

The Charismatic Tradition

Issue date: 12 May 2008

I thought this might be an interesting broadcast because I have been to some Charismatic assemblies and I wondered if the tempo, direction and allegiance might have changed since my analytical observations of earlier years. However with a title as given and the results gleaned from listening to the BBC broadcast, it was then I realized that not much had changed during the intervening years!

This is a most interesting grouping to analyse because many Bible scriptures can be, and are called upon by those representatives to 'support' what they claim to be advancing:

It being 'The Word of God given within the Darkness of Mankind during The End Times'.

This is a most laudable claim and perhaps demonstrated as such by the increasing numbers within their congregations.

And this assertion must also be supported by The Bible, because their ministers proudly boast that they come in 'The Name of Jesus' and have the holy spirit effectively 'flowing through their veins' as demonstrated by the 'miraculous things' that occur around them. The inference being (and claimed by some):

It is because of this 'supernatural' evidence flowing through their congregation which thus clearly shows that an 'extraterrestrial entity' is working within them to fully endorse their actions.

To finally seal this claim they quote (out of context) while they are working in 'the name of Jesus' they cannot be blaspheming against the holy spirit which validates whatever they might do "In the name of Jesus".

Quite a proud boast – perhaps something to be really pleased about!

However I too, also claim to come in 'The Name of Jesus' without quite the razzmatazz of these most 'eminent' people posturing high within The World of their clientele –

So does that mean that what I state now cannot 'be blaspheming against Yahweh's holy spirit'?

But this leads to a real problem – being a real conundrum that must be answered by all reading this document!

I know that Yahweh's Word is perfect and there is no confusion within it, nor is it inconsistent and essentially it is flawless in its execution upon Mankind.

So why the now-to-be exposed discrepancy?

This is the reason why I have picked upon this particular public sermon is to show there is confusion, inconsistency, essentially flawed reasoning between what this grouping states - and - what I will state 'to now clear the confusion, inconsistency and flawed reasoning'.

So this begs the next question:

If we are both declaring that we come in 'The Name of Jesus' then one of us is lying!

So one of us must be blaspheming against Yahweh's holy spirit – with all the terrible ramifications that might pose for our future wellbeing (please see "Blaspheme" in Glossary)!

Because logically, we both cannot be correct - if the practices driven by the conclusions are very different!

So we must ask:-

Who really does come in 'The Name of Jesus', in 'The Character of Jesus' and finally as demonstrated by power of speech in 'The Authority of Jesus'!

Shall we examine just 'Who' this might be from The Bible Evidence?

"The Bible Evidence" being Yahweh's Word given to instruct us for our own edification.

First let us read together what was given to us that Sunday morning as broadcast by the BBC and perhaps given as a similar mantra in many parts of The World during these occasions.

CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY, BIRMINGHAM

16 March 2008

Pathways of Prayer 6: The Charismatic tradition

Preacher: Bishop Dr Joe Aldred, Chair of the Council of Black-led Churches

Leaders: Bishop Basil Richards and Jennifer Willis

Hymn: Lift Up Your Heads, O You Gates

Bishop Basil Richards:

Welcome to Aberdeen Street, to our service here today at the Church of God of Prophecy. We're close to two Birmingham landmarks:

Winson Green Prison, now known as City Prison, and Dudley Road Hospital, or City Hospital. Like these names, this area has changed over time and is now a diverse community of different ethnic groups and faiths. We face many challenges: poverty, crime and the influence of gang culture. But because Christ is alive in us, empowering us through his Holy Spirit, we face these challenges with confidence and hope. And in the midst of it all, we worship God in prayer and praise.

And so we approach this Palm Sunday, not with anxiety, but with anticipation, our hearts filled with joy and excitement! Let us be encouraged in our own journeys of faith and pathways of prayer to proclaim Jesus as ruler over all. Let us rejoice always and never cease from praying, in everything giving thanks.

And now, let us join in a prayer of St Augustine who said...

Lord, you are great and greatly to be praised!

Awaken us to delight in your praises,

For you made us for yourself,

And our hearts are restless

Till they find their rest in you.

ALL: AMEN

Hymn: Praise him, Praise him! Jesus, our Bless'ed Redeemer

Prayer: Minister Alan Hepburn

O God,

as we gather this morning to worship,

we commemorate the final week of the life of Jesus.

We call to mind the agony he went through on the cross for the sins of the whole world.

And we pray for those who have not yet come to realise your love for them, that they too will accept your love and be drawn to you.

Lord, we have no palm leaves to lay down before you, but we lay our lives at your feet,

For there we find forgiveness of sin and the promise of life eternal.

We commemorate your death but we also celebrate your resurrection to new life.

We accept this new life you have given to us.

We patiently wait for your return, this time not riding on a donkey, but on the cloud of glory.

And in anticipation, we cry out with one voice, "Hosanna, Hosanna, blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

O God, may our worship of prayer, praise and giving be acceptable to you, now and always.

ALL: AMEN

Jennifer Willis:

The history of this church is bound up with procession and praise. The church was originally based in a small, disheveled building in Peel Street, just round the corner from where we are today, and moved to its current location in 1979. This for us historic journey was marked by the most wonderful procession filled with music, prayer and praise to Almighty God, as the local congregation marched from the 'old' to the 'new'. This transition symbolised our desire to be a sign of hope to a community blighted by a sense of hopelessness, to bring light where darkness abounds, and to promote joy where there is sadness.

The underlying ethos of worship through music, prayer and praise follows the traditional mode of Palm Sunday worship, and is reflected in our first reading from 2nd Samuel, Chapter 6, beginning at verse 12.

Reading: 2 Samuel 6:12-22 NIV

Bishop Basil:

For those 'looking on' from the sidelines, exuberant praise with its sense of abandonment before God can look ridiculous. It's easy to be skeptical. But for those who've encountered the deep love of God, who are in relationship with him, the response is to praise extravagantly. Yet this [Praising God] doesn't always come easily, especially when people are hurting, struggling, facing injustice or abuse, dealing with the impact of a society where God can seem absent. That's something we have to wrestle with in a community like ours, as this poem makes clear, written and read now by a member of our congregation, Andrina Davis.

Poem: 'Will things ever change?'

Bishop Basil:

God doesn't wave a magic wand; transformation rarely happens overnight. But we're called to work and pray. And God helps us to see and join in what he's already doing, so we become channels of love, grace and healing. For we're not alone; the Holy Spirit is at work - the Comforter, Advocate, Paraclete, literally 'the one who answers our call'. And for that, we give thanks.

Song: There is a Redeemer (Soloist - Carol Oliver)

Deborah Allen:

Let us pray

Lord, we come to you this morning with thankful hearts as we remember Palm Sunday.

We pray for the Church, that Christians everywhere may live in unity and strength. We pray for wisdom and courage to live by faith, secure in the knowledge that Christ died and rose again, conquering death that we might have life. May we follow his example, as he showed compassion for all around him, even when he knew the pain that lay ahead. Guide us in our ministries as we serve our communities, that through the power of your Spirit, we would bring hope and relief.

We pray for all across the world who suffer and for those who care for them. For the sick; for those who mourn; for those without faith, hope or love; we pray that Christ may speak into their lives!

Lord, we thank you for your unconditional love, for your sacrifice, for the strength you give us, which reminds us daily that in the midst of adversity - there is hope.

Lord, we ask that you hear our prayer this morning.

ALL: AMEN

Jennifer Willis:

In a place like Winson Green, it can be difficult to engage (with) a community so taken up with the cares of life. So sometimes we take our activities outside, with tents and food and music. In this way we make our presence visible, and time and again, local people join in with our rejoicing, just as they did when Jesus made his way to Jerusalem.

Reading: Matt. 21:1-11 New Century Version

Hymn: Rejoice, the Lord is King

Jennifer Willis:

We're pleased to have as our preacher this morning someone who's no stranger to us, because although he works nationally, he's a member of our Pastoral Team here at Aberdeen Street. So we welcome the Chair of the Council of Black-led Churches, Bishop Dr Joe Aldred.

Sermon

Bishop Joe: I speak to you in the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

According to the Old Testament prophet Habakkuk, the role of the preacher is to make God's message so clear and compelling, that the hearer understands and responds with a sense of urgency. As in all churches, preaching happens here at Aberdeen Street most times we meet, but one significant difference is that sermons here tend to last between half and one hour. You'll understand therefore my challenge to preach for just a few minutes, exploring prayer in the Charismatic tradition, which is our designated theme this morning; and an appropriate one, given the exuberant praises associated with Palm Sunday.

And I come with a sense of joy and thankfulness, because, prayer is so vital for those of us who believe that the universe has a Designer, a Creator, a Sustainer; we feel a basic need to communicate with the deity who is responsible for it all.

An understanding of prayer, as constantly communicating with God, is summed up in this short poem:

To walk with God, no strength is lost, walk on

To talk with God, no breath is lost, talk on

To wait on God, no time is lost, wait on.

From their experience of the past five hundred years, Black Christians often sing; 'It's a hard road to travel, and a mighty long way to go, but Jesus the blessed Saviour will lead me all the way I know'. So, we walk on, in God's strength. And when we run out of words to express our feelings, we believe that God understands even our groaning. So, we talk on, in the breath of God. But what do we do when our walking and talking with God doesn't seem to result in the end of racism, poverty, oppression; but rather, in spite of all our efforts, those things seem to go on and on? We lean on our understanding that the God of eternity is on our side; he waits with us. And so, we wait on in the assurance that good will overcome evil; and we say in the words of that old spiritual, 'we shall overcome'.

It is this sense of hope that inspires our prayers in the Charismatic and Pentecostal tradition to which this church belongs - a hope strengthened by the immediacy of our experience of God's presence through his Spirit. Two thousand years ago, a small group of frightened followers of Jesus met, after his crucifixion and resurrection.

Their purpose was to wait for the fulfilment of the promise of Jesus, that a paraclete, Greek for counsellor, helper, strengthener, supporter, advisor, advocate and ally, would come. As they waited, they prayed. And before long God's power became evident within them, and out of them, in spiritual gifts and manifestations they'd never possessed before. According to the book of Acts, this endowment with the Holy Spirit, what's been called 'God's power in action', resulted in these ordinary people speaking new and unlearned languages, healing the sick, working miracles and generally astonishing and impacting the community in which they lived.

And it didn't end there; similar phenomena have been experienced in more recent history, as spiritual revivals and outpourings of the Spirit have taken hold of Christians across the world. The modern Pentecostal movement was fuelled by such an outpouring, towards the end of the 19th Century, culminating in the Azusa Street Revival, under the leadership of the ex-slave William Seymour. It was also a move of the Holy Spirit in the Windrush era, since the late 1940s, that led Christians from the Caribbean, Africa and Asia to inject new life into the church in Britain. And since then we've seen new expressions, culminating in what we know today as the Charismatic Movement, where the Holy Spirit has imparted gifts - charisma - in abundance, and, where once timid, uncertain people have become indwelt by the transforming power of God.

The whole life of the Charismatic Christian is full of the hope brought about by understanding and participating in God's imminent power. Needless to say, this is evident in our prayer life, especially in the fervour with which churches like ours pray together, - all at once, but in each pray-er's own words. We won't pray like that in this service as it might come across on radio just as a babble. Indeed, one little girl, hearing this kind of congregational prayer for the first time asked her mum, 'Why is everybody quarrelling?' It can sound like that at times. And in one sense prayer is a quarrel against principalities and powers that oppress and destroy. But prayer is also an expression of exultant praise, which is not new or peculiar to Charismatics.

Our two Bible texts this morning demonstrate this sense of joyful hope resulting in what I'd like to call "prayer praise". First, we see David with the Ark of God, which represented the divine presence, now restored to him; and having been made King of all Israel, he erupted in prayerful praise. He put on such an exhibition that his wife was embarrassed. 'Call yourself a king, stripping off your clothes like that? Not even our servants behave so badly!' David's reply was, 'You ain't seen nothing yet, for what God has done for me, I'm prepared to be even more undignified in his presence'. And we observe a similar exuberance on the first Palm Sunday, as the people believed that the man riding into Jerusalem on a colt was their long awaited messiah. Off came their cloaks; down came the branches of the trees as they lined the road under the ass's feet. It may not appear so, but this is prayer, unrestrained expressions of joy and thankfulness to God for what he has done or is doing, in which our bodies and emotions are engaged, as well as our intellect.

Here in Birmingham, as in other inner city conurbations throughout our country, you'll find churches like this one being uninhibited in their prayer praise in the midst of many difficulties. We're not oblivious to problems; in fact many of us are deeply involved in developing strategies and action in the social, economic and political spheres. But we do so against a background of prayer and praise, because that roots us in the will and energy of God; who, as the scripture says, is able to do far more than we can ever think or imagine. This is how we know that to walk with God, no strength is lost; to talk with God, no breath is lost; to wait on God, no time is lost. The Spirit gives us power to keep going against what sometimes seem like overwhelming odds. Amen!

Cleveland Perkins:

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus, it is with sincere hearts of gratitude and love that we gather to commemorate your triumphant entry into Jerusalem. We acknowledge your Lordship and your sovereign rule, and take time to adore you, Creator of heaven and earth. We glorify your great name and declare 'Hosanna in the Highest'.

You have shown us this morning that in the midst of struggles, we can still praise you. [We thank you for the examples of David and the people in Jerusalem who worshipped you extravagantly.] Help us to sacrifice our hesitancy, and to worship you with boldness, without fear. Father God, we thank you for the gift of prayer and for the knowledge that we can come to you as our Heavenly Father who is always attentive to our needs. So we pray for our community, our country and our world, that all people may know the power of your love. May they discover you as the God to whom they can pray, and in whom they will find peace even in the midst of adversity. Lord, fill us with hope and keep us rejoicing. This we ask in the name of Jesus.
ALL: AMEN

Bishop Basil:
Thank you for joining us here in the heart of Birmingham on this Palm Sunday. We wish you a special and blessed time during this Holy Week, as Christians everywhere keep watch with Christ. And now, Bishop Joe will lead us in the Grace.

Bishop Joe:
We give thanks to God for all His mercies.
And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all, now and forevermore.
Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

ALL: AMEN
Hymns: Hosanna followed by This is the Day

Well that did sound really wonderful – uplifting ‘our spirits’ for us to face the next week, so that we might come again in a week’s time for some more dynamic ‘charge-injection’ into our lives.

However: How close was it to what The Bible really teaches us?
We must remember that The Bible is Yahweh’s Word instructing us how we are to fulfil Yahweh’s Desire of each one of us.

So did that sermon actually instruct us at a personal level specifically to what we must do to fully fulfil Yahweh’s Desire?

The answer to that very direct question teaches us what “The (True) Fruits of the Holy Spirit” might be.

Also before we go much further, the reader must understand what the term “Worship” really means.
The glossary explains this term, but quickly –

“Worship” means “fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire of us”.

That is the true meaning of “worship” and nothing else (irrespective of what any false religious leader might say to the contrary).

That is why we need to clearly know and understand what Yahweh’s Desire is of each one of us so that we might then practice it within our lives to be termed as “wisdom”. In this manner we imitate Jesus where he was called “The Wisdom of God” meaning that because he was The Word of God and he knew what God Desired (because he spoke it out as The Witness of what he had seen of Yahweh in his previous existence), but moreover Jesus used this knowledge to then ‘practice what he preached’ and thus by definition became ‘The Wisdom of God’. We are instructed by The Bible to imitate Jesus – thus by doing this we will fulfil Yahweh’s Desire – just as Jesus was able to do – and as we are told “This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased – do as he instructs you”.

So the obvious question must be:

Precisely what does Yahweh really desire of us on an individual / personal level?

Does this sermon actually teach us what Yahweh’s Desire is of each one of us?

Because if it taught us what Yahweh’s Desire is of us - then it does legitimately become a form of worship!

Let me now analyse it ‘line by line’ to see if it really concords with what The Bible teaches us, and thus deliver the “worship” that Yahweh really desires of His subjects!

Sunday Worship
CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY, BIRMINGHAM
16 March 2008

Pathways of Prayer 6: The Charismatic tradition
Preacher: Bishop Dr Joe Aldred, Chair of the Council of Black-led Churches
Leaders: Bishop Basil Richards and Jennifer Willis

Hymn: Lift Up Your Heads, O You Gates

Bishop Basil Richards:

Welcome to Aberdeen Street, to our service here today at the Church of God of Prophecy.

“Church of God of Prophecy” This seems an interesting start!

The Bible has many prophecies and the only examples that it gives for our instruction and edification within it are the following:-

1. God’s redemption Plan being applicable for the whole of mankind – for our edification.
2. Key characters within (1) who demonstrate a fidelity to Yahweh’s Word – to be used for our instruction (and a few warning examples to those who stray into the occult) – for our edification.
3. Conditions before a cataclysmic change in the environmental condition is to occur – for our edification.
4. The Future Millennium Expectation – for our edification.

Now if this is what The Bible teaches us by example – it begs the question:

What does “The Church of God of Prophecy” give to imitate The Bible being God’s Word expressed?

Which then prompts the second question:

How does the message given in this ‘church’ concord by example of what is given in The Bible – being the very Example that the religious leaders of this ‘church’ claim to represent?

Because as I can understand from The Bible then anything else outside these given examples could fall within the realm of “The World” whose present “ruler is the spirit of the air” being Satan – to give the same prophecies that The Occult might venture through mediums or astrology!

Thus we must carefully reason on these things by using The Bible as a guide to show how we must conduct our lives. Both the good examples (obviously Jesus) and the bad (Saul visiting the witch of Endor).

We're close to two Birmingham landmarks: Winson Green Prison, now known as City Prison, and Dudley Road Hospital, or City Hospital. Like these names, this area has changed over time and is now a diverse community of different ethnic groups and faiths.

“Different ethnic groups and faiths”.

How has this come about?

