all three parties – The Almighty God, Jesus and this new nation (to become The Body of Christ, and upon Resurrection then his Bride) – to preach the Gospel during The Gospel Age.

After Jesus said this, he looked toward Heaven/sky (being singular and thus refers to the zone above the Earth, pertaining to the Earth) and prayed:

Father the time has come. Glorify (Greek to mean ‘to honor’, or ‘of repute’) your Son (to mean here ‘exult’ Jesus to the status he had in the heavens before he was put into a fleshly body upon this Earth) that your Son may glorify You (and reciprocating – Jesus would ‘exult’ God by showing all entities at the end times, God had The Master Plan to save individuals of the human race and that through Jesus’ completed works now, the fruition of this plan was then made possible). For You (Yahweh) granted him (Jesus) authority over all people (all humans have that single token of resurrection delivered by the selfless actions of Jesus Christ) that he might give eternal life (those guaranteed an eternal life are those Elect who do not deviate from God’s Will all through the 1st part of their life – thus inherit a spiritual body upon their resurrection - hence “The 2nd Death has no power”) to all those who You (Yahweh) have given him (Jesus must be speaking of The Elect being “given” here, because it is The Father that gives The Bride-to-Christ at The Greater/Special Judgment. However the vast majority of people resurrected [most humans now] are selected by Jesus in The Millennium under The Judges being The Elect to pull out the children from “The Special Marriage” as Paul tells us). Now this is eternal life; that they (being all humans) may know you, the only true God (by knowing means learning about God and putting what you know into practice – and not just saying “I have heard of God”!) and Jesus Christ (acknowledging Jesus’ wonderful gift for us – being The Ransom Sacrifice), whom You have sent. I have brought You glory on Earth by completing the work You gave me to do (as earlier – The Culmination of Yahweh’s Plan completed by Jesus). And now, Father, glorify me in Your presence (this we shall see in The Millennium – and afterwards) with the glory I had with you before The World (“The world” in Greek always means “Adornment/Decoration” = all forms of Life on this planet) began (when Jesus created life on this planet – using the power of The Almighty God, Yahweh’s power = The Holy Spirit).

John.17v6-12

I have revealed Your name to those (= The Elect – reason as earlier and only spoken of here in this piece – worldly Christians are not spoken of here – they are ignored – see why later) whom You gave me out of the world (from and yet separate to the world being strangers/sojourners in The World). They were yours (God knew before their existence who would make the grade); You gave them to me (as earlier) and they have obeyed Your word (God’s Word as 100% stated within The Bible – see elsewhere on this website www.FutureLife.Org for explanation). Now they know that everything You have given me comes from You (by the learning from Jesus – all things come from Yahweh God). For I gave them the words You gave me and they accepted them (contained within The Bible). They knew with certainty that I came from You and they believed that You sent me (Jesus clearly a separate entity who worked closely with God in the Heavens and was sent to Earth in a fleshly body to take on the responsibility for the salvation of his own personal creation). I pray for them (Jesus says “I” and not We and thus cannot be praying to himself – else that is stupid! – Thus again a separate reasoning entity). I am not praying for The World (Thus only praying for the Elect and not all the other humans of The World – thus they are ignored – see earlier), but for those You have given me (as his future Bride, being his body made as one - explained before), for they are Yours (to become Sons of God). All I have is Yours (In humility passing everything back to his Father), and all you have is mine (Because Jesus has fulfilled God’s plan here on Earth – he shall be resurrected and be with his Farther in the heavens and take on the full Power and Glory that he had prior to his departure to this Earth). And glory has come to me through them (the Bride of Christ loves her husband = Jesus, and honors him). I will remain in The World no longer (Jesus’ work has now been fulfilled), but they (= The Elect) are still in The World (of all the other humans), and I am coming to You. Holy Father (Yahweh separate from this world and originator of all things in The Universe) , protect them by the power of Your Name (The Name/Character/Authority being Yahweh / Jehovah throughout The Universe is associated with power, wisdom, justice, love – and able to use His Holy Spirit to carry out any plan of His faithfully to fruition – as demonstrated with this plan to save those humans who know and finally love God, out and away from their present sin during the 1st part of their lives) – the Name/Character/Authority You gave me – so that they may be one as we are one (again this destroys the Trinity idea – how can all these separate individuals be one, except through ‘one mind of purpose’ and likewise, we – Jesus and God – and if we are of The Elect then we are as The Body of Christ, all of ‘one mind’ to carry out the Father’s Desire in our lives). While I was with them (Jesus was only with his Elect, the Apostles who left everything and followed Jesus – not others who did not make this complete commitment and went home back to The World), I protected them and kept them safe by that name/character/authority You gave me (as explained earlier). None has been lost (Again only speaking of The Elect – the Apostles and subsequent True Christians motivated to imitate Jesus) except the one doomed to destruction so that the scripture may be fulfilled (Judas like some self-claimed Christian Leaders of today reject their Master, by joining with Satan through distorting God’s Word and so bending it to suit their own desires – exactly what Judas did for 30 pieces of silver. The Bible suggests – as here - they shall not be resurrected after their first life).

John 17v13-19

I am coming to You now (after his imminent Death – though does not mean rises to the Heavens immediately upon Death [but three days later] – Because in John 20v17 puts an end to the lie that we immediately rise to the heavens upon our death – Jesus said “I have not yet gone to my Father in the heavens” – and he must have just come from there if he had just been resurrected [according to very faulty standard Christian worldly doctrine/theory]! So obviously he had not but was about to go to The Heavens in his heavenly/celestial/spiritual Body (just as we are told “The Elect shall arise together to meet The Lord in the air”. Also look at Acts 2v22-28, we see several references to Jesus being Dead and in the Grave – but nowhere does it mention here Jesus going to the Heavens and clearly it should if to be consistent!), but I say these things while I am still in The World (while Jesus is ‘bodily’ with his Elect), so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them (the joy given to The Elect [now they understand] that Jesus has been successful in his purpose on this Earth). I have given them for Your word (The Elect now having this knowledge directly from The Word of God are now to spread God's Word) and The World has hated them (Look around The World and the reader should ask themselves: How many worldly Christians are "hated by The World" – not many, thus these worldly Christians cannot be The Elect that this piece is writing about), for they are not of The World (being the hypocrisy and double standards of selfishness that operates within The World that we all see, so these Elect must behave differently to normal worldly Christians because they are not of The World – because they are strangers/sojourners in The World) any more than I am of The World (thus the Apostles as part of The Elect are like Jesus – again, how many worldly Christians are imitating Jesus?). My prayer is not that You (Yahweh) take them (The Apostles as part of The Elect) out of The World (so that they do not partake in the self-centered nature of The World) but that You protect them from the evil one (Satan who is desperately trying to remove The Apostles through immediate death). They are not part of The World even as I am not part of it (Again reinforcing the difference between the Apostles as part of The Elect and worldly Christians). Sanctify (meaning 'the process of separating from') them by The Truth (thus knowledge and understanding of The Truth separates you from The World); Your (Yahweh's) Word is truth. As You sent me into The World (One Entity, God sends another, Jesus into The World), I have sent them into the world (Similarly one Entity, Jesus sends another 'The Elect' into The World by command being 'the head instructing the body' – again the wording shows Trinity to be so utterly wrong when put into context = Different Entities – but united as One in purpose). For them I sanctify myself (Jesus is separating from The Apostles as part of The Elect – by going to The Heavens), that they too may be truly sanctified (so that The Apostles will now be physically separate from Jesus, but with God's power now transferred to them, they will shine in The World by their own actions and Prove/Assay themselves to others through works to be the new Sons of God).

My prayer is not for them alone (The Apostles). I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message (succeeding generations of The Elect in The Gospel Age), that all of them may be one (One Spiritual Israelite Nation – 'pop' goes the worldly Trinitarian myth see next part!), Father, just as You are in me and I am in You (Again – different Entities all united in One Purpose – being the fulfillment of God's wonderful plan for us all – we can see here The Bible words destroy the Trinity myth as a very worldly Christian doctrine). May they (The Elect) also be in us (Jesus and God - again no Trinity – because: How can The Elect be physically the same as Jesus and Almighty God? Except unified in purpose where the personality/spirit/{heavenly treasure}, are in unity) SO that The World may believe that You have sent me (Jesus subservient to God's Desire and was sent). I have given them the glory that You gave me (explained earlier, exulting positions of each in the heavens), that they may be one as we are one; I in them and you in me (again reinforcing the earlier explanation and again destroys the very worldly Trinity myth). May they be brought to complete unity (this new spiritual nation to preach God's Word as one individual, thus all members preaching it accurately as a unified force) to let the world know that You sent me and have loved them (The Elect) even as You have loved me (covered earlier and thus introducing us to the idea that they shall receive the same Expectation that Jesus has).

"Father (= Yahweh = The Almighty God), I want those You have given me (= The Elect) to be with me where I am (future tense, The Groom Jesus, and his Bride The Elect married to become one in The Millennium), and to see my glory (covered earlier but now Jesus to be rightfully king of this world), the glory You have given me because You loved me before the creation of the world (covered earlier – Jesus' pre-existence and his responsibility in the creation of "The Adornment" = "The World" being all Life on This Planet but not responsible for the creation of physical aspect of this planet some 4.5 billion years ago)."

"Righteous Father, though the world does not know you (again reinforcing the fact of most of humans including worldly Christians do not really know Yahweh God intimately like Jesus [and his Elect] does – if they did then all humans would practice righteous works, to be exactly like Jesus – but we know they do not), I know you (as preceding parenthesis), and they know that You sent me. I have made You known to them (all covered earlier), and will continue to make You known in order that the love You have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them (covered earlier).

The reader sees the text above and from it, we are able to discern within it the following principal four groups (the fifth group is added for completeness) :-

(1) Almighty God, (2) Jesus, (3) The Elect (4) The World. {(5) Those like Judas}

I see no other group of individuals mentioned in the above text. We see The Elect as being special people with a strong affinity to carry out the works of Yahweh God like His son Jesus Christ did. But I do not see within the text a group of worldly Christians – who are shown elsewhere in The Bible (Rev.2/3) to be very much part of the various Churches in Asia. These churches have worldly Christians claiming to be Christians, but what does Jesus think of them?

Let John tell us in Revelations (as examples of Christians showing different levels of commitment from the most ardent to the most disruptive).

Let us go through the Churches in Revelations:-

Rev.2v1-7

Ephesus: Generally favorable comments, but they had slipped down a little from their former zeal.

Rev.2v8-11

Smyrna: Nothing but praise! And a promise to be part of The Elect.

Rev.2v12-17

Pergamum: Problems here. And warnings of a double-edged sword being used! – You don't say this to your Elect, but only those who are not!

Rev.2v18-28

Thyatire: Again basically most are trying hard to be like The Elect, but there are some individuals within the Christian congregation who are despised by Jesus!

Rev.3v1-6

Sardis: "I know you have a reputation of being alive – but you are dead!" This is being applied to the majority of the congregation. They even look to outsiders (non-Christians) as being good Christians – but Jesus calls their works dead. These do not look like The Elect to me!

But John goes on to say there are some who have not soiled their clothes – clearly The Elect. So we see that not all the Congregation form The Elect.