Every since the dispersion of Mankind from Babylon, Satan has created, then fostered these myths and customs within mankind to “divide and rule”. This website clearly explains Yahweh’s Plan of operation through the use of The Old Israelite Nation and then The Christian Nation created by His Son Jesus to draw out the 144000 Sons of God during The Gospel Age. Satan is working overtime – especially now that he “knows his time is short” to stop this specifically stated (three times) number from occurring – because as soon as it occurs he knows that his time for him to be chained/restrained will commence – for Yahweh is True to His Word (as quoted in The Bible).

So what is my point?

In The Millennium that will soon occur – there will be no ethnic diversity nor worldly religious customs to create the multitude of (blind) ‘faiths’ (see Glossary) based upon worldly ideas that have originated from Satan. We who originated from one family shall all be resurrected as one nation without the diversity of ethic divisions and customs. There will be only one faith/fidelity/assurance being the one where we shall be taught to truly “believe” = “by practicing what we know” (which means imitate) our sovereign leader Christ Jesus to create a most righteous (= equitable) society – something that does not yet occur under Satan’s present inept management style where personal selfishness is allowed to abound!

The point being – is The Bishop Basil Richards or his colleague Dr Joe Aldred going to tell us about this society during his sermon. Which clearly they should - if they were to correctly imitate Jesus’ ministry period where Jesus came to teach/preach of the nearness (in application) of The Lord’s Acceptable Year – being the complete growing period of humans being completed by their resurrection within The Millennium into the 2nd part of their life to learn righteousness.

I suspect The Bishop will be like all his worldly peers and thus will not speak about Yahweh’s Acceptable Year!

We face many challenges: poverty, crime and the influence of gang culture.

Yes! - That is precisely why we must clearly state The Goal of The Millennium and what we must do to be successful within it in our life’s ministry here during Satan’s present regime. So that all humans might understand The Most Righteous Plan orchestrated by Yahweh to ensure that His Will shall prevail. Sadly none of this is explained by worldly focussed Christian Ministers – because they do not have the faintest idea what it might be – else surely we would have heard about it by now (2007 CE when this website became fully on stream to broadcast this information to The World) – if they knew and were correctly representing Yahweh’s Desire of them!

So the question is again – Are we going to hear The Bishop state what Yahweh Desires him to state to us?

But because Christ is alive in us,

Oh really? How is this so?

Are we really imitating Jesus’ ministry here on earth? Because that is what real “belief” means see John 6v64 where Jesus told us that Judas does “not believe”!

But how could he not “believe” when he was with Jesus for 3.5 years?

Thus Jesus means something much more than what “belief” is taught as meaning in today’s society!

Are we imitating Paul, as Paul said “copy me as I copy Jesus”?

Are we behaving like William Tyndale?

These were True Christians during their day, where Jesus was/is having his presence within these ones “marked on the forehead” (= being clearly observed by those humans of The World as being very different) to become those of the 144000 chosen/elected by Yahweh!

So I think that statement by The Bishop (and many like him) is rather presumptuous!

Because: - Is he like Jesus able to read the hearts of all people (within that congregation)?

Has this Bishop the God-given ability to assess the absolute heart condition of every member in that congregation to be in the position to state that “Christ is alive in us” (the inference to be taken “all of us”) – then I hardly think so!

Just because people turn up – then it does not mean that they are that interested in imitating Jesus.

What did Jesus say of the religious leaders of his day when they came to ask of him how they might know him? - Jesus called them blasphemers!

And as we are told in The Bible in James 1v6-8, God is unable to work with a two minded person, or as Jesus told us we cannot have two masters, and further we are told we are either for Jesus gathering (by bringing people to imitate Jesus – and thus fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire) or we are against Jesus dispersing (by losing people away from imitating Jesus and thus fulfilling Satan’s desire). We are told there is no mid-way position!

So I strongly suspect that The Bishop is now playing to the ears of the audience ready to have their ears tickled/bent/stretched/strained to hear what they desire to hear (as Paul so clearly warns us) – rather than what Yahweh Desires them to hear. Remember in John Chapter 6, all the people wanted to make Jesus king and after several days – Jesus finally gave them a ‘sermon of their lives’ and they all walked away – because it was too hard for them – as the disciples clearly said to Jesus: “Hard are these words – who can do them?”

The Bible tells us that Jesus knocks at the door, only those humans who open the door and have supper with him = means to imitate his standard within their lives (by the inference of opening the door and sharing the same food with him = taking the same lifestyle = imitating him) – else you become a hypocrite to him – by eating different food, insult Jesus and he shall leave you – because you are now blaspheming against Yahweh’s holy spirit (please see Glossary)!

empowering us through his Holy Spirit,

Oh really?

This could be construed as the trigger phrase that hypnotists sometimes use to ‘turn-on’ their recipient!

Basically a form of mind control – that those of The World often use upon a compliant recipient.

Already The Bishop is wrong.

If he actually understood The Bible, then he would know that Jesus does not ‘own the holy spirit’ for it to be called “his holy spirit”. The classic example in The Bible to demonstrate this fact would be where the woman had a haemorrhage of 12 years and was cured by just touching the clothing of Jesus. Jesus turned around and asked: Who it was that drew the power of the holy spirit through/from him. It was only when the woman confessed did Jesus know who it was. Thus the holy spirit was being controlled by The Entity outside Jesus, but working through Jesus. Thus the holy spirit is ‘owned by Yahweh’ The Almighty God of The Universe (being Jesus’ Father) from Whom all things emanate (please see Glossary on “spirit” and “holy spirit” that gives “The Absolute Truth” on these terms)!

Now worldly Christian leaders come out with distorted reasoning to insinuate it was trying to show the woman’s ‘belief’ – and I have already explained elsewhere on this website that this ‘worldly construction/wisdom’ to be ridiculous and wholly unscriptural by using Bible quotations taken within context to defend my most righteous stance!

The reason why The Bishop does not understand The Bible is because he is lost in the mystery of The Trinity being a worldly myth designed by Satan to confuse The World of Mankind! Because the protagonists even proudly boast “it is a mystery to them” – even though The Bible clearly tells us that Jesus told his disciples that it was given to them (by Yahweh) “for them to know” (by inference, if ‘you do not know’ then you are part of The World) and thus do not have the holy spirit empowering you! - For the sole reason that Jesus is not alive in you! So The Bishop has some explaining to do – and I invite him to do just that by email to this website – please see the terms and conditions of acceptance – so that I might untangle his ideas before The World by using The Bible quoted within context!

The important thing to know if the holy spirit is really empowering you - is to examine the fruits of the holy spirit being that you ‘know the tree by its fruits’ (being The Tool that Jesus graciously gave to us). But to do this successfully you also need to know what Yahweh’s Desire is of humans during The Gospel Age and during The Millennium. There is only one standard being to imitate Jesus, but depending when you do it – then there are two different outcomes!

This website clearly explains ‘The Difference’ and thus fully explains Yahweh’s Desire for all of us.

However Satan does not want humans to know what Yahweh's Desire really is of humans during The Gospel Age because he is so fearful of The Millennium occurring which will initiate his immediate demise of becoming chained/restrained.

Preaching the sort of thing that we all regularly hear from worldly Christian leaders actually delays this most wonderful scenario from occurring – being The Expectation becoming a reality!

This website precisely explains why!

we face these challenges with confidence and hope.

- 'with what' and 'of what'?

Is The Bishop going to tell us of The Expectation that The Bible clearly tells us throughout both The Old and New Testaments – or is it going to be left to just 'float away' as a nebulous term – that all worldly Christian leaders do – without exception!

Please read this website where Yahweh's Most Righteous Plan is very clearly explained!

And in the midst of it all, we worship God in prayer and praise.

And again The Bishop is copying his peers and is most wrong in what he, and they, are alluding towards (please see Glossary on what these terms mean and elsewhere on this website).

He does not understand what "worship" really means!

He does not understand what really "to pray for" – as we shall soon see (please read my essay entitled "Why do we pray" located on this website).

And finally he does not understand what "praise" really means either – as we are soon going to find out! Why?

Because The Direction is wrong!

Because it is directed for 'the self' and not 'to fulfil Yahweh's Desire of us'!

That is the crux of understanding what all this really means!

Worldly religious leaders just keep 'pushing all the correct buttons' to pamper 'the self' (both of the leader and followers) – to feel nice inside for the wrong reasons – rather than fulfil Yahweh's Desire of each one of us on an individual basis!

Because the reader must ask the all important question:-

What separates a worldly Christian's prayers from that of a Muslim, Sikh, Hindu, Taoist or even a Buddhist?

Because they all pray to The Supreme Representative of whatever their religion is made up of.

And they all have a front personage – so what specifically makes a worldly Christian any better?

Just putting the word "Jesus" in the middle of your prayers – does this really give you any more credibility to The Almighty God Yahweh – just because you insert this word?

No! – But rather far more is expected of YOU than those humans from other religions – because YOU do have access to The Real Truth contained within The Bible (as thoroughly explained on this website) and these others do not. And thus precisely because the prayers to The Supreme Representative are no different, then worldly Christians are "found wanting" - deficient – as we shall soon see!

Thus though these worldly religions are found to be very much wanting and deficient in their source material, worldly Christians having access to the correct source material are found by Yahweh to be very much wanting and deficient in themselves !!!

Can the reader see the specific point being made?

So I need (no, rather demand) an answer by the worldly Christian Leaders who preach the "Luke warm" message of which we are told in Revelations "The Specific God" of us shall vomit those who practice such things out of his mouth! As we are told in The Bible they shall be separated into the sheep and the goats! Where the goats bleat: "Did we not do these things in your name (Jesus)?" and Jesus shall reply: Get away from me you workers of lawlessness!" Thus these people were Christians (they said 'we did things in your name'), but their motive was incorrect, being to please 'the self' rather than fulfil Yahweh's Desire of them! Thus they became a 'Law to themselves' being an 'outlaw to Yahweh's Desire' – hence the reason why "lawlessness" was used in this context.

Can the reader again, see the specific point being made? – It is subtle, but so very important!

This piece is only to criticise the actions only, and not the worldly Christians directly, but rather so that they might see the errors of their ways and repent – in order to commence fulfilling Yahweh's Desire of them!

And so we approach this Palm Sunday, not with anxiety,

Why use "anxiety" in the context "not with anxiety"?

When Jesus said I have conquered, succeeded?

Thus a useless word! So why did the bishop use it?

Because the people of today surely have nothing to be anxious about unless you live in another land where 'Palm Sunday' could be like any other day where you might be 'lucky' to reach it due to the political violence that may be pandemic in their land! But then I explain why all this is occurring on this website and why worldly Christian Leaders actually delay the next stage of Yahweh's Plan from being fulfilled!

but with anticipation, our hearts filled with joy and excitement!

Why does the bishop use these words?

Does his congregation actually know the full significance of what Jesus actually did?
Or do they only know part of it - being only what they are told by worldly Christian Leaders!

Finally, is there perhaps a worldly reason why the bishop might state that?

I leave those cryptic comments 'in the air', so to speak to allow the reader to mull over them within their mind before I answer them later and elsewhere on this website.

Let us be encouraged in our own journeys of faith and pathways of prayer to proclaim Jesus as ruler over all.

This is an interesting statement.

Why?

Taking the various pieces within the construction to show how it weaves in and out of what Yahweh Desires for us.

So what does this statement actually mean?

Clearly we must all be "encouraged" – but what "encourages us" is the first question.

What does "in our own journeys of faith" really mean?

Is this a term that is used in The Bible?

No it is not. So what does it actually mean?

To cut all the permeations down, then to me it means that "we all find our own way in what we believe".

This again is most certainly not what The Bible tells us. In fact it is most certainly what Satan wants us to do. He wants us to meander in and along any path within this world as long as it does not follow the path of imitating Jesus. Thus the bishop is stating 'I am sanctioning that you are allowed to go along any route to find the destination of your own belief' and that you are allowed to use channels of communication ("pathways of prayer") to achieve this end.'

Is this really what The Bible tells us?

Clearly not!

And then the bishop tacks on the end "to proclaim Jesus is ruler over all"?

This is a humbug statement designed specifically to confuse!

And thus bring disrespect to Yahweh's Word = The Bible.

What does The Bible tell us about this specific point?

It tells us in many places that 'Jesus is patiently waiting for Yahweh to give him the command' to go in and restrain Satan's inept rule on this planet.

At present I cannot see Satan being restrained – with the planet spiralling out of control and selfishness abounding!

So is Jesus really ruling over all?

Is the bishop ascribing this pain and suffering as being the responsibility of Jesus ruling us now?

Because that is certainly the logical reasoning that comes out of what he has just stated!

This is utter confusion as I stated earlier – will he later clarify what he has just stated – I doubt it!

However this website makes very clear precisely what and why all this is occurring and I ascribe this pain and suffering specifically to "The Father of The Lie" being Satan himself.

And finally while I am here let me examine the phrase "pathways of prayer".

What does The Old and New Testament say on "prayer" 'to God' with many examples?

In many instances Yahweh just ignores them, turns His ear away from them! They are just fruitless prayers because the person praying has absolutely no real intention on fully implementing within their lifestyle precisely what Yahweh demands of those humans of whom He elects/chooses to become His Sons for "The Inheritance". So the question must be asked of this sentence:

Who actually is the bishop really speaking for?

Is it for humans to feel good about themselves or to promote humans to fulfil Yahweh's Desire?

Because logically, just stating to The World "Jesus rules us all", and 'all those' of The World look around to see what is occurring - will automatically think "Oh really!" And what a mess it is in! And then assign 'that mess' they witness to Jesus and think I am glad I am not with those fools! This has automatically ridiculed The Gospel being what the bishop should be speaking to the congregation, being what Jesus taught in his ministry being that there is to be The Millennium where Jesus will be in charge, ruling over all of us and there will NOT be this present pain and suffering.

Then the facts would be correctly presented – rather than being falsely portrayed at preset - that precisely suits the aims of Satan to merely sow confusion into The World (see parable of the Darnel seed).

And finally the get out, being the escape route a worldly Christian leader might make would be:

Oh what I really meant "Jesus rules us as being only those of the congregation".

Thus if that was true then:-

1. Why are 'we' to go out to The World and state Jesus is 1.1, ruling 'us' (as the world) or 1.2, 'us' as a congregation (being ambiguity = confusion) which is correct?
I have shown 1.1 to be wrong so what about 1.2?
2. Well 1.2 is wrong as well, because if you as a congregation have sown confusion into Yahweh's message, then how can you have Jesus working within you? For Jesus never demonstrated confusion in his ministry and as I have stated elsewhere "The specific god" of us will not work in a two minded person!

So we can conclude that this sentence is one of mischief!

And that begs the question: Who might have sourced that? Being The Father of The Lie!

Because we know from Bible examples how Satan manipulates The Truth, bends it into a lie. Look at Eve in the garden of Eden, The Temptations of Jesus in the wilderness and Peter advising Jesus not to go to Jerusalem!

All I am stating is just be very careful and logically analyse everything that is apparently said 'in the name of Jesus' because we are told to be very careful and audit everything that is stated by humans who may just be false prophets/teachers/leaders (it might not be intentional – but merely they do not understand – but just good orators) merely repeating what they have been told by their blind leaders. As Jesus said "The Blind leading the blind so that they both fall into the pit".

But returning back to the original question:

What is "encouraging us"?

It is "The Accurate Knowledge of The Absolute Truth" where "The Absolute Truth" holds together without mysteries! – That is why I can write with authority – because I am encouraged because I know "The Absolute Truth" as fully given in The Bible as I carefully explain on this website Yahweh's full and Ultimate Plan of utter and complete righteousness.

I encourage the reader to come to this knowledge by reading all the information on this website most appropriately called www.FutureLife.Org

Let us rejoice always

A most rousing and good sentiment.

But it has been placed just after a 'mischief' statement that has just been confusing.

What should we be rejoicing about?

I specifically know why I should be rejoicing – but does the bishop or the congregation know why they should be rejoicing?

Will we 'ever' find out?

and never cease from praying,

More or less 'correct' – provided we know for what we are to pray!

In this congregation – I strongly suspect they do not know how to correctly pray, because they are not instructed 'how to correctly pray' by their leaders. Please see my essay on "Why do we pray" for instruction on this very important matter.

However I would like to throw in a question.

"Never cease from praying" - is this actually what The Bible tells us?

And is this really what The Bishop is telling his congregation?

Or is it a "white lie" – to make everything 'sound good' being a 'good sound-bite'?

I explain how this term applies to my life in "Why do we pray".

in everything giving thanks.

Correct – being a quote from The Bible.

Again, does the congregation actually understand what this term really means?

Please read this website to find out.

And now, let us join in a prayer of St Augustine who said...

I give no credence to a worldly created saint. Assuming that The World has assigned the word "saint" to an earthly person because they are assumed to be better than any other human – hence worthy of 'the name'.

But then what does The Bible say about this?

Jesus tells us that only his Father in The Heavens can decide who sits to the right and left of Jesus. Thus no human can be 'declared a saint' because only The Father can make that decision, unless some human Christian Leader deems themselves to be The Almighty God – in which aspect they clearly 'must' (or ignore The Bible)! Thus The Bishop here should not give credence to this very worldly assignment!

Finally I have personally read a number of 'the ruminations' of Augustine, and there are many anomalies within his reasoning for me to logically dismiss much of his writings as being 'worldly wisdom' (see Ps.3v5-8) rather than being lead by Yahweh. However the discussion of that is outside the remit of this document – but I can with any worldly orientated Christian leader through the email route given on this website – the invitation is there!

Lord, you are great

Depending ‘To Whom’ they are referring.

I would state “To Yahweh, The Perfectly Supreme, Almighty Deity Ruler of The Universe” just so that we all know ‘To Whom’ we are speaking.

and greatly to be praised!

Someone is praised by the actions of someone else!