Rev.3v7-13

Philadelphia: All praise to a church of individuals worthy to be called The Elect!

Rev.3v14-21

Laodicea: Their deeds are neither cold nor hot! I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm – neither hot nor cold – I am about to spit you out of my mouth! These are Christians that are about to be ejected out of Jesus' mouth. These cannot be 'The Elect'?

Note: Interestingly it is assumed by many that this last church of Laodicea, represents 'modern Christians', well that may be, but as Jesus says: I spit you out of my mouth – so he is not likely to accept these Christians to be his Bride! Nowhere does it mention that the future of this relationship is to be tempestuous – but everywhere it is spoken of a mutually loving relationship. This must be a loving relationship if you are to find favour in Yahweh's Eyes and so become adopted as a Son of God, when judged at "The Special/Greater Judgment" by Yahweh God alone at the 1st 2nd C of Jesus Resurrection to be sufficiently righteous within this 1st part of our life.

Why have I been so specific about quoting all these churches?

Because the churches mentioned above all have congregations of individuals claiming to be Christians. I would think that these Christians written about in The Bible accurately reflect the spread in The World of Christian devotion today (to the task Jesus gave to all Christians in all nations). We have some Christians mentioned as being candidates for The Elect, but also those who deliberately went against God's Word and would clearly not be candidates in Jesus' eyes even worthy to be called a Christian. The crux is that they were all in the congregations claiming to be Christians, just like today, as I would term 'Worldly Christians'. Perhaps that is why Jesus asked John to write this down for our own edification at the end of the 1st century. These worldly Christians – I believe The Bible thus shows us to be part of 'The World' group (irrespective of how repugnant this truth may be to some religious leaders who having large audiences of admiring duped worshipers, now have much to answer in the midst of Yahweh and His son Jesus – being how they misrepresented His Word and thus shall receive The Vengeance of The Lord).

All right you might say: – What is the point of this?

My specific point is this:-

Christian leaders claim in their reasoning that once you are in a Christian Group you receive the spirit of adoption written of in Romans 8v5-17.

Then because of that, now as an adopted son you receive the Holy Spirit, once you have the Holy Spirit then you become a Son of God and 'belong' to Christ.

Their further reasoning then goes along the lines: This passage only speaks of two groups of people. (1) These adopted Sons of God (The Christian congregation) and (2) Those who are not Christians (= everyone else).

Those in (1) go to heaven and those in (2) go to Hell.

This reasoning is so puerile, facile and simplistic as to be almost unreal! (Well, in truth - it is unreal!)

In fact this worldly Christian doctrine is a pack of Lies!

Because it leads to so many contradictions that I may be forced to write another 'in-depth commentary' about this false reasoning to explain where all the various avenues lead (with in-depth contextual scriptural support).

So we are able to see that it is Yahweh God Who will pull out The Elect (being the only ones who demonstrated their real 'principled love' of God through demonstrable works) taken away from the Baptised group of The Christian Nation as a whole, and these Elect go to the heavens (for only a short period – before they return to Earth again as we are told in Rev.). The vast remaining Christians will continue their 'generation period' at their resurrection in a fleshly body like they have now – but perfected (together with all other religious groups), and will then be taught further righteous to then demonstrate that they have learnt and understood it, by living in a loving way (through works) with all the resurrected citizens in this worldly community, where all the different races will live together as one Loving and Compassionate group. Anyone who cannot ‘get-along’ with this idea will be destined for The 2nd Death from which there is no return. That is why Jesus is so specific – beware this WILL happen, so start now to learn to live righteously/equitably with your neighbour now – irrespective of race, colour or religion. Start learning righteousness now so it will be easier when times are more critical later during the 2nd part of your life (entered into by your resurrection into The Millennium)!

So going back to the Christian Leaders who regularly use this passage to support their ideas that all Christians go to (the) heavens when they die. Where do they get it from?

They try to use these verses:-

John.17v20 and 24.

I shall pull these out from the above text for us to study.

v20

My prayer is not for them alone (= The Apostles). I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message (which actually mean the succeeding generations of “The Elect” in The Gospel Age)

v24

“Father (Almighty God), I (Jesus) want those (The Elect), You (Almighty God) have given me (Jesus – again different entities – no Trinity), to be with me where I am (“to be” = future tense, The Groom Jesus, and his Bride The Elect), and to see my glory (covered earlier but now Jesus to be rightfully king of this world), the glory You have given me because You loved me before the creation of the world (covered earlier – Jesus’ pre-existence and his creation of life on this planet).”

I cannot see ‘The World’ mentioned in the above text (nor your “worldly Christians”)?

But I can see the words ‘The Elect’ used – and not just because I have added them for the ease of the reader’s understanding of the text! But merely because ‘they have demonstrably bonded to become one’.

Clearly the Christian Leaders are misinterpreting the Biblical message and so confused ‘The World’ (between The Elect, worldly Christians and everyone else – as so clearly differentiated in the seven churches of Revelations as spoken of by Jesus through John). I use this form of words deliberately and very accurately, and strangely enough they are directly out of The Bible!

What profusely irritates me are these very worldly Christian theologians being very “economical with the truth” leading to the corruption of God’s Word which is precisely what Satan is so very capable of doing! These worldly Christian leaders perform these conjuring tricks with God’s Word only because they pull things out of context and slide in their own meaning without regard to other passages within The Bible that if brought together would give a holistic, but more importantly a consistent, logical and righteous understanding of God’s Word!

I also have earlier shown in two places from The Bible that we do not immediately go straight to the Heavens when we die!

And so for good measure I will throw in a few more scriptures from The Bible at this point to reinforce my understanding:

1Cor 15v3-5 Speaks of Jesus being dead and then awakes on the third day – no mention of Jesus immediately going to the Heavens.