So the question must be asked:

What are the actions of these individuals in the congregation that “greatly praise Yahweh”?
Do any of the members know that it is not singing songs, saying lovely things about themselves (within the congregation), saying phrases like “God is most wonderful” to whom they meet outside the congregation, nor doing (apparently/supposedly) miraculous (as self claimed) things within the congregation that actually praises God!

So what is it that really does praise God?

Actually it is in your daily work, being how your ‘personality’ imitating Jesus’ ministry is made manifest to The World at large!

It is nothing else!

And does The Bible give us instruction on how what our personality should be like?

In many places all through The Bible.

Firstly we must understand that our “personality” is our “synapse construction in operation”.

We must also realise that Yahweh has a constant ‘read-out’ of our synapse construction during our life (very much like the concept within The Matrix film – though I do not condone its violence). Yahweh is able to precisely know to the very innermost depths of our reasoning – exactly what we are like – there is no hiding place! – For it is the very synapse construction that He retains as “Heavenly Treasure” so that He is in the position to create an identical reasoning clone of our personality into a virgin DNA brain located within a perfected DNA body upon our resurrection into The Millennium where we are to then learn righteousness, to be in the position to self-program our synapse construction (called “learning” and then demonstrated by “doing”) to become like Jesus’ personality during his ministry. We shall essentially be exactly “US” but having a free choice within a perfected society to do just this – this is what makes everything Righteous (= Equitable), being The Period of Restoration – as The Bible so clearly tells us!

Thus we are ultimately to bring our personality inline to ‘The Exemplar’ being Jesus.

We have the choice of doing it now during what is effectively the 1st part of our life, or we leave it till the 2nd part of our life (essentially - The Millennium) where it becomes a “Crisis” / “Judgement” time on our complete life because this is the last opportunity to imitate Jesus for the rest of our existence.

Can the reader see the utter and complete logic behind this statement?

This is never explained by worldly Christian Leaders because they have absolutely no concept (being what separates True Christianity from all worldly religions) of The Good News, being The Gospel preached of The Millennium – which is precisely what Jesus came to teach us “the nearness of” by application!

This is The Problem that I need to break through – being this utter malaise created by misinformation! Quite a condemnation of Christendom – being under the control of the present worldly god of Satan’s inept management style, whose desire is to misinform The World of what Yahweh’s True Desire is of its inhabitants!

Awaken us

There are only two contexts of the reference “to awaken” (or roused) in The New Testament (I know, because I spent 3 years translating The New Testament from the Original Greek – see this website) and they are:-

1. When a person is to awake from their slumbers either physically (as in normal sleep) or mentally (to start using our brain to carefully reason upon things).
2. When Jesus uses the term either in application to others or himself when resurrected from the 1st Death.

There are no other instances of this terminology being used.

So why is the bishop using this terminology in the following instance?

Because it is from The World and not from The Bible – because it is a nice ‘sound-bite’ that scripturally means nothing but actually is quite misleading as I will show when I explain it in context.

to delight in your praises,

Before I answer the first part in relation to this – I need to get my head around what is being said here!

Is “the delight” to us or from us with relation to Yahweh?

“Who” actually is ‘getting the praise’?

And: - Why (in context) are we to be awakened – so that we “might delight in your praises”?

Because unless we actually understand what is being said here then what has just been said is ‘hot air’ from a representative of The World for The World to enjoy!

Let me write down the various possible scenarios:-

1. Let us be joyful (delighted) as we in the congregation ‘worship’ (earthly form) You (Yahweh) by our actions now.
2. Open our mind to understand Your Desire so that we might have The Joyful (delightful) Expectation of The Millennium and how we might advance this event during the 1st part of our life.
3. Upon our resurrection we are Joyful (delighted) to be resurrected as a Son of God having been praised (exulted) by Yahweh to this most wonderful position.

Now knowing that worldly Christian Leaders ‘play their audience’ to give them what they want, to make them feel happy and joyful (for surely that is ‘the reason’ for the meeting) for ‘a worldly return’ (mutual symbiosis), then I suspect item (1) is at the forefront of the bishop’s mind – and especially as items (2) and (3) are never explained in any sermon that I have heard – as we will soon witness here at this most applicable time of year! However from Yahweh’s point of view if items (2) and (3) are not explained then Yahweh shall close His ears because the sermon becomes ‘pointed to the individual’ rather than to fulfil Yahweh’s Desire.

Can the reader understand the very subtle point being made?

For you made us for yourself,

Depending upon the “You” then this is a most correct statement.

However because worldly Christian leaders and theologians have become completely lost in the Trinity myth/nonsense then they do not understand what the Greek term “Ho Theos” actually means.

It means “the specific god” (of which we all agree) of the context (at which point we part company)!

I put “ho theos” in context but sadly worldly focused Christian leaders/theologians do what they are so good at, and take things out of context!

Thus I make “ho theos” the subject of the context which is in software terms a “floating index pointer” based upon context of the software script.

Worldly Christian Leaders and theologians take it out of context and force “ho theos” to become “The Almighty God” and now initiates the birth of the falsehood Trinity myth. It is utterly ridiculous to do this because there are already four variations of “theos” in The Greek text clearly used as fixed pointers to The Almighty God!

So what does this statement really mean?

The Bible tells us it was Jesus as “the specific god” of us who created us and all other life forms on this earth being “The Adornment” (Greek “Kosmos” for “World”) being a separate entity to Yahweh, using Yahweh’s holy spirit and learning from Him by The Evidence we witness within the geological records.

Thus now the bishop is not realising that he has moved from Yahweh to be now speaking to Jesus as “The Heart Knower” (see Luke and Acts where this terminology is used), where Jesus has made us for himself so that in The Culmination all remaining might be presented to Yahweh perfected – again just as The Bible so specifically tells us!

And our hearts are restless

Lovely sweet sounding words!

Really pulling at the ‘heart strings’ of his audience – but again - what does this statement really mean?

Restless for what?

Let us see.

Till they find their rest in you.

Well - Yes!

But How?

This is the defining point, but yet it is not explained!

This is most particular, and only on a personal front – so how it has been left is that we all decide what and how “our hearts find our rest in you”!

I had better go back to what The Bible tells us, because as I have seen before in other worldly Christian sermons “The Heart” is incorrectly used as I assume it is here also!

The Bible teaches us the following about the heart:-

1. It is the zeal, passion, motivation, driving force behind the person’s actions.
2. It is also treacherous (being easily misled).

So based upon Bible knowledge then I am slightly confused by this statement:

Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in ‘you’.

“Restless” – OK, perhaps they are ‘driving about’ recklessly without direction and thus rudderless.

Hence we turn to look to The Bible so that we might gain knowledge in which we can use to steer our hearts correctly to fulfil Yahweh’s Desire of us.

However – I feel this is not quite what the bishop is telling us!

I believe in error he is selling us another ‘lovely sound-bite’, being that:

We are all good Christians for coming here today and because of this, we will all go to heaven as soon as we die – and we look forward to the peace and security that this ‘eventuality’ will deliver to us.

If this is what he is suggesting, then he is wrong on about three fronts.

They are:-

1. It is only Yahweh Who decides who are good Christians or not, no human is able (not even ourselves).
2. Going to this particular meeting as I am carefully explaining is not a particular good endorsement of being a good Christian.
3. We will not be going to heaven as soon as we die – even if we are declared by Yahweh as being a Son of God.

However I fully explain everything on this website and thus do not need to unpick The Truth out of the implied worldly Christian most errant insinuation.

ALL: AMEN

Would Yahweh really endorse what has been said here?

And it is interesting that “All” (of the congregation) are complicit in this vacant (vain) request!

Hymn: Praise him, Praise him! Jesus, our BlessÈd Redeemer

Are things going to improve with this next prayer?

Let us see!

Prayer: Minister Alan Hepburn

O God,

as we gather this morning to worship,

Clearly The Minister does not understand what “Worship” means! But rather taken onboard the worldly understanding of “worship” that all worldly religions understand “Worship” to mean – being that we are to perform worldly acts of ritual - peculiar to the particular worldly religion being espoused.

we commemorate the final week of the life of Jesus.

Most importantly: “How do we commemorate the life of Jesus in our lives?”

And in this particular instance what makes it so particular being this final week – for it to be commemorated?

The key at the end being The Last Supper Memorial and the following most painful self-sacrifice to this present worldly system – else nothing is particularly special!

So what is being implied by this double-speak?

Also what is the minister saying about Jesus – “the final week of the life of Jesus”!

Surely Jesus was resurrected 3 days later and is living again! Thus it was not the final week of Jesus!

However Alan would have made things less confusing if he just added the four words “in his fleshly body”!

For Jesus’ personality was resurrected and placed within a heavenly/celestial/spiritual body by Yahweh’s holy spirit for him to become “the specific god” of us - as doubting Thomas so clearly tells us.

However I know why Alan did not add those four words, because they can’t decide amongst themselves what Jesus came back in – if at all!

We call to mind the agony he went through on the cross for the sins of the whole world.

So we just “call to mind” do we! - Really - as much as that!

Notice how there is an acknowledgement that he died “for the sins of the whole world”, but worldly Christians go and spoil this fact, by spinning their yarn that: “You must be a Christian to be saved!”

Please read my essay on: “The Difference between Saved and having Life”. Where I explain the essential difference between the two that has been utterly confused by worldly Christian Leaders in their spiel!

And we pray for those who have not yet come to realise your love for them,

Actually there is no example in The Bible that instructs us to do this. However Jesus gives examples where he prays for The Brethren and for True Christians, to be protected and remain faithful to The Fidelity of Yahweh. He also prays that His Father’s Desire shall be fulfilled on this Earth.

Thus this is a devious half truth by The Minister given to confuse the listeners.

However in The Millennium when “those who have not come to realize your love to them”, shall be in the position to see what this love meant, being that was the only route they became resurrected into The Millennium, then they might just reform their personality to then be in the position to “Believe” = “fully committed to imitate Jesus’ lifestyle” = to practice non-selfishness to their neighbour.

None of this is taught by worldly Christian Leaders because they have not the faintest idea that this WILL occur! Thus they are utterly deficient in Knowledge and Understanding of Yahweh’s Acceptable Year!

that they too will accept your love and be drawn to you.

Yes - this may occur in The Millennium or earlier if they choose to imitate Jesus in their life style during the 1st part of their life.

Lord, we have no palm leaves to lay down before you, Correct!

but we lay our lives at your feet,
Oh really?

Quite a presumptuous statement!

What are the evidential qualifiers to justify this all-embracing statement?

The Bible tells us that we are only accepted if we become “The Slaves of God”.

A slave who has two masters is useless, because their loyalty is divided.

Thus we either:-

1. Become a Slave to Yahweh by throwing away “the things that take our time” (= “worship”) that self-indulge ourselves at the expense of our neighbour (and thus we are away from The World). OR
2. We become a Slave to The World to put self-indulgence (of anything) first, where we spend more time doing the things that we desire on a minute by minute basis, than we do fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire of us.

For we are told there is no sitting on the fence for we are either “for Jesus gathering or against Jesus dispersing”, for we cannot be Luke Warm! Based upon two quotations from The Bible.

We need this clarity of vision for the future Expectation – else we as individuals, will become lost within the things pertaining to this present World and thus fog our vision and not see the future Expectation.

Sadly worldly Christian Ministers give no clarity when it comes to fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire!

Why?

Because they know the result – the majority of the congregation will ‘vote by their feet’, and the financial income, together with the worldly glorification of the minister will ‘dry-up’!

But Yahweh at present is not after these type of people, He is only out to elect/choose His Sons of God that come out of the pool of The Christian Nation as a whole. These specific ones are to be His New Spiritual Israel who as The Old Testament tells us are 100% loved by Yahweh, because they demonstrate by works a 100% love for Yahweh!

For there we find forgiveness of sin and the promise of life eternal.

Just please mention “The Millennium”, being “The Gospel”, being “The Good News” that the representatives of Yahweh should be publicising to The World at large. For it is only through The Millennium that all this does just become righteously possible!

But as usual – nothing about The Millennium will be spoken of in this ‘play to the audience’!

So no one will gain the real facts – of The Most Important Drama unfolding in their lives – but perhaps a television soap opera is more to their fancy?

We commemorate your death but we also celebrate your resurrection to new life.

So that is it - “we commemorate” being that “we bring to recall” by turning up at a service which occurs near to but not actually on Nissan 14 (if it was a true commemoration of Jesus’ Death) where Jesus was The Perfect Lamb as The High Priest officiating at our redemption – for he did not require any sacrifice on his part (as did the worldly priests before him) – for he was as Melchisedec of no worldly recorded beginning, from the new Priestly line of Judah!

And why might we be “celebrating Jesus’ resurrection to new life”?

And further does the minister actually know into ‘what body’ Jesus was resurrected into?

I doubt it – because as I sated earlier there is perpetual disagreement between worldly Christian leaders, exactly to ‘what body’ it might be.

However, fortunately for the reader, this website clearly explains the full logic behind why he was resurrected back into his heavenly/celestial/spiritual rather than a fleshly based DNA body of some 33.5 year duration.

But I should let the reader know why I celebrate Jesus’ resurrection to Life.

Why?

Because:-

It validates:-

1. Yahweh's Omnificence in knowing that His son was capable of fulfilling His (Yahweh's) Desire perfectly as prophesied (see Gen.3v16) and many other places of The Old Testament.
2. Jesus' competence in fulfilling Yahweh's Desire of him (demonstrated to all - Rev.5v3-6).
3. Jesus' fidelity to his Father – as “The True Witness”, being “The Word of God” demonstrated as “The Wisdom of God” expressed in his lifestyle – being his personality.
4. Jesus entrusting in his Father's capability (= holy spirit expressing Yahweh's Desire in action) to resurrect him as “The First-Fruit” (of another 144000 to follow), being “The Only Begotten Son of God” from a fleshly body into a Spiritual body worthy of future and everlasting Kingship (when Yahweh has made Jesus' enemies his footstool).
5. It fulfils all Bible prophecy on this subject, and thus gives me the confidence and assurance to imitate Jesus to the very best that I am able, so that I too, might please Yahweh to and only for Yahweh's glory above all things of The Universe.

That is all and nothing else!

I wonder if that list would contain the same items that the congregation might muster up together. Not for condemnation, for merely they have been erroneously taught to draw up another listing by those with upon whom the responsibility really lies!

We accept this new life you have given to us.

What “New Life?” – To imitate Jesus' ministry?

And does The Minster actually know exactly of what “new life” he is speaking?

I doubt it! Please read this website to know precisely what all this means.

I suggest starting at “Born Again” in Glossary.

We patiently wait for your return,

Does this mean ‘doing nothing’, or does it mean ‘imitating Jesus’?

If the former, then you will be like the unwise virgins who had not prepared the oil for their lamps, for their ‘betrothed’ might come when they are least expecting, and only collect those (imitating Jesus) who show the light of their ministry from the oil (knowledge through the holy spirit) they prepared earlier by filling their lamps (reading an accurate translation of The Bible).

See Glossary on all these terms.

this time not riding on a donkey,

How many of ‘the audience’ would know that this is a fulfilment of many prophecies? – See my sermon.

but on the cloud of glory.

Will this be at the 1st 2nd C (see Glossary) or later during The General Resurrection?

The timing will depend upon your heart condition as Yahweh ONLY determines.

Is your motivation, zeal, passion, drive commensurate with what Yahweh Desires from you?

That is The Question!

Also will the minister explain what the metaphoric word “cloud” means to the congregation?

And in anticipation,

Oh Really?

Anticipation of What?

Does any member of ‘the audience’ actually know what to be expecting?

I am not critical of the members of the congregation, but only feel a deep and intense sadness because their faith/fidelity/assurance is “built upon sand”, being only ‘the illusions’ that worldly Christian Leaders place upon their congregations for some form of worldly ‘kick-back’ of self-indulgence.

When civilisation (as we presently know it) collapses during “The Wrath of God”, basically being where mankind implodes in upon itself through the selfish rape of diminishing resources on this planet (to the detriment of their neighbour) then their ‘faith/belief’ will be sorely tested and found to be wanting.

It is only when their faith/fidelity/assurance is built upon The Bedrock of The Bible rather than the razzmatazz of worldly showmen, then by knowing The Bible intimately an inner strength of fortitude/stamina will occur and The Wisdom of God which shall shine through as white clothing for The World to witness (please see “Faith” in Glossary).

we cry out with one voice, "Hosanna, Hosanna, blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

Which “he” and “Lord” do they mean?

Just sounds ‘so nice’ – but The Information is all lost through the dilution of The Trinity myth!

I had better untangle ‘the myth’.

“He” who comes is Jesus Christ as “the specific god” of us.

“The Lord” is Yahweh (The Almighty God of The Universe) when He decides the time is correct for Jesus to come and collect Yahweh’s “Sons of God” in “The First Harvest” for “The Marriage” taken at “The Special/Greater Judgement” – being formulated on quotations from The Bible.

And who of the congregation know what “Hosanna” means?

If not – why not! Surely they should not be using words of which have no meaning to them!

What have the leaders been teaching them?

“Hosanna” Strongs = 5614 means a combination of “Oh to Save” or “Be victorious”

O God,

This is Yahweh – To Whom all good/ideal things come from, and thus To Whom we give thanks and praise through our actions in imitating Jesus’ ministry in our lives.

Perhaps not quite what The Minister will say!

may our worship of prayer, praise and giving

No it was not quite what The Minister did say!

Which shows he does not (perhaps ‘chooses not’) to understand what the words “Worship”, “Praise” and “Giving” really mean in an apostle’s life.

But he plays on the ears of the audience – makes them feel good! And - that is what they come for!

I think some people call this ‘revving them up’ ready for the next section!

But is Yahweh pleased with what He hears?

be acceptable to you, now and always.

Time will tell – and Yahweh shall judge!

Both of us will be judged!

I will be judged upon what I write here, just as worldly Christian Leaders shall be judged upon what they speak and do to their congregations!