1Cor 15v12-23 Speaks of those being asleep in death – you cannot be asleep, and at the same time conscious with God ‘in Heaven’!

1Cor 15v52 For the last trumpet will sound and all the dead (Elect) will be raised with imperishable (spiritual) bodies. If the word ‘all’ is used within the Biblical text – this infers zero in numbers have been raised to go to the heavens earlier - else why mention it now? (That is the Christian Leaders’ argument – people die and then go to the heavens). Thus my argument on this Website is accurate – and the Christian Leaders argument has an instant inconsistency about it – thus must be false!

And there are just so many more that I will put in my concordance of topics – this being one of those topics!

Perhaps the Christian Leader could argue the ‘soul’ (actually = “Conscious Life”) goes to / and then becomes conscious in the heavens while leaving the fleshly body behind (see “soul” in Glossary and essays on “Soul” and “Spirit” elsewhere on this website clearly explaining precisely what is occurring here).

If, as these worldly theologians suggest, this is true then I cordially invite these worldly Christian leaders to write to my Website and show me scriptural evidence that ‘their description’ of a ‘soul’ leaves the body and immediately goes to the heavens upon death. I am most desirous that they do this for our edification!

I know the Bible fairly well, translated the whole New Testament from the original Greek and I do not know of a scripture anywhere that states this scenario at death – but many to the contrary!

So I have been able to furnish the reader with five scriptures (and there are many more) to show that the body is left to rot in the ground and the ‘consciousness is “asleep”’ = not operating but shall be “awakened” ‘at the end’ into a conscious and operating state in unison with other bodies all at one occasion.

So I ask the reader, which is most likely to be correct – mine, or The Worldly Christian leaders of all denominations and of The Worldly Edifices they represent?

However as I have expressed very clearly elsewhere on this website (only as my opinion, but thoroughly consistent with all Biblical scripture) - I do believe that God does recall something back to His ‘repository’ for safekeeping – but we are totally unconscious of this occurring. It is a compilation of our ‘memory’, ‘thoughts’ and ‘motivation in life’ stored away for future use, to be down-loaded in God’s time – to be returned back into a functioning body to then become a conscious and fully operating entity again (not just a physical but ALSO a MENTAL clone of our former existence) effectively we will be ourselves again (please see my commentary entitled ‘What is a Soul’)!

This is The “Heavenly Treasure” (see Glossary) spoken of in The Bible being solely the synapse mapping of our brain retrained by Yahweh, so that Yahweh is then in the position to produce a clone entity of thoughts/personality (captured within our synapse construction mapping) put into a now perfected DNA body as was given to Adam and Eve in The Garden of Eden. Effectively the virgin brain becomes reprogrammed to make a thinking clone of us that will operate exactly as we were at our 1st death. It will be just as though we had been “Asleep” just as The Bible tells us.

Just for the sake of repeating myself many Christian Leaders promote the explanation of the following verses:-

Luke 12v32

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

John 10v16

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

And then conclude that the small flock of 144000 from (fleshly) Israel unites with the other flock of Christians from the rest of the world and they all go to (the) heavens. And everyone else goes to Hell for everlasting torment.

Which by now the reader is starting to realise is entirely wrong!

Let me now explain who “the little flock is”, and “the other sheep I have which are not of this fold” - really are. And I will put all these quotations back into context.

Luke 12v32-35

“Do not be afraid, little flock (= The Elect = 144000 taken out of The Christian Nation during The Gospel Age), for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom (The kingdom of the Heavens being an inheritance to Sons – ‘of God’). Sell your possessions (this really means - divulge yourself of your distractions, because possessions have power over the owners’ time and so distracts worldly Christians from going out everyday to preach/teach and promote God’s Word) and give to the poor (this really means giving of your time in the spreading of God’s Word and not as everyone thinks it means – money, because money is worldly and see the relevance of Jesus’ comments of the widow giving two mites into the temple treasury and those divesting lots of money – God’s interest is that His message should be preached accurately to everyone by physical effort – see later). Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out (this part tells us it is not worldly money of which God is talking), a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted (reinforcing the idea that you are actively building up positive treasure off this earth – obviously not worldly money but a credit account with God but a positive one being a positive synapse mapping worthy to be placed into a spiritual/celestial/heavenly body), where no thief comes near (Satan cannot remove this) and no moth destroys (the world take away). For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (scriptures abound with this – “cannot serve two masters – God and mammon” – “the love of money is the root of all evil”. So our constant ideal is to carry out The Word of God for no Earthly material gain and that is to imitate Jesus’ lifestyle).

As I keep reiterating The Bible is constantly showing us that the scriptures are talking about The Elect and not worldly Christians. What a worldly Christian should do is given in Luke 12v32-35 - being to remove their worldly distractions and so dedicating all their leisure time entirely to the accurate promotion of God’s Word and this IS difficult in this present world (because Satan is ruling at present and thus makes it difficult by providing distractions to interfere with and thus to ‘crowd out’ Yahweh’s Desire of us).

John 10v14-18

I am the good shepherd (not enough space here to spell out all the qualities to make the good Shepherd); I know my sheep and my sheep know me (as in real life – an intimate mutual knowledge through personal study in every hour of your life so that you become of one mind – know how each other will behave in a situation - before a word is spoken) – just as the Father knows me and I know the Father (at this point I shall use the Trinitarian argument back on those who promote such mythical teaching – Jesus and God are one mind – likewise this passage says Jesus and his sheep are one mind. Thus God and Jesus are completely intimate but also we see here are Jesus and his flock completely intimate. Thus inductive reasoning tells us that God and the flock are one. This works with my interpretation of the flock being The Elect being separate from ‘The World’ and so being part of the Family of God – to be Sons of God; but most certainly does not work with Christian Leaders proposed interpretation of the flock being mixed The World as proposed in their final conclusion. But there is a different solution that does fit – see later) – and I lay down my life for the sheep (principally Jesus has come for his flock – his Bride – the fallout not mentioned here, is that all ‘The inhabitants of the World’ get a second opportunity – Remember The Gospel is written as ‘a target’ and so to pull The Elect out from of The Christian Nation in all parts of The World). I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen (thus clearly individuals within another group outside The Elect group – but with very similar godlike Righteous characteristics). I must bring them also (this is not the large worldly Christian nation – bear with me here - see later). They too will listen (listen is much more than just hearing – you can hear a sound and then dismiss it. To listen means an active engagement to what you hear through your ears – it means you wish to find out more from what you hear – and in doing so you then inductively wish to apply to your daily works what you hear by continuing to listen. But Note: “They too will listen” means it is in the future but they might have lived in the past before they had an opportunity to listen to Jesus – thus two things from this: 1. They are proven to be ‘of like mind’ and 2. They too will instantly listen to his voice when resurrected – but see later) to my voice (God’s Word), and there shall be one flock (Two flocks united as one) and one shepherd (Jesus Christ at the head of this now one flock having the same initial characteristics – that is why you can combine them). The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life (Jesus assumes responsibility for his creation and shows this by going through torture and consequential murder) – only to take it up again (Jesus resurrected to ready take his position as King but only when Yahweh says that he should some 2000 years later). No one takes it from me (Jesus’ life), but I lay it down of my own accord (Jesus telling us he alone made the decision to sacrifice his life for us all – not Yahweh God – and so again, no Trinity). I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again (just the same logic as the previous parenthesis). This command I received from my Father (Jesus in humility accepted the Desire and subsequent commission given out by His Father – The Almighty God – again no Trinity myth – the question needs to be asked is: How much evidence is required to sink the Trinity myth out of a worldly Christian theologians’ mind).

Well that all seems fairly logical!

So who are these individuals named as “the other flock” “that will also listen” so it must be in the future? Does this mean that they are to live after The Gospel Age? NO and YES !!

No because their 1st part of their life is past and gone, they are now in death to be resurrected into the 2nd part of their life to become The Princes of The Millennium where they shall hear of Jesus’ voice and love it. It is new to them because they have not heard of The Gospel News being The New Testament from The Word of God (Jesus) they having been dead during these 2000 years of The Gospel Age.

So who could “they” be?

“They” are the complete members of this other flock and they must be exactly like-minded to The Elect, else The Elect flock would become ‘polluted’ by the addition of anything less than qualities equal to themselves. Also this other flock has to be in a different place or perhaps in a different time frame group (the dimension of time - is of no restriction to God).

So Who in The Bible meets these characteristics?

Clearly these are The Ancient Worthies, all The Prophets, kings like David, all mentioned of in The Old Testament. They are in the time frame prior to Christ’s entry onto the Earth in a fleshly body, and thus outside “The Elect” time frame. They have all the qualities mentioned within these two passages from The Bible. Thus in The Millennium these two flocks will be brought together to form one flock, and so be close to their shepherd Jesus Christ. We are told this by Jesus: “You shall see Abraham at the same table in The Heavens”. Thus we have The Ancient Worthies, The Prophets and other righteous rulers from The Old Nation of Israel linking up with The New Spiritual Nation of Israel both chosen / judged by Yahweh God (not Jesus) from this current worldly system of 4000 years since The Promise was made to form the new and one Nation of Israel = God's CHOSEN people being those people who "Persevered with The Subjector" = "Israel" (see Glossary).

Can the reader see how all the parallels run together with all the words within The Bible (both Old and New Testaments)?

Jesus and his 'Nation of Israel' shall teach righteousness to 'The World' of resurrected humans and it is Jesus then who shall be given the right to judge the individuals (to become his sons/daughters delivered from "The Special Marriage" between Jesus and his Bride of 144000) within the new world in The Millennium.

We can now explain the apparent contradiction (under traditional Christian teaching) where The Bible mentions that 'Jesus came not to judge the world (this world) but to save it' And where The Bible says God judges man's actions and in other places where it says Jesus is given the power to judge people's works.

So in conclusion, hopefully the reader can now understand "The Absolute Truth" from The Bible. I have only used material that Christian Leaders use to try and support their incorrect idea which is no more than a worldly myth commensurate with all other worldly religions on this planet – that ultimately come from the present god of this world Satan whose only desire is "to deceive the nations of The Earth" being a direct Biblical quotation. I have put their quoted texts back into context and fully explained them. I can call upon many, many other scriptural references to support this future scenario. Now with our future clearly explained and mapped out for us, the reader thus having this 'backbone' explanation firmly rooted within their mind will be able to, read through The Bible in the future with new insight. Thus using all this new material gained from The Bible as additional evidence to support this reasoning, and hopefully you will see how unfruitful and errant contemporary Christian thinking is, but to be replaced with something that is so much more enlightening and refreshingly accurate.

Now to come onto 'This number' of 144000.

I have explained the different flocks, but what of the numbers of each?

Firstly 144000 would seem about the correct quantity of leaders over populace. For example in England we have about 600 Members of Parliament to 'administer' a country of about 60,000,000 people.

Let us carry out the mathematics together:-

$$60,000,000 / 600 = 100,000 : 1$$

I feel that there will be some 15,000,000,000 individuals (I validate this 'bathtub failure' guestimate elsewhere) learning righteousness and with 144000 administrators – let us do the mathematics again:-

$$15,000,000,000 / 144,000 = 104,000 : 1$$

Well that is a coincidence!