The only difference perhaps, is that I reverentially fear Yahweh and cringe before His Complete Omnificence, knowing that without Him I should not exist, and should I not ultimately fulfil His Desire, then I shall be exterminated –irrespective of what any false Christian leader/prophet/teacher might state to the contrary.

Just for the record to clarify a very worldly Christian falsehood.

One thing that shall never occur to me, is for me to be eternally tormented in hell! Even if I ultimately fail His Desire, then He is not unrighteous to make me suffer for an eternity – but rather put me out of my misery through extermination.

ALL: AMEN

Again, I must ask:-

Would Yahweh really endorse what has been said here by the worldly Christian Leader?

And it is interesting that “All” (of the congregation) are complicit in this vacant (vain) request!

Jennifer Willis:

The history of this church is bound up with procession and praise.

The history of ‘The Church’ as a whole demonstrated through the last millennia might well be bound up with procession and ‘praise’; and no doubt this ‘church’ follows the same route.

But what is done, is not in the name, CHARACTER and AUTHORITY of Yahweh through Jesus as demonstrated by the works of Christendom generally (as I will explain later).

Look throughout all of history. Those individuals who truly stand up for The Name of Jesus become demonised – just as The Pharisees said of Jesus and as Jesus said of all those who were to imitate him during The Gospel Age (John.16v1-4). Only because those who (being a total of 144000) imitate the life of Jesus in all that they do (for there was no fault in Jesus), thus demonstrate the hypocrisy of the religious leaders to The Fidelity of The Word of God. This is precisely what Jesus did and obviously the worldly focused religious leaders retaliated, and why logically those who imitate Jesus shall likewise be demonised by the worldly religious leaders (Pharisees then and ‘worldly Christian’ now) prevailing at the appropriate demonstrable times throughout The Gospel Age! Thus worldly procession and worldly praise for worldly returns – for that is why it is done, and we see this everywhere throughout worldly Christendom!

Did Jesus demonstrate this ‘parading’? – Except only The Once – to fulfil Scriptures when he came into Jerusalem on a donkey. No other time was this done (else it would have been written down), either during his ministry or later by The Apostles in Acts.

Also note it was a donkey and not a horse. ‘The Donkey’ a symbol of humility used by ‘the common person’, a horse being used at the time as ‘a war machine’ upon which would sit ‘a worldly ruler’.

Perhaps Jennifer can find quotations to either support what I state – or support what she states?

We are to imitate Jesus, and to follow Paul's example – this is what The Bible commands us to do, else we wander and stray – again - as we are warned several times in The Bible.

The church was originally based in a small, disheveled building in Peel Street, just round the corner from where we are today, and moved to its current location in 1979. This for us historic journey was marked by the most wonderful procession filled with music, prayer and praise to Almighty God, as the local congregation marched from the 'old' to the 'new'.

Speaks volumes!

I am sure there was much fanfare – I draw the reader's attention to The Bible stating that Yahweh is not impressed by such worldly things, but only by someone emulating His Son Jesus.

So again I must ask the obvious question:-

Was there anything like this mentioned in The Acts of the Apostles or to be endorsed by The Epistles?

This transition symbolised our desire to be a sign of hope to a community blighted by a sense of hopelessness, Precisely endorses what I am trying to unpick!

It should not be these showy things to gratify the worldly self-indulgence that just comes and goes like the wind (as The Bible tells us as being just basic vanity), but rather we are to learn specifically what The Bible tells us to give us 'that house built upon rock' (rather than upon sand). It is the detailed working knowledge of The Bible that I have which gives me the capability to write with the 'character and authority' of Jesus (for Jesus knew The Torah 'like the back of his hand' – studying it since the age of 12 years) and that is all that I ask of the reader – learn your Bible – all of it and not the little bits that 'please the eye/ear'! When this is done it becomes obvious that The (Bible) Expectation of the community would become known, and thus dispelling all hopelessness – knowing that there was the most wonderful future supported by endorsed, proven knowledge! Also with this detailed logical knowledge being widely known – it would reduce much crime, because people would start to reason upon their future (and accountability) rather than just taking for 'The Immediacy of themselves' by effectively imitating Satan and practising basic selfishness!

Because presently what they hear 'is a load of rubbish given out by mad people' – see quote later.

to bring light where darkness abounds,

Yes by having absolute knowledge of The Bible, but you will certainly not get it from a wish-washy luke-warm sermon like this!

and to promote joy where there is sadness.

What does Jennifer really mean here?

Are these just sweet sounding words for the sake of personal vanity – or a bit more?

Is she insinuating that 'knowing about' Jesus given in the hype and razzmatazz promulgated by this 'church' (as it proudly boasts) that people feel "Joy where there is sadness"?

Or rather - the joy is much more deep seated, knowing that you are fulfilling Yahweh's Desire of you by carefully and thus accurately explaining His Word, being His Most Righteous Plan to those humans who are sadly presently in the darkness – without a working knowledge of The Bible?

I would suggest the joy that I have is far more deep seated than that given by a fleeting circus parade!

The underlying ethos of worship through music, prayer and praise

"The underlying ethos" "of worship" – is precisely my point.

This is not what we are told in The New Testament!

We are told to imitate Jesus. Jesus did not use "music"! He also "prayed" correctly! And his "praise" of Yahweh was that he precisely followed Yahweh's Desire of him – which was:-

As we are told in Isa.61v1-3, as it says "so that he might be glorified".

This is precisely what Jesus told us was his mission in Luke.4v16-21, and further more he fulfilled it – perfectly.

As we are told his Father said: "This is my beloved son – in whom I am well pleased".

Thus consequently we should emulate Jesus, so that we might also be blessed by The Father.

This is symbiotic, we praise The Father by imitating Jesus and thus glorify The Father (just as Jesus tells us), and The Father blesses us by assisting our work in imitating Jesus through the use of His holy spirit (more later, and also see Glossary).

So is this what Jennifer made clear to us?

No it is not! – I personally believe she is pressing the razzmatazz button to 'psych the audience up' – to make them believe in 'satisfying personal vanity' rather than fulfilling The Word of God!

follows the traditional mode of Palm Sunday worship,

Whose tradition?

Does it come from The Bible or from worldly mankind?

Jesus only commanded us to celebrate His Memorial Supper, being The Last Supper on the night before he died. We are to do this "in remembrance of me (Jesus)", once a year on Nissan 14.

Anything else takes our mind and time away from fulfilling Yahweh's Desire.

and is reflected in our first reading from 2nd Samuel, Chapter 6, beginning at verse 12.

Oh - Really?

I rather think this piece has been taken out of context!

I will place it back into context!

Reading: 2 Samuel 6:12-22

Putting it back into context!

David in his vanity, desired to parade The Ark before the Jebusites being the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with the full intention to intimidate them by proudly boasting that he had the full endorsement from Yahweh to conquer them. However this prospective misuse of Yahweh's presence severely displeased Yahweh, and on the way to The City Jerusalem, then Uzzah (and purely as my supposition, 'it may have been Uzzah who possibly suggested this ruse to David') by marching immediately behind (to thus be 'glorified' with The Ark) with triumphant expectation placed his hand on The Ark of The Covenant to steady it and immediately died (only the priests of Levi were allowed to touch The Ark – being archetypical of The Gospel Age – 144000 and God's Word, etc). This incident severely worried David and thus he left The Ark at Obededom's household being a righteous man, whereupon his household prospered. David in the meantime, now in a humbled state (realising Yahweh knew what David planned) made reparations to Yahweh and then afterwards he won the battle over the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Thus it was then in this heightened state of jubilation, where David realised that Yahweh had forgiven him, and offered him the victory over Jebusites which allowed him to move The Ark into Jerusalem.

It was because David had been torn down into a humbled state, which he fully accepted, and was then elevated by Yahweh through victory that David behaved as he did.

I liken this today – where certain Christian groupings proudly boast to The World that they have Yahweh's presence operating with them (because of all the symbols that they claim to call upon) – and yet in reality Yahweh is severely displeased with them – and shall ultimately smite them – because of their vanity displayed to The World!

NIV

An easy read bible version!

However it is not a translation, but merely a worldly interpretation of the original Hebrew and Greek language. And sadly a very poor interpretation at that. As I found out when I spent 3 years translating The New Testament from The Original Greek and had a NIV alongside for comparison (together with eight other Bible versions). My conclusion is that the NIV (and Good News Bible) is best burnt rather than being thrown away, so there is no possibility of it contaminating another victim's methodology of thinking!

I justify this statement by quoting sections and giving a direct comparison to the original Greek as commentary within my NT Translation as given on this website. And as I wrote it, I might claim my translation is the most accurate amplified version in the world today!

Bishop Basil:

For those 'looking on' from the sidelines, exuberant praise with its sense of abandonment before God can look ridiculous.

From the sidelines of what situation?

David's position where he had been humiliated and then won the most important Battle – being that for Jerusalem, where he had regained favour from Yahweh?

Or some other situation? That might not have Yahweh's endorsement!

And “with its sense of abandonment before God” - what does The Bishop really mean?

Does he mean that they (his congregation) did not attribute anything to Yahweh, or that David attributed everything to Yahweh?

The reader should think very carefully upon all the things posed in answering that question.

It's easy to be skeptical.

I see The Bishop has been here before!

Perhaps I have not been the only one!

But for those who've encountered the deep love of God, who are in relationship with him, the response is to praise extravagantly.

The defining point not made – being what type of “praise” is it?

Is it one of personal vanity (perhaps likened initially to David or Uzzah) – or the humility of servitude demonstrated by Jesus?

Yet this [Praising God] doesn't always come easily,

I think the defining point will soon be made!

especially when people are hurting, struggling, facing injustice or abuse, dealing with the impact of a society where God can seem absent.
Yes – The precise point has been made!

The ‘praise of vanity’ does not come easily with the contradictions shown by what has just been stated. However, the ‘praise of humble servitude’ in fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire to make The Knowledge of His Acceptable Year (being the growth of humans from conception to judgement) carried out over a 2 part life span (never taught by worldly Christian Leaders – because they have not the faintest idea what it means) would mean that Yahweh would impact upon a society that at present (through the dismal efforts of present worldly Christian leaders) does seem distant!

That's something we have to wrestle with in a community like ours,

Having knowledge of “The Absolute Truth” would reduce ‘the wrestling’ within our minds.

Why?

Because knowledge of The Most Righteous Plan would calm us, knowing that Yahweh has everything in perfect control – as this website so very clearly explains!

as this poem makes clear, written and read now by a member of our congregation, Andrina Davis.

Poem: 'Will things ever change?'

Gathering from the title, it is sad that a wistful poem like this is written, but this only occurs because people do not have “The Absolute Truth”.

The Bible calls this The Expectation (NIV interprets this as “hope” which it would be if you have no knowledge and this detailed knowledge is not going to be forthcoming from the NIV!), thus it is The Knowledge of “The Absolute Truth” from an accurate translation that gives ‘The Certainty of Expectation’.

The Expectation of The Millennium (that is never taught by worldly Christian Leaders) which will lead to the most significant change – beyond the wildest imaginations of those pressured by Satan’s present evil system!

Bishop Basil:

God doesn't wave a magic wand;

A half lie! Sadly I cannot call this a half truth – as the reader will so understand!

I had better explain this – from The Bible!

When those humans in both Old and New Testaments followed Yahweh precise instruction (thus fulfilling His Desire of them) then Yahweh would behave in an immediate, miraculous manner. But this would not be through waving a magic wand, but merely using all The Laws of Nature (that He created) as He deems necessary to fulfil His Desire to assist those faithful humans who fulfilled His Desire of them.

There are more examples of Yahweh miraculously operating in the Old Testament (floating axe, leprosy immediately occurring, etc) than in The New Testament (jail gates immediately opening, etc), but in all instances it might appear that Yahweh ‘waved a magic wand’, though it would not be through magic that made these things occur. Thus the Bishop is wrong by example!

transformation rarely happens overnight.

I think this is the worldly interpretation of The Mustard Seed parable being made manifest!

Please read this website for the correct explanation of this parable as located in the NT Translation.

Being the interpretation, where worldly Christian leaders have completely got ‘the wrong end of the stick’ in understanding precisely what Jesus meant when he used it as an example of what ‘Faith/Fidelity/Assurance’ really means!

Especially within in the context of the Bishop’s lead-in!

But we're called to work and pray.

Precisely so!

This is the first accurate thing stated in this whole ‘get-together’.

But do they really know ‘what work is required’ and ‘for what to pray’?

Let us see.

Because the question must be:

What is distinctive difference between a True Christian and those of another ‘worldly’ religion – who might be doing equally good works in the name of ‘The Almighty God’ (of their religion)?

And just claiming that it is done in “the name of Jesus” does not make it correct, for we are told: ‘People did it in his name and yet were rejected by Jesus – but they could not understand why’ – so they must have been sincere!

And God helps us to see and join in what he's already doing,

Does the Bishop really know what ‘God’ is doing?

And if the Bishop did know, would he actually want to join in?

And do 'we' desire to really see what is required to be done?
These are very important questions.

Because we must ask ourselves:-

How many people do they see in their life who actually imitate Jesus' ministry:

Where he had "nowhere to lay his head", and often preaching for days (to explain The Lord's Acceptable Year) without rest, where we are told "he was exhausted", and living off exactly what 'the commoners' lived off, being bread and fish. Clearly there was one occasion where he went to a family wedding – but what does The Bible tell us about his culinary delights during that occasion?

The lack of information of some areas, speaks volumes about what was really important for us to imitate being what is written elsewhere!

so we become channels

Sweet talking!

Why use the word "channels"?

Surely we should be 'the source' – if these qualities were sincere – being that we are merely reflecting what we learnt from Jesus – being that all important, no, necessary personality (brain synapse) change! The crux being that we are personally motivated to be 'the source' rather than insinuating that actually it comes from somewhere else – and we are merely 'the messenger' thus devaluing the significance of what these qualities should be acting upon within our own life!

of love,

Which form of the four Greek words for "Love" is the bishop speaking of?

Please see "Love" in Glossary for the real explanation of this word – and how it might be used out of context!

grace

Does anyone in the congregation know what "Grace" really means?

And in the context that it is used within?

"Grace" means "Gifts and Favours".

In the context of Jesus: Grace is of his ministry and The Ransom Sacrifice (to cover all humans).

In the context of Yahweh: Grace is His Desire to use His holy spirit to resurrect us so that we might enter the 2nd part of our life, that if based upon Adam and Eve's choice for us would not have been available. It is only because of Jesus' Grace, that enables Yahweh to righteously use His holy spirit to resurrect us before his everlasting, 'never to be repealed' edict on sin:

"In the day you sin you will (begin to) die (everlastingly)."

So given this accurate knowledge then:-

How (quoting the bishop) are 'we to channel grace (gifts and favours)' being in actuality - to fulfil Yahweh's Desire of us?

I think based upon the evidence of the sermon so far – this is nonsense!

Why?

Because nowhere has anyone stated anything yet that is relevant to Yahweh's Plan of human salvation!

And that is surely the point of this sermon supposedly at this time of Year – Please see my example at the end!

The gifts and favours that we personally put out to our neighbour is through passing this detailed knowledge on to our neighbour so that they might have this detailed knowledge to edify them and strengthen them with what will now become to them "The Expectation" of The Millennium, and for some, they might just make the grade to become Sons of God.

However none of this is going to occur through the 'gifts and favours' of a sermon like this (being the lack of)!

and healing.

I have to keep coming out with "Oh Really!" With the utter presumptuous nature of some of these claims given out within this sermon!

How is a sermon like this going to give out real healing?

Remember – The Healing that Jesus gives is long lasting – it lasts forever!

Can I presume that the healing which 'is channelled by those who claim' does actually lasts forever!

For any example that they might find, if I delved deeply enough in the records then I might discover in reality the supposed 'healing' failed – both mentally and physically!

Then comes the most unrighteous claim in these circumstances: 'It was because the recipient had not enough faith'! - Please see my essay on "Faith healing" where I explain this to be a most unrighteous statement!

For we're not alone;

Now I have been given 'The Understanding' to decipher Yahweh's Plan which is so clearly given in The Bible then I too claim – "I am not alone" – for I have Yahweh's holy spirit within me guiding me, and giving me knowledge “in due season” as dispensed by Jesus being “the heart knower” who is “the specific god” of me – and is also my Creator (all quotations from The Bible).

the Holy Spirit is at work

Interestingly I also feel the holy spirit at work within me.

And further, the interesting thing is that I am auditing your sermon and presently finding it wanting!

Perhaps the holy spirit may have worked with you in the past – but sadly there appears to be little evidence of it now – based upon what is being presently stated!

So ‘who’ is correct – You or me?

Sometimes things like this need to be stated without the need of a practical demonstration as given many years ago by Elijah when he faced the priests of Ahab and called upon Yahweh to demonstrate ‘who’ truly represented Yahweh’s Interests here upon the earth!

Please see “spirit” and “holy spirit” in Glossary to understand what these terms really mean – because you will not get this information from any worldly Christian Leader – but some senseless waffle.

I suggest you pre-arm yourself by reading The Glossary explanations so that you know what these terms mean and then ask worldly Christian Leaders what these terms mean, to discover what inconsistent and illogical waffle is forthcoming – try it for yourself and find out!

- the Comforter, Advocate,

I fully explain this terminology in the Glossary (please see Trinity) – because sadly The Trinity myth has created so much mystery, that its advocates boast proudly ‘to be lost within this worldly created myth’!

Which I find so strange when The Bible tells us that all is made clear to those who search, and have Yahweh working with them – speaks volumes in itself!

Paraclete, literally 'the one who answers our call'.

Just to make it very clear – as I wish to give “The Absolute Truth”!

It is Yahweh Who listens to those to Whom He chooses to listen, and ignores those who do not delight Him.

As we are clearly told in the epistles of James and John, that it is Yahweh who hears and responds “even before we ask” – because we (being James and John as exemplars, speaking as “apostles” = “appointed to tell”) ask in the name, CHARACTER and AUTHORITY of Jesus – inasmuch ‘we’ imitate him.

Thus Yahweh does respond through the use of His holy spirit to support His True ambassadors work.

Now shall we see if the bishop knows what “Paraclete” really means?

Perhaps we should go back to the Universally Acclaimed reference Document Strong’sTM Concordance and see if the Bishop was correct!

Strong’s = 3875 “Parakletos” an intercessor, consoler, advocator, comforter.

This word is compound and is derived from two other words:-

“Para” Strong’s = 3844, near, from beside, alongside, parallel, proximity.

“Kletos” Strong’s = 2822, (same as “Klesis” 2821) To call, invitation, appointed, vocation, a calling.

Thus we understand that “Parakletos” means “something called/appointed alongside us”

This is not quite what the bishop told us! Inasmuch he has put a spin on The Truth to further his own aims!

He is insinuating:-

1. This is a personage (“the one”).

This is not true!

Absolutely nowhere in The Bible does it tell us the holy spirit is a person!

The original Greek in most instances gives the holy spirit a neuter gender = “it”. In a few instances the gender can be read as neuter or male.

Sadly false translations, such as the NIV put a personage within the script where there is none! For which falsehood the translators will have to answer to Yahweh via Jesus upon their resurrection!

2. Our call is answered (“who answers our call”).

Two problems:

2.1 The Strong’s translation does not state that the holy spirit is at our beck and call (just because we claim to ‘believe’ in Jesus).

In fact The Bible’s message is perfectly clear, that only while you imitate Jesus, will Jesus dispense his Father’s holy spirit within a recipient! If you do nothing with it or falsify it then you shall be likened to the one talent steward!

2.2 The derivation of the compound word also involves “saint”/“apostle” within it. Thus linking with (2.1) then the person receiving the holy spirit must be “at one” with the holy spirit “being appointed”.

The question must be: “appointed” to do what?

The answer is “to accurately teach The Word of God to others”.

Thus there is a logical flow:

Yahweh is the originator of the holy spirit (being “His Desire made manifest”).

Jesus becomes the dispenser of “Yahweh’s Desire made manifest” within the recipient – according to their abilities (as Jesus’ parable of the 5, 2, 1 stewards clearly tell us).

The holy spirit being “Yahweh’s Desire made manifest” operates “alongside within those appointed to accurately tell” The World (both by words and works) of Yahweh’s Word.

Thus this fulfils Yahweh’s Desire, inasmuch Yahweh will provide the “comfort, consoler” through His “advocate, intercessor” as He bolsters/supports His faithful representatives fulfilling His Desire as it is made manifest within The World (while the apostle is imitating Jesus – to close the virtuous loop).

This is not the spin that the bishop falsely portrayed in his speech!

Thus the bishop is not being faithful to Yahweh’s Desire in accurately representing Yahweh’s Desire!

Thus what can we reason upon this sobering conclusion:-

Those who do not accurately imitate Jesus are charlatans to Yahweh’s Word and are not appointed by Yahweh “to tell”, however they are appointed by themselves and those of The World to mislead The World, by telling The World what The World desires to hear, to please their ears and present lifestyle!

They shall be ‘made to account’ in “The Reckoning” for their ‘crimes to Yahweh’s Word’ upon their resurrection, when they weep and gnash their teeth upon the realisation that they had The Truth within their hands to become a Son of God, and they just threw it away during the 1st part of their life!

And for that, we give thanks.

And so what is the subject “we” become able to give thanks about – if the crux of the message does not form the basis of Yahweh’s Desire.

So where does this supposed ‘answer’ believed to be coming from?

I believe it is pure imagination, being some form of self-indoctrination – ‘believing what they want to believe’ (for self-indulgence to titivate their senses towards worldly aspirations) and just utterly ignore the inner depths of The Bible being The Foundation Bedrock of Yahweh’s Word!

“Who” is endorsing “who” in what ‘they’ do?

I am completely perplexed at the Bishop’s statement!

It is utterly mind-blowing that anyone can speak so impiously!

Where are the credentials? What can justify this statement of mere vanity?

In fact I can find no example anywhere in The Bible of a statement like this – perhaps the Bishop can find one in context and email me with a reference!

Perhaps it was because the apostles exuded ‘Principled Love’ to edify their neighbour, demonstrated ‘Grace’ by offering their lives to the full time accurate service of their Master Yahweh, and ‘Healed the sick’ both mentally and physically through their Authority and Command by demonstrating ‘The Fruits of the Holy Spirit’, so that they might not need to use such speech, only because their actions spoke more loudly than their words!

Song: There is a Redeemer (Soloist - Carol Oliver)

In what was stated above – who/what is “The Redeemer” – immediately instant confusion!

I know who my redeemer is – because The Bible tells me it is Jesus Christ.

But nowhere in The Bible does it tell me that the holy spirit is my redeemer!

So why run the song “There is a redeemer” immediately after giving unjustifiable credit to the holy spirit ‘answering our calls’?

Immediate confusion!

Again it is only because of the worldly Trinity myth that creates this confusion to the glory of Satan in his present worldly system where we witness pain, suffering and the mass confusion because everyone is ‘doing their own thing’ and ignoring specifically what The Bible teaches us!

Being what The Bible tells us about:-

Yahweh.

Jesus

The Holy Spirit

Please read this website (short cut by going to the Glossary) to understand precisely what these specific Names and assignments mean – as stated in The Bible (given in the original language rather than distorted through the NIV worldly interpretation).

Deborah Allen:

Let us pray

Lord, we come to you this morning with thankful hearts as we remember Palm Sunday.

A fairly good start – I would prefer it if there was more emphasis at the more important latter end of the week!

We pray for the Church,

Actually in The Bible the word “Church” does not exist, but rather the word ‘ekklesia’ Strong’s = 1577 meaning “Calling Out” being precisely something initiated by John The Baptist, magnified by Jesus, imitated by the apostles and the remaining humans to make up the total 144000 taken out of The Gospel Age.

What are they calling out?

The same thing that Jesus called out during his ministry!

Being that there shall be The Millennium, where Jesus is in control, where Satan has been removed and that Jesus is looking for 144000 administrators to help him. However they must prove themselves as faithful stewards now during the 1st part of their life, so that they might be resurrected to righteously become his “Bride of Christ”. And further by demonstration Jesus will have the power to constrain demons (chain Satan), repair our faulty DNA by making the lame walk, blind see, deaf hear and the dumb speak.

This is the “Calling out” that those imitating Jesus should be performing.

So now we know what ‘the church should be doing’ – the question is – “Is it?”

And the answer is: “No it is not imitating Jesus, both in works and words.”

The lack of evidence is only too painfully obvious!

Now Yahweh’s Desire is that we imitate Jesus, and “The Church” being worldly, as a whole is not!

So the logical question is:

Will Yahweh be listening to this prayer – if the subjects of it ignore what Yahweh Desires?

Being what Yahweh tells us in His Word = The Bible!

The obvious answer is that He will ignore them – just as The Bible clearly tells us in so many places!

that Christians everywhere may live in unity and strength.

Replace the word “Christian” with some nationalistic organisation and the same words could be said!

So what is the point of these words?

Because the crux of the point I am making, is specifically:

Where is their focus, what should they be doing?

But sadly they are drawn to the self-indulgences of The World and thus not blind to the inducements that it has to offer, so that worship (= where you spend your time and effort) is not directed to Yahweh (by daily reading of The Bible and doing what it advises) but rather directed to the ‘1001’ things that The World has to offer instead!

We pray for wisdom

We will find this next section quoted full of nice “sound-bites” to tickle/bend/strain the ears of the listener.

Godly wisdom or worldly wisdom? The Bible is very clear about this all through it!

Which again as I explain elsewhere must be driven by ‘the spirit’ = ‘the personality’ = ‘the synapse construction’ of the individual desiring to imitate Jesus, being ‘the exemplar’ as “The Wisdom of God”, inasmuch he knew Yahweh’s Desire and as “The Faithful Witness” perfectly/completely practiced it in his lifestyle.

Else the claim could be made by Satan (as he did of Job), they are only like that because You (Yahweh) make it easy for them! Thus we must demonstrate Godly wisdom by driving our lifestyle likewise ourselves!

and courage to live by faith,

If this phrase is analysed, then it does not make scriptural sense!

“Courage” actually comes from having accurate, dependable knowledge, so that you might safely put yourself forward in a situation that others without the accurate knowledge would find dangerous.

So let us put this together.

Yahweh does not want suicidal stewards. But He does desire them to put themselves forward imitating Jesus’ lifestyle where others might find this dangerous to their ‘health’ (being what they want from their life). Thus the faithful stewards are those humans who demonstrate “the strength of their knowledge” in their lifestyle by accurately imitating Jesus with fidelity and assurance (being the other key words associated with “faith”).

So why does this phrase given by the bishop not make scriptural sense?

Because we do not live by ‘faith’, but rather it is The Fidelity/Assurance/Faith based upon accurate knowledge that then delivers a life displaying courage against the opposition that this world might throw at you while you imitate Jesus’ standard.

It is a subtle but very important difference between the two.

secure in the knowledge that Christ died and rose again,

A correct statement, but that just means that now we have that information and claim to be Christians, but importantly, then we become hypocrites to The Fidelity, if we then do not imitate Jesus – BECAUSE of this most wonderful action.

conquering death that we might have life.

Yes and no!

Why – Yes and No?

Because of the confusion that this phrase creates.

Let us step through this word by word.

1. “Conquering Death”.

Because Jesus was perfect at the point of his execution – then he had by right (according to Yahweh’s decree on Sin leading to Death) to live, and not die. Thus Jesus had to rise again under Yahweh’s Universal Decree – “for Death could not hold him”. But because he was baptised and thus now living driven by his knowledge to fully fulfil Yahweh Desire for his place (as ruling King) in The Millennium then at death he would thus not “awaken/roused” in a fleshly DNA body (because this was cast off at baptism), but rather a heavenly/celestial/spiritual body as “the specific god” of us. Thus as he was the perfect High Priest, he did not require a sacrifice on his part, but rather he became the exact ‘like for like’ sacrifice to give everlasting life for all those who desire to imitate him during ‘their life’ (now of 2 parts). For the vast majority of us that will be when we are resurrected into The Millennium and thus given the opportunity to imitate him forever. Because we imitate him then we are justified by Yahweh to live forever – because of Jesus’ sacrifice!

In that manner we too are placed in the same position that he was - inasmuch the 1st Death becomes just “asleep”, and thus we have conquered the 1st Death (only because of Jesus’ Grace).

However more importantly, while Jesus has balanced the decision made on our behalf by Adam and Eve (= The 1st Death), it becomes very much an individual’s responsibility where they might succumb to The 2nd Death of annihilation.

All of which leads me onto the next part of the quoted phrase.

2. “that we might have life”.

The key word in that phrase is “might”, but perhaps a better word would be “may”.

Why?

Because it is conditional, based purely on whether we choose to imitate Jesus during the 2nd part of our life after our “awakening” into The Millennium where society is now fully functioning under Jesus most righteous rule. If under this system of things we still hanker after selfishness to edify ‘the self’ over one’s neighbours – then quite simply that person shall pass into The 2nd Death of utter annihilation.

Thus this complete phrase becomes “Yes and No” because the final outcome to “life” is very much a personal decision.

May we follow his example,

What a terrible request!

Why?

Because it infers that we are asking Yahweh to ‘stop impeding us’ from imitating Jesus.

Far from it!

Yahweh intensely Desires us to imitate Jesus, but what is stopping us?

It is our own desire to love The World and its inducements! For we are told that Jesus becomes “a stumbling stone” for us (of the congregation), but yet crushes those worldly Christian leaders, who shall be judged against what Jesus did!

Thus I find the implication of this statement abhorrent!

as he showed compassion for all around him,

A most correct statement!

But more correct than most people realise – based upon the very worldly Christian Trinity Doctrine of confusion (that can trace its origins back to Babel – a semi-cryptic comment).

Why it is more correct (than originally implied), is that Jesus forsook his place of absolute security of an eternal existence in a heavenly/celestial/spiritual body, and as The Creator loving his creation (“who so loved the world”) that he (Jesus) entered a corruptible fleshly body destined to everlasting death, unless Jesus proved himself utterly faithful to his Father’s (Yahweh) Desire of him.

This was an enormous commitment of risk on Jesus’ part, but Yahweh was reliant upon His son’s desire to perfectly fulfil Yahweh Desire to extract Jesus’ creation out from The Curse of Satan’s Death sentence – the crux being - for those humans who desire to ultimately imitate Jesus (that may be either during the 1st part of their life to imitate Jesus and thus be awakened like him in a heavenly body at the 1st 2nd C [see Glossary], or during the 2nd part of their life to be like Adam and Eve were before they sinned).

even when he knew the pain that lay ahead.

More correct than what Deborah possibly realises (being long before he entered a fleshly DNA body)!

Guide us in our ministries as we serve our communities,

“Guidance” - in what manner?

Please see Acts.6v1-4 on what “apostles” should be doing!

They imitated Jesus – see what Jesus said of his ministry: Mark.1v38

And a rhetorical question: I wonder what Deborah means of “ministry” serving our communities?

I am not trying to be facetious, but is Yahweh’s Desire to feed the flesh or to feed the mind?

What is going to be continued over into The Millennium?

Is it our fleshly bodies that rot away to nothing useful?

Or is it our personality that is to be stored as heavenly treasure and programmed into another body?

Which is precisely the reason for the two quotes above, and for this website www.FutureLife.Org being created.

that through the power of your Spirit,

Yes it is Yahweh’s holy spirit “that makes the seed grow” after the apostles have planted and watered the seed.

This being The Accurate Knowledge for the synapse construction, rather than material things for the body.

we would bring hope and relief.

Sadly what Deborah and those with her will only bring is transient relief, but what Yahweh Desires is permanent relief given by having accurate knowledge to feed the synapse construction. Because sadly at The End Times, being the period at the end of The Gospel Age (being the end of Satan’s inept management style) there are very few people giving the accurate knowledge of Yahweh’s Master Plan to guide peoples’ minds to The Goal being The Target for each one of us.

But Satan much desires us to concentrate on ‘the corruptible body’, rather than concentrate on the knowledge within the mind. For as we know: “The body follows the mind”, and if the mind is lost then the body is lost also!

We pray for all across the world who suffer

That is why I am using all my time in developing this website www.FutureLife.Org – to give this accurate knowledge to The World so that we all will come to The Knowledge of Yahweh’s most expedient Plan.

It distresses me intensely to see virtually all The World rudderless, like people wandering around in a darkened coalmine – just blindly bumping into each other (to their neighbour’s hurt) and into the walls (to their own hurt) – not seeing any way out of their darkness– it pains me so greatly.

Thus again we must ask – what are we personally doing about this?

Are we pushing the responsibility onto Yahweh to do something?

Or rather doing what The Bible tells us, that He is choosing/electing His Stewards who know The Information (to imitate His son) for them to be the 5 or 2 or 1 talent man – with all its ramifications upon us as individuals – as given by Jesus’ parable.

Are we praying that someone else should be doing something?

Or are we praying for Yahweh to ‘engineer the environment’ around us, to make us personally more effective in imitating Jesus (please see Acts for numerous examples of this).

This is the real question for ourselves about – ‘for what we should be praying’!

and for those who care for them.

The main question must be:

What are “those” doing to be the ones “who care for them”?

Is it fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire to accurately preach/teach Yahweh’s Acceptable Year?

Being only what Jesus said “this is what his ministry was” – to bring the access of this knowledge to all humans!

Please read elsewhere on this website what “poor, mourn, prisoner, hungry, blind, etc” really mean – for these terms are metaphoric rather than physical. I explain all these terms within the appropriate verses in Matt.6 in the NT Translation section located on this website.

For the sick; for those who mourn;

The Bible does not mean physically sick, but rather presently ‘spiritually lost’ within Satan’s worldly system.

The Bible does not mean mourning just over a personal things, but rather those distraught over the fact that Satan is presently ruling with all the global pain and anguish upon those who we do not personally know!

Which is precisely why we are commanded to go out into The World to tell everyone about Yahweh’s Acceptable Year where Satan will be completely removed – so that there is no more pain and suffering nor the infirmities that we presently witness around The World today. Just as Jesus showed “the nearness of” by application during his ministry period within his locality (of Israel).

Prophetically everything jumps up by ‘one step’ in The Millennium – but this is fully explained elsewhere.

for those without faith, hope or love;

There are considerably more people “without faith” than Deborah presently understands (but it does not make them intentionally evil or wicked – but purely mislead during this worldly system under Satan’s rule)! However, this problem is pandemic throughout The Christian Nation as a whole – particularly higher up in the strata of the worldly Christian bastions of power.

Those humans at the base of these worldly Christian Edifices have no hope (being No Expectation of The Millennium), nor Principled Love to their fellow neighbour for the principal reason they are not putting themselves out to imitate Jesus!

And it ripples all the way back to the top, because they are not instructed to imitate Jesus by those at the top who claim ‘to know’, ‘to understand’ and further ‘to represent’ Yahweh’s Interests here on earth!

Reminds me of the Scribes and Pharisees! - And precisely what Jesus said about them!

What the reader must realise within this present worldly system (the same then as now – having the same ruler Satan over both eras), is that statistically the same ratio of good to bad religious leaders existed then that exist now – because The Source of the material is The Same – being Yahweh in both instances, and the same present ruler of this worldly system Satan being the same then and now. The Pharisees did not represent The Word of God being The Torah (through the prophets) correctly during their day, and neither do the worldly Christian Leaders of today represent The Word of God being The Old and NEW Testament (through Jesus).

But please understand, that to their audience The Pharisees would have been saying all the nice things then, that the worldly Christian Leaders presently say to their congregations today. There is no difference – they are in that position to edify their own needs over the congregation – and that was “the hypocrisy” that Jesus spoke of.

we pray that Christ may speak into their lives!