Just all seems to compute out satisfactorily to be snugly within the same magnitude!

Well that is just my starting off point!

Let us now identify why the worldly Christian leaders think this number (that currently seems to stack up in numerical value and repeated three times within the Bible) is a fictitious number and thus do not actually believe in it!

Firstly it does not concord with their thinking on the resurrection and who goes where and when! However I have already shown from the scriptures where they are incorrect within their worldly 'logic' and 'reasoning' (in just about everything they believe)! - And thus why should it be any different now?

So let us look together at the one other place where the worldly Christian Leaders direct their flock to look in The Bible to show them that ‘all Christians go to (the) heavens’.
This place in the Bible is at Rev 7v5-8 – where the number is quoted.

The Christians Leaders reasoning goes along these lines:-

Here we have the twelve tribes of Israel listed with 12,000 from each mentioned.

And so $12 \times 12,000 = 144,000$.

The Bible says ‘The Elect’ = The Sons of God go to the heavens.

Worldly Christian Leaders say all Christians go to (the) heaven(s).

Then the question is: The number of 144,000 does not equal all the ‘Christians’ alive.

Oh dear - Big problem here!

How do we astutely get over this one?

Quickly read in The Bible here is a number – 144,000 from the tribes of Israel – great!

And then deduce:-

The 144,000 are Christian fleshly Israelites. Thus these are Israelites who have converted from Judaism to Christianity.

‘Saved’ by The Bible scripture!

Unfortunately these worldly Christian leaders have looked at everything on an Earthly prospective with worldly wisdom and not from God’s viewpoint.

Almighty God is giving here in Rev. a message from His viewpoint, but they have reasoned upon Prov.3v5-8!

As I identify in this particular explanation and in other places on this website, whenever the name Israel is used within The Bible, in the future tense, it always means The New Spiritual Israel and not the Earthly Israel of this world today. This is true in both The Old and The New Testament (prophecies) – look at what the word “Israel” really means as a direct clue to this understanding.

It is the Spiritual Israel made up of 100% individuals who would walk not just an additional one mile, but rather a million miles to serve their one and only True Master (in “perseverance”).

The reader must understand that these Elect will do absolutely anything to carry out The Desire of God, and so walk in the footsteps of Jesus in severe adversity from the ‘spirit’ of the world (being Satan). These people are totally dedicated to the task in hand to accurately preach The Word of God with the utmost fortitude to all the nations of The World – for no worldly return (of anything). To be like the Apostles, also Steven and Paul – these are the internal character traits that we are talking about.

Surely we are not talking about diluting these marvelous actions of bravery to fight the good cause; and so liking these individuals to merely ‘worldly Christians’ – who put their feet up!

Perhaps when we are all resurrected, would the present worldly Christian Leaders like to defend their line of reasoning against the likes of the ‘adopted Apostle’ Paul and all the sufferings that he had to go through in spreading The Word of God to all nations (I personally would not like to be in their shoes when that happens)! Especially when I repeat here for us to read Paul’s letter to the Hebrews

Heb.11v35 to 40

Women received their dead raised back to life again, and others tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might accept a better resurrection (obviously to be one of the 144,000 – and being “a better resurrection” = obviously a different type to ‘the mass of people’ in ‘the general resurrection’). And others had trial of cruel mocking and scourging, while others were put in chains and put in prison. They were stoned, sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword; they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented. The world was not worthy of them (this world - to mean - the majority of people), they wandered in deserts, and in the mountains, and in the dens and caves of the Earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise (of a heavenly/celestial/spiritual body – never promised in The Old Testament), God having provided some better thing for us (The Apostles were told by Jesus while he was on the earth, that a Heavenly/Celestial/Spiritual Body was now available to 144,000 = The New Spiritual Israel and was not subject to The 2nd Death), that they (Ancient Worthies and prophets) without us (The Apostles and following individuals to make up the Bride of Christ) should not be made perfect/complete (this is where the two flocks of sheep, that Jesus combines/completes and so join together as spoken of in this document taken from The Bible).

So I have to go through the same question again:-

So what does the Bible really mean?

Is it what worldly Christian leaders tell us?

No!

It is not what worldly Christian Leaders tell us!

I suggested earlier The Bible sets ‘The Target’ being ‘The Ideal Goal’ for which we are to aim, being to become part of The New Spiritual Israelite Nation – because it is formed of the ‘Sons of God’, and called the ‘Bride of Christ’. Jesus is in a heavenly/celestial/spiritual Body and logically so would be his bride. This is supported in 1Cor.15v35-58. I could go through it word for word here, but this is covered elsewhere on the Website.

Thus we can see these ‘Elect’ will be very special people and have heavenly/celestial/spiritual bodies like Christ. As Sons of God – I would expect them to have access to the full power of God, just as Jesus Christ had (and still has) it while he was on Earth. These Elect (being the 144000) will be able to carry out many miracles, just as Jesus was able to perform, and call upon the services of the angels – just as Jesus said he could have called upon, on the night before he was murdered.

We must remember text in The Old Testament where just one angel was able to destroy 185,000 thousand men in the Assyrian Camp 2Kings.19v35 (incidentally – perhaps this number is wrong according to the logic of modern day thinking – as outlined in the beginning of this commentary could it be 185,000 x or / 10,000)!

So far we have a Spiritual Nation, comprising of Spiritual entities and originally a Spiritual plan, ending as a spiritual solution from God (wrapped together as one).

Where do we go from here?