We should most certainly not be praying for this – nowhere in The Bible does it instruct us to pray like this!

Thus this phraseology becomes a worldly excuse to advocate personal responsibility!

What The Bible instructs us to do is that we must listen for the knocking at the door by Jesus, being a metaphorical description of a True Christian who is working by imitating Jesus’ ministry. Thus this True Christian has the “Presence” of Jesus working within them, because they are going out to imitate Jesus. That person will find Jesus speaking to them if they open the door to invite Jesus into their life by having supper with him (= imitating him by “consuming the same food” = “work fulfilled in your life”), and thus imitating the True Christian who originally brought them The Gospel Message – just as Paul said: “Imitate me as I imitate Jesus.”

Thus given the correct Bible understanding, we can see that these quoted words are merely nice-sounding weasel words designed to make people become complacent to Yahweh’s Desire of them – which precisely fulfils Satan’s desire (to oppose/resist Yahweh) that we do become apathetic to Yahweh’s Desire.

Lord,

Which Lord?

The “lord” as “the specific god” of us = Jesus.

OR

The “Lord” as The Almighty God of the Universe, in and outside it = Yahweh

However all this knowledge is lost in the confusion of the worldly myth called The Trinity!

The crux being the next part of the prayer – being the confusion of “Who” is this prayer directed towards?

we thank you for your unconditional love,

Applicable to both Entities.

for your sacrifice,

Directed to Jesus as our immediate Creator, Intercessor and direct Ruler (if we so choose it).

for the strength you give us,

The strength of what? And “Who”?

I assume it means the example of Jesus’ strength of determination to succeed in fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire.

However the phrase has lost the whole point – because it is lacking in knowledge!

“The Strength” ultimately comes from knowing Yahweh’s Desire intimately. This is what Jesus had, and what William Tyndale had, and what other Apostles had to keep them going till their murder by the prevailing religious Authorities!

Thus “The Strength” actually comes from Yahweh because it is He that is The Source of all knowledge.

Jesus had “The Strength” because he was “The Faithful Witness” to his Father. And likewise The True Christian (= “The Trusted Steward”) becomes The Witness of Jesus’ personality operating within them – because they imitate Jesus.

Thus they have “The Strength” to remain faithful to death, by Yahweh’s knowledge instructing them, and they proved their Fidelity displayed as The Wisdom of Yahweh expressed in their lifestyle.

Hopefully I have been able to untangle the quoted phrase.

which reminds us daily that in the midst of adversity

That nothing seems to be getting any better – except “‘The Train’ is running off the rails” – as we clearly witness the results of where our present leaders are taking this planet – under the inept management style of Satan!

- there is hope.

Of what?

Are we going to be told – being that it is the specific requirement of “The Ministry” - or is it going to hang there in mid-air, to leave us guessing and putting whatever we like in ourselves (based upon the limited knowledge – because it is never taught) to the terminology?

Please read this website www.FutureLife.Org to find out specifically what “The Expectation” is to be in the very near future!

Lord, we ask that you hear our prayer this morning.

Based upon past performance Yahweh has shut His ears to it!

ALL: AMEN

Just a complicit ‘Amen’ without realising the full implications of what has been said on their behalf!

Jennifer Willis:

In a place like Winson Green, it can be difficult to engage (with) a community

Perhaps less so – if “The Community” (and larger – The World) was given “The Knowledge” of “The Absolute Truth” through those who claim to represent Yahweh’s Interests here upon this planet. But sadly because it is clearly not done, being shrouded in “mystery” so that everything is confused, “The trumpet call sounds indistinct” then people will not engage with something that is deemed not relevant to their life!

so taken up with the cares of life.

Because ‘the transient truth’ of The World seems more relevant than “The Absolute Truth” of Yahweh, solely because ‘no one’ imitates Jesus’ ministry today to preach of Yahweh’s Acceptable Year – which precisely suits Satan’s desire.

So sometimes we take our activities outside,

Would these activities be based upon what The Bible instructs us to specifically do?

I doubt it – from The Fruitage of The Evidence!

with tents and food and music.

Does this really come from The New Testament – where we are told to imitate Jesus?

I suggest Jennifer read The Bible to find out the answer to that question!

In this way we make our presence visible,

Imitating Jesus?

Thus demonstrating “The Presence” of Jesus operating within us?

and time and again, local people join in with our rejoicing,

Of What?

Is this a play to the worldly senses – for worldly self-indulgence – being ultimately vanity (Eccl.)?

So what is the result of people joining in and rejoicing?

Is it the result that Yahweh Desires of those “who come in and rejoice”?

Does the knowledge imparted make them behave like Paul – the apostle?

If it does not then quite frankly, you are wasting your time! – Because Yahweh’s Desire for The Gospel Age is to draw out, to elect, to choose His ‘sons of God’ for The Millennium to teach The Resurrected World righteousness – and Paul told us at 2Tim.4v7-8 that he had ‘made the grade’ of imitating Jesus.

Because the question must be asked:

What makes your activities in getting “people to rejoice” because of some wonderful news of what ‘a special man’ has done?

For surely this is equally applicable to Sikhs, Moslems, Buddhists, etc., but none of these people have any opportunity (as they presently stand) to be resurrected as a “Son of Yahweh” to be equalled to Jesus as “the specific god” of us.

For Satan passionately does not want that 144000 number to be reached – else he immediately becomes restrained! Thus he will ‘use every trick in the book’ to stop people from imitating Jesus!

Can the reader see the obvious logical conclusion?

It is precisely what we witness operating here upon this Earth!

just as they did when Jesus made his way to Jerusalem.

A couple of interesting comments should be aired here.

1. The people (being friends, relations and many others) were those who accepted Jesus as their Messiah (by demonstrating their 'belief' through 'works' – just as the Epistles of James and John tell us), and certainly worthy of the title because “No fault could be found in him” and thus a worthy leader of them.
2. However could this be said of those who came in response to Jennifer's call to rejoice?

And a supplementary question:

These times when Jennifer went out, was it during this time of year – or other times?

And if it were at other times, was 'the rejoicing' ascribed to this event “of Jesus making his way to Jerusalem” as Jennifer infers or to some other event, occasion or 'practice' put out during this Jamboree?

She must be accurate and specific – else what is stated can be dismissed as being illusory!

Reading: Matt. 21:1-11 New Century Version

Another pretty useless version for detailed and accurate knowledge!

Hymn: Rejoice, the Lord is King

Jennifer Willis:

We're pleased to have as our preacher this morning someone who's no stranger to us, because although he works nationally, he's a member of our Pastoral Team here at Aberdeen Street. So we welcome the Chair of the Council of Black-led Churches, Bishop Dr Joe Aldred.

I would like to expect from these given credentials that he might be a shining example of Jesus.

Shall we see how 'accurate' his sermon is to what The Bible specifically teaches us?

Sermon

Bishop Joe: I speak to you in the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I would like to think so – but so many people start off like this, but only too soon they wander from “The Absolute Truth” as The Epistles constantly warn us. However you need to know your Bible very well to discern when 'the wandering' starts!

So he claims to “speak in the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit” which is just so easy to claim, but does he also “speak in the Character and Authority of God, Son and Holy Spirit”?

We shall see from The Fruitage of his sermon (being 'The Tool' that Jesus gave us to discern The Truth).

According to the Old Testament prophet Habakkuk, the role of the preacher is to make God's message so clear and compelling, that the hearer understands and responds with a sense of urgency.

A very good start!

As in all churches,

A bold statement!

Preaching

Is it what Yahweh Desires to hear, or what the present god of this world Satan desires to hear?

happens here at Aberdeen Street most times we meet,

Good if it is 'The Message' being The Good News taught to others, that Yahweh Desires to hear!

but one significant difference is that sermons here tend to last between half and one hour.

Doesn't need to be too long if all the important points are covered correctly.

And that instruction is given to perform much background reading of The Bible while 'off-site'.

You'll understand therefore my challenge to preach for just a few minutes,

I shall give mine as a two part and in total about the same number of words as you and your colleague have given - and then let the reader decide which one has the most information, but more importantly which is more accurate to The Bible and Yahweh's Plan, specifically for this 'time of year'!

exploring prayer in the Charismatic tradition,

I am starting to worry here, based upon what I have been to and heard by other witnesses to what goes on at these assemblies!

which is our designated theme this morning; and an appropriate one, given the exuberant praises associated with Palm Sunday.

Perhaps he has just wasted some 19 words at this point in time “in only his few minutes”!

And I come with a sense of joy and thankfulness, because,

Another 11 wasted words – only given to ‘please the ear’ – reminds me of a worldly Politician speaking to engage the audience onto their side – to draw them into what will be ultimately something of no significance!

prayer is so vital

Four valuable words – the first grouping of significance so far!

for those of us who believe that the universe has a Designer,

“The” Designer being Yahweh!

a Creator,

“The” Creator being Yahweh!

a Sustainer;

“The” Sustainer being Yahweh!

we feel a basic need to communicate

How?

Is it through the following:-

Give out much noise through singing words (saying the most wonderful things about ‘an entity’), saying and doing the most ‘wonderful’ things to each other in the congregation – and expecting in return ‘wonderful’ things back from this deity – just because of these things done?

Is this what Yahweh Desires?

Shall I paraphrase The Bible back (just some appropriate things that I recall at the time of writing)?

You believe in “The Specific God”? – You do well, but also do The Demons and they shake/quiver!

Do not tempt The Lord thy God in what you do.

You return good for good? So do the sinners – but rather return good for evil.

Imitate me as I imitate Jesus – said Paul. He went through shipwrecks, stoned, persecution, etc Beating my body to go just that mile further to spread The Word to the next village.

Where we are to be blind to The World (self-indulgence of whatever entertainment consuming time).

I cover the subject of ‘speaking in tongues’ elsewhere.

Or is it by imitating Jesus so that ‘Yahweh responds positively, knowing that before we ask’ to assist our brother (in context). That by prayer we are asking for assistance to further His Desire in our lives. So that we might find a new person to whom we might speak of Yahweh’s Acceptable Year, being of The Millennium, to become that ‘angel’ (messenger) with ‘The Presence of Jesus Christ’ knocking on the door to someone new.

Which “communication” would Yahweh really Desire, that would initiate the two-way dialogue?

with the deity who is responsible for it all.

“with the deity responsible for it all” is an interesting phrase.

Assuming “responsible for it all” means The Universe – then The Deity is Yahweh.

If assuming “responsible for it all” means The World – then the deity is Christ Jesus as “the specific god” of us, being our creator, redeemer, intercessor to Yahweh and finally to become our ruling King.

If assuming “responsible for it all” means the crisis we have at present – then the deity is Satan, being the pretender, being the prince of this present worldly system, “the spirit of the air”, soon to be restrained when Christ Jesus returns to exercise Yahweh’s holy spirit of power to rightfully usurp Satan’s present strangle hold over The World.

Why must I spell it out like this?

Because worldly Christian leaders do not make it clear because they are very much ‘in the dark’ themselves!

As they seem proud to boast about – ‘it being a mystery to them’!

An understanding of prayer,

We look to Bible examples to see how prayer is to be used - to then we have “an understanding of prayer”.

Please read my essay on “Why do we pray” where I explain all this in great detail.

as constantly communicating with God,

Please read my essay on “Why do we pray” where I explain all this in great detail.

is summed up in this short poem:

To walk with God,

I would be interested if The Bishop would precisely explain what “Walking with God” really means!

I doubt if he will – it is a common theme today for worldly Christian leaders to leave everything ‘in the nebulous’ having no definition – so that any person can give their own definition to it! Thus there now becomes zero personal accountability on one’s actions – because no one actually reads The Bible to find out what “Walking with God” really means! We are told in The Bible that only a very few people “walk with God”. The first person we are told was Enoch, Moses was “A friend of God”, Jesus was/is The Beloved Son of God.

no strength is lost, walk on

What does The Bishop mean?

Jesus was at times exhausted and had no strength remaining.

Paul was exhausted and when he felt weak he knew he was strong.

So does the bishop mean that provided we are fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire where we become exhausted and have no physical/mental strength remaining to presently continue in Yahweh’s Service, then actually this has become the refining fire where heavenly treasure, being our retained synapse construction has been moulded to become more like Jesus’, inasmuch we put Yahweh’s Interests before our own self-seeking pleasure?

If this is what the bishop means – then I would agree with him, else what he states is worthless, and merely rhetoric to just ‘please/bend/tickle/incline’ the ears of the listeners (Bible quotation)!

However is what I have stated ever spoken of as instruction within a sermon – let us see if this is explained later.

To talk with God, no breath is lost, talk on

What does The Bishop mean?

Perhaps I had better explain it to the reader.

The Bible tells us that Yahweh God knows our innermost thoughts/feelings, and as such I reason together with many other compiled quotations taken in context within The Bible, means that He is in some manner able to read our very synapse construction and effectively monitor the firing of our synapse connections on a continuous basis.

Then with ‘communicating with inarticulate groanings the spirit takes over’, means that we are able to communicate to Yahweh by thought alone, and not through physical words generated by the larynx requiring air to be used and thus “no breath is lost” when this occurs.

However I think the bishop is being poetic and sadly debasing Yahweh’s power.

Because I assume, the bishop means we can say things ‘out loud’ and because ‘Yahweh is listening’(?), He will thus respond and consequently “no breath is lost”.

I would like the reader to recall an earlier comment I wrote about “tempting The Lord thy God”. Because without explanation this “talking to God” could take on many inferences by the listener – and it does! Because I often hear people make ‘demands’ of God and then receive no reply (with all the usual explanations why Yahweh might not reply which I will not go into here).

My point goes right back to the very beginning of this piece and the whole point of this website.

Yahweh is only going to listen and then positively respond to those humans who actively imitate Jesus in their lifestyle.

Because quite simply He will utterly ignore those humans who do not, or, who show no potential to imitate Jesus during The Gospel Age of the present era. Paraphrasing The Bible: ‘He will not work with a two minded person’ (James.1v6-8),

The Bible clearly tells us that Yahweh is ‘drawing out, electing, choosing’ ‘The Trusted Stewards’ to become ‘responsible over greater things’, being ‘5 or 10 cities’ in ‘The Millennium’. These ones are ‘The (green and lush) Branches on The Vine’ ‘pruned (= bilateral communication) by The Vinedresser’ (Yahweh), whose ‘root stock is Jesus Christ’. It is these ones (of ‘1444000 in number’) who will bring on The Grapes (humans as ‘the children’ of ‘the special marriage’ between ‘Jesus and his Bride’) during The Millennium. Those two sentences run on at least 12 quotes from The Bible put together in context.

But we should ask of ourselves:-

When has the reader last heard this explained by their worldly Christian Leader?

Because this is The Real Plan of Yahweh – being The Gospel = The Good News and no one is explaining it!

To wait on God, no time is lost, wait on.

Interesting comment – because this may be stated, but very rarely practiced – by those who preach it!

What do I mean?

We are told in The Bible that we are to be patient (just as Jesus is patiently awaiting his Father to give him The Authority to use his Father’s holy spirit to remove Satan’s rule) regarding the termination of this present worldly system operating under Satan’s inept management style.

That means we must “not meddle in other peoples affairs” (= the best definition of “politics” that I know) as Paul clearly tells us, but rather that we concentrate on imitating Jesus’ ministry so that we are only (and publicly known for only being) persecuted for imitating Jesus. We are not to be persecuted or be known for ‘meddling in politics’. And to further paraphrase what The Bible tells us: ‘For Yahweh has allowed those in power to be there and it is not our responsibility to remove them or make their life difficult’. Allow other people who are not imitating Jesus to do that!

Thus allow these ones to operate within the power of ‘the spirit of the air’ (Satan) while ‘we’ (The Apostles) operate outside this with the holy spirit (from Yahweh dispensed by Jesus) operating within ‘us’.

Now what has this got to do with what The Bishop has just said?

I added this as a guiding principal being a directive from The Bible on how we are to behave.

However we look around us and see many acclaimed worldly Christian leaders “meddling around in other peoples affairs (= politics), how they are not patiently waiting upon Jesus to remove worldly principalities, but rather do it themselves and thus become known and persecuted for worldly things rather than Godly things! But it is all ‘excused’ – because it is in the name of “a good cause” being ‘liberation theology’ and all that!

The question must be:-

What defines “a good cause” – because one man’s “good cause” is another man’s “evil cause”!

Thus we allow Yahweh to make that decision very clear to us in The Millennium (during The Restoration), but now as faithful stewards, we must ‘keep our heads down’ from the flack overhead between those humans operating within worldly politics and just imitate Jesus to solely concentrate on preaching about The Millennium, where all will be revealed!

Is this what the bishop is about to teach us – being what The Bible instructs us?

From their experience of the past five hundred years, Black Christians often sing; 'It's a hard road to travel,

It was particularly hard for those victims in The Black Slave Trade, and likewise in many other places in the world today where 100,000s of children are used in the sex trade to live in slums, degrading conditions, to be without parents and to die with AIDS for absolutely no fault of their own.

It is for all these reasons I wrote and shall continue to write this website www.FutureLife.Org – to give clear instruction to The World being The Clarity of Yahweh’s Most Righteous Plan that is steadily unfolding to rebalance, to readdress all these issues – because what we are presently doing in The World today is unsustainable and sadly this must be seen to be so before The Millennium is instituted by Yahweh through His son Christ Jesus.

and a mighty long way to go,

It was a long way to go then, but very soon within the next decade or so The Millennium will be installed by Christ Jesus. Sadly before this occurs, The Bible warns us that The World will enter a crisis situation that will be so bad for all humans that “men’s hearts will faint for fear” because there can be seen no way to escape from the implosion of mankind due to practiced selfishness upon fellow neighbour in raping the planet of its diminishing resources.

but Jesus the blessed Saviour will lead me all the way I know'.

To clarify some things in this statement.

Jesus has saved us from The Curse of Satan, by making what would have been The 1st Death of annihilation, to become merely “asleep”, so that it is The 2nd Death that becomes one of annihilation, and only when we have made an educated decision to either imitate Jesus or not when we have experienced the operation of The Two Societies, one under Satan’s inept rule of 6000 years and the other upon our resurrection of 1000 years being the 7th complete/perfect (Hebrew) where “Jesus is The Lord of the Sabbath”, being “the 7th day” where “a day is 1000 years” (2Pet.3v8) (being many more quotations from The Bible).

Jesus will only lead those who freely choose to imitate him. He will not lead humans ‘by the ear’ to force them to imitate his personality.

Jesus will only lead those humans “all the way” for an eternity provided they desire to imitate him and thus do not practice selfishness to their neighbour.

So, we walk on, in God's strength.

Provided we imitate Jesus – else it becomes a vain strength that does not come from God, and we only find out when it is too late in this 1st part of our life!

And when we run out of words to express our feelings, we believe that God understands even our groaning.

These in context are inarticulate groanings where physical words cannot be expressed – but our feelings are demonstrated by ‘the purity of our works’ within this Satanic world – driven by our mind-set communicating with Yahweh through Jesus having his presence within us – so that “we are one with each other” (to quote The Bible in context)!

Let me explain this understanding from another angle.

On occasions we just ‘dry-up’ with superlatives in our praise for Yahweh, but Yahweh can read the synapse operation of our mind (effectively is our mind in operation) and knows that our mind drives our righteous works of which The World can see.

Essentially Yahweh can see the integrity of our thoughts, where we internally groan at the state of the world around us, because of our Fidelity to Yahweh's Word, from The Assurance that The Knowledge of Yahweh gives us through Jesus' Presence operating within us.
This is what this section really means and is not where I feel this worldly representative might be taking us based upon past performance 'of utterances' of this type of 'grouping' that I have been witness.

So, we talk on,

Provided the object of it ultimately fulfils Yahweh's Desire of us on an individual level!

But in the sense that the bishop gives – it becomes likened to 'an incoherent ramble' perhaps as alluded to later!

in the breath of God.

This is quite a common expression used – obviously passed on from one group to another without perhaps much thought behind it.

So let us now give this some thought and then tie it in with the context used.

We are told that it is "The breath of God that gives life". We are told that "breath" is also used in the sense of "wind" thus moving 'to cause and affect/effect The Environment'.

Thus we are guided by The Bible to understand the terminology "The breath of God" to really mean Yahweh's holy spirit. Thus irrespective of what worldly Christian Leaders might falsely declare, I declare that The Bible distinctly tells us that "the holy spirit" is defined as "Yahweh's Expressed Desire fulfilled in Action" and nothing else!

The name "Yahweh" means: "I (make) become what I choose to become", and He does this by His holy spirit where His holy spirit is "a means" where "Yahweh's Cognitive Desire is made manifest".

That is ALL that The Bible is telling us when using this term and NOTHING else!

The other attributes mentioned elsewhere are merely derivatives of this all embracing given definition.

Now we have an understanding let us then apply this term in the context that the bishop has given to us.

What does it tell us?

And further now - what does The Bishop mean?

He has lost himself and his congregation in confusion!

Perhaps the only link that he might use (rather like pulling a rabbit out of a hat) is to suggest:-

'We' are talking through the holy spirit!

However, we only communicate with Yahweh through the holy spirit provided we are fulfilling Yahweh Desire (being the extension of the definition given earlier), else Yahweh will ignore us for the sole reason we are not fulfilling His Desire! And we are not fulfilling Yahweh's Desire if we are not imitating Jesus' ministry!

Can the reader see the virtuous loop when all this is operating correctly – but how it fails if any one element is missing?

We shall see if The Bishop addresses this later!

But what do we do when our walking and talking with God doesn't seem to result in the end of racism, poverty, oppression; but rather, in spite of all our efforts, those things seem to go on and on?

And we just have!

It would seem that he has answered his own question!

Clearly "we" are not walking with God – and thus Yahweh has ignored 'us'!

Just like Yahweh does with all those international "Days of Prayer" of various topics, for instance "Peace".

He knows these individuals have absolutely no intention with 'walking, talking to God', because when Yahweh has given them the instruction Manual = The Bible, then people ignore it and do not read it daily!

So how 'on Earth' are they going to know what Yahweh Desires of them?

Especially when those who claim they do, being the very self-claimed representatives of Yahweh as we witness within this sermon, as an example 'screw everything up' to sow in utter confusion!

I find the whole thing full of extremes, farcical, pompous, self-indulgent, proud, stiff-necked, impropriety – being just pure self-vanity for all the participants involved.

But Yahweh is saying to them all – 'OK! - I will let you have your day now running on your worldly wisdom, but face the consequences of your self infliction where you imitate your present god – Satan!'

Basically there is no humility within the worldly leadership and the lower levels of mankind!

That is why we need The Millennium to bring in The Restoration as The Bible so clearly tells us!

And this is precisely why Satan does not want this real Good News (= The Gospel) publicised!

We lean on our understanding

Precisely so! – "OUR understanding" perhaps a look at Prov.3v5-8 might be beneficial in answer to this pandemic problem!

that the God of eternity is on our side;

I doubt it – based upon The Evidence that we see in The World today within and without religious circles!
I am certain that the religious authorities said exactly the same thing when they forced through the judgement on Jesus to crucify him!

I am certain that the religious authorities said exactly the same thing when they tried to lynch Paul and the Roman Guard had to come to his rescue!

I am certain that the religious authorities said exactly the same thing when they garrotted and burnt William Tyndale at the stake some 500 years ago!

And that is exactly what Jesus said would happen in John.16v1-4 to all those who imitated him during The Gospel Age being the following 2000 years!

And then by specifically what the Bishop has just told us – Yahweh does not listen to ‘us’ today!

he waits with us.

Yes and No – but not in the sense that The Bishop has implied!

So I had better explain what really is occurring today!

The Bible specifically tells us Yahweh is waiting for three things:

1. To fulfil His decree in the Garden of Eden: “Humans are to fill the earth.”
2. Those that are born during the 6000 years are to experience what living is like under ‘the bad choice’ that Adam and Eve made on our behalf (being now - the 1st part of our lives)!
3. He is waiting for 144000 sons of God to demonstrate their credentials (not to Yahweh), but to the rest of the resurrected world that they really did imitate Jesus’ ministry and lifestyle. Thus they are worthy to be ‘sons of God’.

Item (2) is occurring during (1).

Items (1) and (3) have almost occurred – but not quite, that is why we must be patient and await the 1st 2nd C of Jesus to collect his future Bride (of 144000) and then train them (over 3.5 years) for their greater responsibility ready for The Millennium proper to start.

For there to be 144000 viable/demonstrable trusted stewards, then they must have the accurate information to work with, which is precisely why ‘we’ (as apostles) have been commanded to spread The Gospel (with Fidelity) to the whole world. More importantly to give all humans at the end of The Gospel Age knowledge of “The Expectation” being The Millennium to keep their sanity while The World implodes around them!

It is for these reasons I desperately keep adding more information to this website for The World to access.

So “That” explains Yahweh “waiting”.

However, Yahweh is not waiting “WITH” those who are not imitating Jesus’ ministry being to spread The Good News of The Millennium to all people.

And so, we wait on in the assurance that good will overcome evil;

Precisely my point – one of indifference by a worldly Christian Leader – because basically he does not understand “The Plot” being Yahweh’s Plan made crystal clear in The Bible – provided you read it with the intention of trying to understand it!

Thus the phrase as given by the bishop is a weak, but it is a safe phrase to use in a worldly sense.

However it is not accurate – for it implies “passivity”, which is the last thing that Yahweh Desires at the end of The Gospel Age, where all Jesus’ parables on this subject actually involve work and not sitting back!

The workers, we are told, were paid for their work.

The equal payment as we read in The parable of workers in The Vineyard, is the same payment for different periods of work during the 1st part of their life, being Sonship to Yahweh in the 2nd part of their life.

However Satan desires humans to be passive, for he does not want Yahweh to achieve his 144000 humans before The World implodes – for it spoils/frustrates/opposes Yahweh’s Desire to give a method of salvation to those who are not in the position to fully ‘believe in Jesus’ during the 1st part of their life – hence the resurrection and training of righteousness in the 2nd part of their life!

Can the reader understand the full logic behind what they see from The Evidence in The World today?

and we say in the words of that old spiritual, 'we shall overcome'.

Again, does the Bishop know precisely about what he is speaking “we shall overcome”?

Perhaps I should explain.

We cannot overcome – “The Curse of Satan” being the 1st Death - by ourselves!

It was only by Jesus’ Ransom Sacrifice (for which nothing that we do can pay for this most wonderful gift) that enabled Yahweh to righteously use His holy spirit to resurrect us into The Millennium. The “Grace” from two Sources enables Yahweh not to contravene His Word regarding His Edict on sin.

Now Jesus has released us from the decision made for us by Adam and Eve, then the decision of The 2nd Death now lies upon our shoulders – it becomes a personal decision.

However in Yahweh's Righteousness and Jesus' Principled Love for his personal Creation (us), They both shall remove Satan's influences to give us a flying start to get our lives perfected in a most righteously operating society under Christ Jesus' rule operating within The Millennium.

If we choose then to imitate Jesus – Yes! Then we shall overcome and live for the duration of time that we imitate Jesus!

Clearly if we individually imitate Jesus for an eternity, then we shall live for an eternity, else we shall be individually annihilated.

Clearly we can and will make errors (which in its own right is not an iniquitous sin – for we are to forgive our brother 7x70 for unintentional hurt) – but the intent (being the “premeditation”) must not be there to debase/injure your neighbour – because that then becomes “The Sin” punishable by annihilation. It is as simple and logical as that statement!

It is this sense of hope

That luke-warm word “hope” – it is just so insipid!

The Bible speaks of The Expectation based upon The Certainty of Proven Knowledge.

This can only come from the detailed work of studying The Bible and seeing how all the wonderful prophecies, allegories of people/events/times/places are fulfilled to give the most wonderful articulated plan of breath-taking logic - something that no human or group of humans could connive to create – that gives me The Confidence and The Authority to write as I do!

that inspires our prayers

That is precisely what worries me in ‘the charismatic prayers’!

Being - The Content!

in the Charismatic and Pentecostal tradition to which this church belongs

It is just ‘that tradition’ which does worry me – based upon my experience and reasoning on what I witness! And I am not alone!

- a hope strengthened by the immediacy of our experience of God's presence through his Spirit.

I repeat:-

It is just ‘that tradition’ which does worry me – based upon my experience!

Also based upon specifically what The Bible tells me and what I logically discern when I deeply reason upon Yahweh's Word.

I feel more explanation will be forthcoming – but please read elsewhere on this website for more understanding on this subject!

Two thousand years ago, a small group of frightened followers of Jesus met, after his crucifixion and resurrection.

Yes and No!

Again it depends upon ‘of what time’ the Bishop is speaking?

Yes immediately after Jesus' resurrection.

But I suggest reading the end of Mathew, Luke, John and beginning of Acts before Jesus physically left them and we see that they were NOT frightened, but rather the very opposite – being ecstatic!

So rather - the disciples were fired up and ready to go!

However as commanded by Jesus they were to wait in Jerusalem for a physical demonstration that they were to start their preaching work – being the publicising of Yahweh's Acceptable Year!

Thus recapping, they were waiting with Expectation for Yahweh to demonstrate that He was working with them through The Presence of Jesus as “the specific god” of us, which is specifically why Jesus had to leave this earth so that he might dispense Yahweh's holy spirit in those humans (during The Gospel Age) of whom he ‘liked the look-of’ to become his future Bride. However we are told that Jesus does not make the final decision, but rather his Father Yahweh being The Entity Who decides which human is on-par with Jesus during the 1st part of their life, and is thus worthy to become a son of Yahweh.

Again can the reader see the superlative logic behind all this?

But none of this is explained by worldly Christian Leaders in their sermons - as we clearly witness!

But if they were faithful stewards – then they are instructed to explain this to their congregations – that is why we know that the holy spirit is not with them because they are not imitating Jesus' ministry – which is where Jesus explained all this to his listeners some 2000 years ago!

Their purpose was to wait for the fulfilment of the promise of Jesus,

Correct - but not in the context given!

Thus the bishop has twisted The Truth – to “sow in confusion”!

But I know why – and we are coming to it!

that a paraclete, Greek for counsellor, helper, strengthener, supporter, advisor, advocate and ally, would come.

Loading up the 'spin mantra' of confusion!

Sadly worldly Christian Leaders take things out of context to fit a preconceived idea.

But because they have 'this idea' - then they utterly ignore things that do not support 'this idea'!

Interestingly when people of other disciplines perform this distortion to The Facts – they become severely reprimanded for it!

Take an example; The Police Force (of any country).

It has been known that a detective might presume the guilt of an individual before they have The Evidence. Thus unprofessionally (mentally take this word 'on board') they gather only the evidence to support their preconceived ideas, and ignore any evidence as being irrelevant that might go against their firm convictions! Clearly when the matter has been finally resolved – they become demoted because they have not faithfully represented The Truth.

And exactly the same analogy can be applied to those worldly Christian Leaders who promote The Trinity, and particularly the holy spirit to be a personage. Snippets are plucked out of context, while great sections of The Bible are just ignored to promote an untenable conclusion. And because as we are told those who are administrating Yahweh's affairs while the direct master of us (Jesus) is away then as the parables tell us, they shall be rejected when the master Jesus returns at The Millennium. Thus being unprofessional in their chosen profession (important concept) to represent Yahweh, then quite clearly they shall not receive the wages of The Inheritance (being the return).

"The Inheritance" being those resurrected humans of The Earth given to the 'Sons of God' being Christ Jesus and his Bride of 144000 individuals (taken from The Gospel Age).

I do not wish to repeat everything I have stated on this subject being many pages with hundreds of examples – because I fully cover it elsewhere on this website www.FutureLife.Org . Please start by looking in The Glossary under appropriate headings and further look in my 50+ page dissertation of "The Trinity – What is it?", also for further information of an equally long document entitled "What is The Holy Spirit?"

As they waited, they prayed.

I can see the Politician's speak revving up the listener – it is standard writer's script.

The two things in their own right have no connection, but been placed to link it in with what the listener has been led to expect – and is now expecting as they try to put themselves in the same position.

Inasmuch to expect the same thing happening to them!

However there is an important difference.

These apostles (= appointed [by Yahweh] to tell [the world]) where imitating Jesus and as Peter said to Jesus: "Where can we go – for we have forsaken everything".

Perhaps this might be a question that should be asked of the members of the audience?

And before long God's power became evident within them,

An excellent terminology – which fully supports everything I state on this website and directly contradicts the insinuation of the bishop earlier and later that 'the holy spirit is a personage'!

Hence no confusion with what I state to The World and plenty of confusion in with what the bishop states!

and out of them, in spiritual gifts and manifestations they'd never possessed before.

This is a distortion of The Truth!

Does the bishop actually read his Bible?

What did Jesus do on two occasions?

Once he sent out the 12 two by two, and later he sent out 70 two by two.

And what did the 12 say upon their return?

Let me quote The Bible to The Bishop:-

Mark.6v13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oils many that were sick, and healed them.

I would state that there were two spiritual gifts, one to 'cast out demons' and the other to 'cure the sick'.

The bishop would be on very thin ice to state that these were not gifts from Yahweh!

So would it be more accurate to state that Yahweh gave more power to them (being proven vessels), being that His Desire to assist more greatly was made manifest within them – He gave them more holy spirit to be used as appropriate to accurately spread the Word of Yahweh most efficiently in an expedient manner as and when required to 'kick-start' the effectiveness of "The Dispersion".

This holy spirit was dispensed by Jesus to those humans proved worthy on earth (which is why he returned to the heavens) because Yahweh assigned this accolade of responsibility to Jesus (having proved himself worthy during his ministry and self-sacrifice)!

Can this be said of humans today – particularly those at 'charismatic' meetings such as this?

Would they dare to be presumptuous enough to declare themselves to be on par with these Apostles?

We all shall discover this upon our resurrection when “all secret things are declared publicly”!

According to the book of Acts, this endowment with the Holy Spirit, what's been called 'God's power in action', Perhaps I would state: “Yahweh’s Expressed Desire in action”.

And from this Yahweh uses all The Laws of Nature of which He Created (and we only know the most insignificant amount) to express His Desire within The Universe.

For ‘He (makes) become what He chooses to become’!

This becomes “power” to us mere mortals because we have not the faintest idea how Yahweh can manipulate what we at present do not know (being further Laws of The Universe)!

And further the bishop is now contradicting himself “what’s been called ‘God’s power in action’” to being a personage when earlier it was stated as “the one”. So has the bishop got “a foot in both camps”?

resulted in these ordinary people speaking new and unlearned languages, healing the sick, working miracles and generally astonishing and impacting the community in which they lived.

Correct! – Jesus dispensed more of Yahweh’s Desire into the personalities (spirit) of these humans.

Effectively it is Yahweh working through these humans.

Thus it is the “holy spirit” (= “Separate from Sin Yahweh’s Personality/Desire” of which, the whole is made manifest) within the spirit (personality) of these humans. This is symbolically where it is the process of being “Born Again” (see Glossary) of personalities where the human RNA is linking in with Yahweh’s RNA to create the new personality to ideally become a “Son of God”.

Hopefully I have satisfactorily explained precisely what is going on – without the worldly waffle!

And it didn't end there;

No – it went on for one more generation - to Paul.

Why?

For the sole reason it was to ‘kick-start’ “The Dispersion” into the world.

similar phenomena have been experienced in more recent history,

Oh – Really!

I have certainly heard of this and listened carefully to 2nd hand reports!

as spiritual revivals and outpourings of the Spirit have taken hold of Christians across the world.