Let us identify now the tribes of Israel mentioned in the list:-

Sons of Jacob (Israel) Stated in Gen 49v1-28	Spiritual Israel Eze. 48v1-28	Gates to Temple Eze. 48v30-35	Tribes of Israel Stated in Rev 7v5
Reuben	Dan	Reuben	Judah
Simeon	Asher	Judah	Reuben
Levi	Naphtali	Levi	Gad
Judah	Reuben	Joseph	Asher
Zebulun	Judah	Benjamin	Naphtali
Issachar	Benjamin	Dan	Simeon
Dan	Simeon	Simeon	Levi
Gad	Issachar	Issachar	Issachar
Asher	Zebulun	Zebulun	Zebulun
Naphtali	Gad	Gad	Joseph
Joseph		Asher	Benjamin
Benjamin		Naphtali
	Manasseh		Manasseh
	Ephraim
Worldly Perfect Israel (Pure of Jacob)	Worldly Grafted in Israel (Gospel Age) (The Vine)	Millennium Perfect Israel (144000) (Temple of Eternity)	The “election of the 144000” To form The Perfected Israel (Where Ephraim rejected always = rejected worldly Christian Leaders)

(Important Note: The Old Testament always uses “Ephraim” as ‘being worldly’ – see how the prophets use this name).

But they are not equal!

They should be equal - there were only twelve sons!

Perhaps we may think as according to modern thinking and believe John became confused in his old age and forgot! Perhaps he had senile dementia!

Then also perhaps the prophet Ezekiel became confused!

Perhaps Moses was confused when he scribed Genesis for our edification!

Perhaps everyone is confused – except modern worldly scholars being the ones who ‘really’ know!

I do not really think so!

These lists were compiled in the way they have - for very specific reasons!

Speaking of the ‘oddities’ first: Manasseh and Ephraim were the sons of Joseph from the union of an Egyptian wife (where in prophecy “Egypt” always means “The Heathen World”). At the end of Jacob’s (= Israel) life he blessed these two sons of Joseph and gave them the opportunity of the same inheritance as his own sons (Gen 48v5-19) – thus the sharing of Joseph’s inheritance. Thus we see ‘Israel’ pulling in outsiders into the inheritance of that to come (being The Promised Land then, but now into The Millennium).

Further we have in Eze.47v21-23 this quotation – again we are speaking of a future prophecy about the nation Israel – which equates to Yahweh’s viewpoint on the proceedings (being that He is controlling His Parallel Plan of human salvation).

But notice the split in the end between the grafted in two grandsons from The World.

One receives The Inheritance and the other does not!

Jesus teaches us about Yahweh grafting in branches and pruning out those dead branches of The Vine – whose rootstock is Jesus – so The Vine can only be those who are entering in The Race give by The Apostle Paul.

Those few who win are the successful lush branches that Yahweh rewards!

Thus Manasseh grafted in from The World was the successful one into the 144000.

But Ephraim grafted in from The World was finally cut out by Yahweh and was not successful in reaching the 144000.

Can the reader see the logic behind this? - Being the illustration Yahweh is giving to us for both encouragement and for our warning.

Eze.47v21-23

“You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who have settled among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. In whatever tribe the alien settles, there you are to give him his inheritance” Declares the Sovereign Lord.

So what does this mean from Yahweh’s viewpoint?

To answer this, we should ask (I can see it coming from some worldly Christian Leaders):-

Why treat this as Yahweh’s viewpoint and not physical reality?

Obviously because Yahweh is writing this as an unfolding Plan and He is placing pointers within it!

However:-

To answer this directly we must stand back and look at the situation now and the situation in The Millennium.

1. The Jews have been dispersed over the several thousand years so that the genes from the twelve original tribes have spread all around The World. I would be safe in assuming that even my Anglo-Saxon genes may have a tiny part of Abraham’s genes within me – somewhere!
2. God has told us that there shall be no impartiality or separation between races in The New World order - we shall all be equal. And so we can assume that the Israelite nation in its physical form would not exist, nor would any other nation. There is no need to set potential barriers between people based upon nationalism. In actuality the resurrected world in The Millennium shall effectively become the fleshly Israel by the strict definitions of all the words used to construct this sentence, to become ruled by Kings and Priests of what was The New spiritual Israel during the 1st part of their life. Effectively these Kings and Priests symbolically become The New Temple within The New Jerusalem made up of assistants (perhaps the “Great White Multitude” and others) to rule fleshly “Israel”.
3. The term “alien” is very specific, continuing the theme from (2) “alien” would not exist within The Millennium – we would all be one group of humans. Would God even tolerate in a 100% loving worldly community, the term “ALIEN” to be even considered! No, clearly not, The Millennium is a time period where The Elect are instructed to remove this terminology. But in the context of now (in this 1st part of our life) the text fits! This world at present is full of ‘aliens’, both physically and spiritually. Thus this terminology means:-alien either Gentile or ‘a son of Adam’ transforming their lives, through baptism (thus symbolically entering into ‘this promised land of Israel’), but through works (thus symbolically ‘settling among you’ – the Apostles), then receive The Inheritance of being The Elect’ when they are resurrected.
4. God speaks to Adam and Eve – go to fill the Earth; this will have been fulfilled shortly, with about 11 billion individuals (after resurrection and possible one third permanently removed within The Millennium – see why elsewhere). Thus we will not be breeding and having more children – the verse says, “Have children”. Thus this ‘have children’ now confirms the prophecy gets pushed onto a spiritual plane – namely the children of those in the 1st part of their life who have made the grade to be ‘The Elect'. For Jesus tells us in Matt.22v30, Mark.12v25, Luke.20v35 that procreation will not occur in The Millennium – because the Earth has been filled.

5. Very specifically the list of brothers given by Ezekiel are not all the brothers, but children of Joseph, indicating a second (and subsequent) generations being grafted into this Israelite nation – Just as Israel (Jacob) 'prophesied' on his deathbed.
6. As the text said "You are to consider them as Native-born Israelites" – clearly a grafting in. Jesus tells us this with the parable of The Vine.
7. Ezekiel now shows us that 'he has not lost it'! By deliberately showing us how. He moves to the temple's gates being the original 12 tribes / brothers. Why has he done this – He is now reinforcing the idea of moving away from The Elect (nation of Israel) to the very temple of God as expressed in a symbolic form continuing this vision of the future (but I am not precluding it from being created physically), of being Jesus the king in the center of his very Elect – his Bride. Why Jesus? Because it symbolizes the consolidation and culmination of God's plan enacted here on Earth. All things shall be working through His Son who has all and complete power on this Earth. Thus Jesus becomes 'The Temple of God' He has now built it again (as he said he could and would) not necessary physically out of materials, but through his own personal presence both physically and spiritually – where the 144000 stones are placed upon the foundation of Jesus working his "presence" within those stones.
8. Look in Revelation we have Ephraim replaced with Joseph, but still Manassah has replaced Dan. Again showing the fact that we do not have the original tribes of Israel represented but grafted in Manassah. Thus showing the nation is made up of outsiders. This is shown in Rev. 7 v1-4, preceding the names of the tribes being written out in verses 5-8. Here it tells us Angels metaphorically at the four corners of the Earth holding back the calamities from falling upon the humans, so that Jesus may through his 'presence' – this is when he comes to collect 'those who are watching while alive – or were, if dead' – The Elect (because these will be the only individuals who are, through works have The Seal – being one of approval - upon their foreheads being the very visible personality change), about 3.5 years before the main general resurrection starts to take place.

How do we know what I am suggesting is accurate?

Let us together turn back again to The Bible and read what Jesus tells his disciples in Luke.22v28 – 30 I go back a few verses to 24, to include material that is also so relevant for which I am certain the reader will understand why I have included it (without the necessary repeats)! And then on to verse 33 to reinforce the distinction, I have shown in so many other places within this document, between The Elect and worldly Christians.

Luke.22v24 – 27

Also a dispute arose among them as to which of them was considered to be the greatest. Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles (implying those of The World outside The New Spiritual Israel – again it is about 'the future') lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. For the one who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Not the one at the table! (This translation is correct but is different to the wrong translations found in standard bibles). But I am among you as the one who serves.

Luke.22v28 - 30.

You are those who have stood by me in my trials. And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22v31 – 33

Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, Simon that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned your back (Denied Jesus three times within the next nine hours), strengthen your brothers (psychologically after these denials, Peter would have galvanized his mind never to do this again! This inner strength would have been seen by his spiritual brothers and so strengthened them). But he replied; 'Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.

What can we see from these verses taken from The Bible?

1. The Apostles (and subsequent Elect) have all faced trials for behaving exactly like Jesus.
2. Jesus gives his Bride of Christ a kingdom. A kingdom must be made up of rulers and subjects. The rulers are those who strive for their goal to lead. But in this specific area (to become part of The Elect) then we must strive in the manner that Jesus did and so be worthy to become a leader in Jesus' kingdom. The subjects by definition, are everyone else = us!

3. Jesus knows that he will now receive the kingdom from his Father – because he has almost finished his work here on earth. Again we are able to see that God gives and Jesus receives – again shows Two Different Entities.
4. The Elect are the Leaders of this new kingdom upon thrones! Again you can only be on a throne if there are subjects over which to rule. Also these subjects cannot just be resurrected and then thrown into hell and torment – as suggested by worldly Christian leaders! Clearly not! These subjects shall be in the kingdom for a long period of time so that they can be ruled over!
For the sake of repeating myself:
It is rather pointless to be a king on a throne forever and have no subjects over which to rule!
5. And this is the interesting point – “the twelve tribes of Israel”.
What about everyone else? What happens to the rest of “The World”.
Clearly the Gentiles were around at Jesus’ time! But why did not Jesus mention the Gentiles here?
When in so many places within the Gospels he does.
Clearly the answer is that he is speaking from Yahweh’s viewpoint - that is of the future.
Thus Jesus is speaking of:-
5.1 People are being grafted into the leaders’ position – The Elect (from out of the Christian nation/grouping of individuals within The World, both Gentile and Israelite).
5.2 The subjects being grafted in to this new kingdom through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (an Israelite). These subjects come from out of the rest of the World, both Gentiles and Israelites. When these resurrected ones, being subjects of the future Kings/Priests are taught The Word of God in The Millennium then they shall take on the name ‘Israelites’ where they shall learn of Yahweh’s Word.
6. We see from Peter’s response – he would follow Jesus’ commandments to spread The Word of God to all humans, even though he would be put in prison and finally murdered. Again I ask:
Would worldly Christians put themselves out like this?
Clearly the answer is no! And thus they form the group that I call worldly Christian.

Finally: Why was this promise to rule a kingdom conferred to the Apostles (and subsequent Elect), now and not earlier in Jesus’ ministry?

Because as I have said earlier, Jesus knew his life was in immediate danger and he would be murdered within the next 24 hours. Now he knew God’s plan had been perfected/completed, Jesus now knew he would not sin, even at this last act – he thus now ‘galvanized’ his actions with mental support through the prayer of reaffirmation (as I showed earlier) with his Father in the heavens on his last night alive on the Mount of Olives - to pass through this last and final test, within his fleshly potentially corruptible body.

So back to this number again of 144000?

It now becomes clear, that the number IS only 144000 and comprises of The Elect taken from all the nations (Rev 7v1-4) that come together to form this New Spiritual Nation taken by Jesus to become his bride.
Please read “Yahweh’s Desire” and “Satan’s Desire” in the Glossary to understand why all this is occurring!