Oh – Really!

Perhaps ‘spiritualist’ revivals might be more appropriate language!

Yahweh will most certainly take to task what is being stated here!

The modern Pentecostal movement was fuelled by such an outpouring, towards the end of the 19th Century, culminating in the Azusa Street Revival, under the leadership of the ex-slave William Seymour. It was also a move of the Holy Spirit in the Windrush era, since the late 1940s, that led Christians from the Caribbean, Africa and Asia to inject new life into the church in Britain. And Since then we've seen new expressions, culminating in what we know today as the Charismatic Movement, where the Holy Spirit has imparted gifts - charisma - in abundance, and, where once timid, uncertain people have become indwelt by the transforming power of God.

It could all be dismissed with one word – Anti-Christ!

Why Anti-Christ?

Because it is against the Name, Character and Authority of Christ Jesus!

But rather it Satan beguiling those humans to pretend to imitate Christ Jesus (being both leaders and followers), solely because it is frustrating/opposing Yahweh’s Plan.

Unless you know what Yahweh’s Plan is - then you will become confused and wander off the path and away from fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire (by missing the small, tight gate and wander off down through the wide, engaging and open gate with ‘everyone’ else in the worldly Christian religion – all doing their “own thing”)! So I ask the people of this congregation, but specifically of their leaders:

Do they actually know what God’s Plan really is? - As carefully described in The Bible.

If so - could they, or even do they, explain it to others – so that others might also know?

So to extract “The Absolute Truth” from The Bible then you must know the following information.

1. First read The Bible yourself – do not let other people tell you (please also question what I state). Please use a good translation and not an interpretation of the original Word. Do not use “NIV” nor “Good News” ‘bibles’ that are not translations but merely worldly interpretations!
2. Understand Yahweh’s Righteous/Equitable (= beyond question) Plan for all humans (thus if it can be questioned as being not fair for some individuals then it is not from Yahweh – for it is not perfect!)
3. Thoroughly learn what Jesus did and what The Apostles did in their life (by carefully reading The Bible) so that you might imitate them. Do not ignore the bits that you do not like!

4. From (3) if you have proved yourself to Jesus that you are imitating his lifestyle then perhaps you may be entrusted with some 'goodies' (dispensed by Jesus as most appropriate for your capabilities) of The Holy Spirit – but for what use?
5. "The use" is only to accurately further spread The Word of God to your neighbour and nothing else. If it is to 'please the self' or your friends to be likened as a gimmick/trinket/gismo then you have received something that does not originate from Yahweh – but a rather chameleon, a 'look-a-like', being from "The Prince of this present worldly system" = Satan!
6. Why (5)? Because Satan is desperately trying to draw humans away from imitating Jesus – that is to stop humans from fulfilling Yahweh's Desire – because he does not want the number 144000 to occur – for as soon as it does occur, then he is to have his power removed and Jesus is to reign instead!
7. What is the conclusion of (1) to (6)? It is that our desire to edify our neighbour above ourselves predominates all other things – This is Principled Love, that Yahweh shows to his Son and the Son does to his Father just as we (the 144000) do to The Son (Oh – I have just quoted The Bible – in context) where they are all one (of mind to fulfil this purpose).

Can the reader see the logic in this process? And The Bible correctly quoted – in context! Basically what MUST be considered is The Reason and The Focus of what/why something is being done. Is 'the means to an end' to gratify 'the self' and your 'company of associates'? - Or 'the means' to edify your neighbour (= stranger) to fulfil Yahweh's Desire of them – themselves!

Thus - What is the result (being The Fruitage) of what is occurring?

The answers to these questions become The Crux to The Solution of everything!

The Bible warns us constantly all the way through it: "Beware of false teaching!" Especially that teaching which titivates the earthly side of us rather than fulfilling Yahweh's Desire and ultimate purpose (= The Plan).

It is this understanding that the reader must get their mind around – else it becomes an illusion of the mind! Being no more than what a fraudster, illusionist would do for entertainment!

A hypnotist giving complete awareness of The Mind to the individual for heightened activity – a party trick!

Which is precisely the hub of what is occurring at these gatherings!

Another tool used by showmen is music, singing and chanting!

Music can be very manipulative in tugging at a human's emotional sentiments.

This has been shown to devastating effects all through history where leaders have exploited a 'God given gift' (of humans having the ability to respond to music) to manipulate their complicit followers into believing what is being communicated – often to their ultimate harm!

Reader - please beware!

Always question:-

1. What is the music for?
2. What proportion is this music taking of my time to learn (= new things) about Jesus?
3. What proportion is this music taking of my time to teach (= new things) about Jesus to my neighbour?
4. What is it doing to my personality to fulfil Yahweh's Desire to my neighbour (stranger)?
5. How am I being edified (in God's Word) through listening to this music/singing/chanting?
6. Why are the leaders subjecting me to this music/singing/chanting?
7. Is this what Jesus would have done – is there any reference to this in The Bible?
8. How does this influence what I ultimately do in my ability to imitate Jesus' ministry?

The answers to these questions speak much louder in volume than the music/singing/chanting created might do!

So -

I insist that the bishop (or those of his standing) contact me by email to 'defend' his most errant understanding of The Bible – naturally based upon Bible quotations, so that I might have much more material to work with!

The whole life of the Charismatic Christian is full of the hope

For what?

Is The bishop going to tell us?

The bishop's stock-in-phrases luke-warm reply might be:

"To have Jesus as our ruler, ruling our lives!"

"Luke-warm" – to describe the most wonderful ('sound-bite') phrase like that?

Yes! Because anyone came say that! - Words can be wonderful things, but The Bible tells us that "faith without works is dead". Thus for Jesus to be our ruler then we should start listening to his commands and then doing his commands before we attempt to hijack his Father's holy spirit for our own gratification!

Being the whole point! – Could 'we' ever! Thus the falsehood claimed if the works do not imitate Jesus!

And clearly Jesus as "the specific god" of us will not to be mocked (as The Bible specifically tells us), and thus he will not release any of his Father's holy spirit to these impersonators!

Then logically, the manifestations we see do not originate with The Father, but rather The Opposer/Resistor/Adversary = Satan, being vanity for the immediacy of self-indulgence!

For these manifestations are easily tested.

1. Healing. Anything coming from Yahweh is perfect. Thus any healing would be instant and everlasting. The recipient would never experience that fleshly complication again during the 1st part of their life, and would die of something else. But this never occurs in these ‘healings’ thus the transient ‘cure’ comes from The World (presently controlled by Satan)! Please be my witness – inspect the results!
2. “Speaking in tongues”. I have written extensively on this, to carefully explain why this originated from The Father to be used to advance Yahweh’s Word, and why today it originates from Satan used to oppose Yahweh’s Word to sow in confusion and lawlessness into life - for their own indulgence. But to be succinct - I ask the reader to ask of themselves this question:

. Who does ‘speaking in tongues’ edify?

I shall answer this by quoting The Bible where Paul aware of this problem spoke these guiding words:-
1Cor.14v23: If therefore the church comes together into one place, and all speak with tongues and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

The last thing we desire, if we are fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire, is for strangers to think we are “mad” – else we cannot fulfil Yahweh’s Desire to teach them correctly in a sane manner. Strangers do not wish to be associated with apparently “mad” people because ‘what they worship’ must be equally “mad”! Thus this quote is a very important teaching tool to show us how we are to reason upon The Scriptures, which is interesting because quite soon this occurs in the bishop’s text – which is quite illuminating!

brought about by understanding and participating in God’s imminent power.

This ‘sermon’ is full of bold (“understanding”/“participating”) but unsubstantiated claims!

I really would like to ‘lay it down on the line’ again and demand an answer from The Bishop:-

You claim to speak as “participating in God’s imminent power”!

I also claim to speak in God’s power actually operating within me!

So which one of us is TRULY representing Yahweh’s Interests?

Because I give you my personal assurance that both of us are not correct – but just one of us!

You claim to have the holy spirit to do all these ‘wonderful’ things!

But I also claim to have the holy spirit - of understanding and discernment (that gives me what might be claimed as a 6th sense to instantly spot deception long before it becomes evident to most people).

The Bishop demonstrates his claims as though on a stage!

While I demonstrate my claims through my work of logically discerning and explaining Yahweh’s word so that all human’s on this planet might understand Yahweh’s Plan and what part they must play within it – if they so choose!

What the bishop states has demonstrable errors within it, exudes confusion, yet everything I state is fully consistent within itself, utterly logical and further, fully supported by every verse in The Bible and thoroughly explains Yahweh’s most righteous plan to The World.

While what the bishop demonstrates is transient, what I write here is (to be demonstrably) everlasting!

So “who” might actually be representing Yahweh’s Interests here on earth?

Thus “who” does the reader think Yahweh looks favourably upon – and consequently, just within “who” His holy spirit might really be operating within?

I implore the reader to test the works of The Bishop quoted here and test the works that I give out within my life. Look at both what the bishop states and what I state - and then just carefully reason upon both sets of words!

What gives ‘the most information’? – And what just ‘pleases the ears’?

I yearn for those who support The Charismatic worldly grouping to contact me by email defending their most errant understanding so that I might have the opportunity to use The Bible to carefully explain the errors of their teaching to The World at large on this website!

Well after that rant/outburst – I have fully declared my opinions of that particular worldly grouping! But let me please continue with the rest of this ‘sermon’.

Needless to say, this is evident in our prayer life, especially in the fervour with which churches like ours pray together,

Assuming that “church” means grouping in the sense that the bishop uses it within (knowing that “church” means “calling out” of those committed), then shall we just replace the word “church” with “acolytes”!

Then we realise that what the bishop states could be applied to any religious grouping!

So what?

The point being made by the bishop that ‘theirs’ must be correct, is because of the fervent prayer rituals yields the results as witnessed within the congregation of “God’s power within them”.

And so I repeat myself:

We realise that what the bishop states could be applied to any religious grouping!

Because that is the very thing that occurs in many religious groupings within The World outside Christianity!

So what makes them any different to the voodoo practiced by a witch-doctor?

Or the chanting that occurs in the Hindu, or Buddhist religion that lead to ‘miraculous’ events?

Would the bishop state:

God was operating within these people just because their fervent prayer yields results of miraculous events?

Just because the word “Jesus” is said – does that make them any different to what Paul and John warned us of occurring within various religious assemblies in his epistles, or what John claimed in the early part of his Revelations, being charlatans to The Fidelity and misleading their congregations with things said and done to please/bend/tickle/pull the ear of the listeners?

These ones were condemned for their hypocrisy to The Fidelity!

Just as Jesus said of The Pharisees who were responsible for Yahweh’s Word before Jesus’ ministry. Thus it is absolutely essential for the reader to get behind and underneath the very visible painted façade to understand what is occurring and then ask:

How does this imitate Jesus in accurately spreading The Word of Yahweh to The Nations?

The answer to this question then displays the real fruits of what is being done – being what we are instructed by Jesus to inspect/examine/analyse!

- all at once, but in each pray-er’s own words.

The Bible instructs us not to be confusing, but rather to be clear and concise.

The Bible shows us by example how The Word of God is explained – so that we might understand!

The Bible tells us that Yahweh is Lawful, Principled, Unchanging, Clear and Concise = The Reference!

The Bible teaches us to be lawful, to speak at one time so that information might be spread between one another.

So the questions must be asked:-

If we choose to “pray in our own words” – then why should we not do this outside the congregation?

Why must this be done with our peers alongside – to create the very confusion (Babel) between people that Yahweh tells us that He detests?

Which is precisely why the holy spirit interprets to those humans of another language – so that there is NO simultaneous confusion – one speaking and the simultaneous interpreting to the one listening – being precisely what The Bible tells us!

Thus we can sensibly reason that this is a typical example of mass hysteria whipped up by the religious leaders for the feedback to wax the self-indulgent nature this personally gives them!

Clearly it is a mutual symbiotic process, the audience desire to be led into this deluded state every week and the leaders desire the power that this gives over ‘their devotees’!

We won’t pray like that in this service as it might come across on radio just as a babble. Indeed, one little girl, hearing this kind of congregational prayer for the first time asked her mum, ‘Why is everybody quarrelling?’ It can sound like that at times.

It seems that “the outsider” which Paul speaks about, being merely a little girl had more common sense than the rest of that congregation put together! It took a young girl to realise it!

The Bible speaks of ‘a rabble’, lawless to the specific instruction that Yahweh only puts upon those to whom He truly loves, who ultimately are worthy to “The Inheritance” to The World, being more work to teach (after honing their skills during the 1st part of their life) The Resurrected World righteousness in The Millennium.

And in one sense prayer is a quarrel against principalities and powers that oppress and destroy.

Whose “sense”?

What skilful words of deception!

Shall we go back to The Bible?

What does the Bible about this?

I would be interested if the bishop could find a single quotation in The Bible to support what he has just stated!

I most certainly do not know of any!

Let us analyse of what he is speaking?

Firstly:

“Principalities” - Does he mean “worldly” or ‘spiritual’ (in the connection with Satan)?

I personally understand that he means ‘spiritual’ being “Satan’s desire operating on this planet”.

So if he means ‘spiritual’ being the “powers that oppress and destroy” then why does he not accept that Satan is presently ruling this system of things – but rather he states that it is Jesus who is ruling!

So then, ‘to whom’ is the bishop assigning the ‘oppression and destruction’?

Who is he (‘we’) quarrelling with – Is it Satan or Jesus?

He is lost in his own argument!

Secondly:

We are told in The Bible that we are not fighting worldly principalities but rather ‘heavenly’ principalities, being “singular heaven” that points to the heaven of “the air” or the zone around the earth that points directly to Satan, being the present ruler of this corrupt system where ‘oppression and destruction’ is only too evident!

But nowhere does The Bible tell us that it is “a quarrel with these principalities”, but rather we shall be buffeted by them and we should avoid them like the plague and not engage with them – we are instructed to be blind to them.

Thus the Bible is clear – but the bishop is most unclear!

But prayer is also an expression of exultant praise,

After going completely ‘off the track’, the bishop is now coming back ‘onto the track’ with something that everyone can agree with – to endorse/validate the misleading rubbish spoken of earlier.

This is a typical worldly tactic that worldly leaders of any description (particularly politicians) will use to bring everyone back on side after just making an outrageous statement!

which is not new or peculiar to Charismatics.

Again it is a question:-

How is that “praise” made manifest?

There are many prayers and very dedicated humans of other religions who sacrifice their life for others in the name of their “God” for “the greater good” – and does Yahweh consider this as “an expression of exultant praise”?

Clearly not when some of them are suicidal bombers – but they demonstrate far more commitment to “The Cause” (of the participant) than perhaps many of these Charismatics!

So the reader must analyse ‘the defining difference’.

The defining difference: Is the person imitating Jesus’ ministry?

Because ‘The Crux’ being - “What is Yahweh after”?

He is after (electing/choosing) faithful stewards for The Millennium to teach the world righteousness.

Yahweh is not going to obtain these faithful stewards from people behaving like this (when, as we are told by Paul “strangers will think them mad!”) – when demonstrating their allegiance to “The Cause”.

Most importantly they have not produced ‘the works’ of the teaching experience to enable ‘Yahweh to graft them into The Vine for the future work of producing grapes’.

Because quite rightly a resurrected person would state:

What Authority do you have to teach me – when you have not done (imitated Jesus as Paul did) the ministry yourself during the 1st part of your life!

However a True Christian emulating the ministry of Jesus can say in The Millennium:

I do have The Authority, and Yahweh was correct in resurrecting me as ‘A Son of God’ – look at my pedigree being the credentials of The Work I did under duress during the 1st part of my life where the false religious authorities tried to stop my ministry in imitating Jesus (as they did to the apostles) – where I was blind to the defilements of self indulgence to that old worldly system that has now past away!

Can the reader see the logic behind what I am stating?

Does the reader get this logic from what The Bishop and his peers offer to The World?

Our two Bible texts this morning demonstrate this sense of joyful hope resulting in what I'd like to call "prayer praise".

This is not what The Bible is teaching us from what we have just seen, but rather as we are told “What he would like to call Prayer Praise”.

I explained the context of The Ark – and I wonder if the bishop will tell us what The Bible tells us – being why David behaved like he did?

Interesting term “Joyful hope” used by the bishop.

What does the bishop really mean?

David’s joyous hope of What?

The people singing Hosanna to Jesus as a joyous hope of What?

We had better return to the background of each!

David was joyous – but not of “joyous hope” but rather “certainty” – that he had found favour with Yahweh!

Many people who joined in with the disciples perhaps only had a ‘joyous hope’ of an earthly King operating in and from Jerusalem. But not that Jesus would become The Proven Righteous King operating over the whole world for an eternity within a heavenly body operating through Jerusalem (being Yahweh’s Organisation) here on Earth.

None of this shall be explained by the bishop – being precisely the things he should be explaining and making perfectly clear to his congregation!

First, we see David with the Ark of God, which represented the divine presence, Correct.

now restored to him;

It was not The Ark of God restored with him, but rather Yahweh's Favour had enabled David to defeat Jerusalem and then bring The Ark into its resting place in Zion. To show The World through prophecy that Yahweh's Favour will be within The New Jerusalem in The Millennium.

and having been made King of all Israel, he erupted in prayerful praise.

Only because he had been king of the 10 tribes of Israel for 7 years and now he had united them with the two other tribes to make Israel wholesome, being then, The 12 Tribes of Israel for what will become 33 years (all quite prophetic) of rule.

He put on such an exhibition that his wife was embarrassed. 'Call yourself a king, stripping off your clothes like that? Not even our servants behave so badly!

It was Saul's daughter Michal who after that point became separated from David and thus bore no children to David, but she went with another man to have further children (hence no Bible contradiction – often being cited by The World as a contradiction).

'David's reply was, 'You ain't seen nothing yet, for what God has done for me, I'm prepared to be even more undignified in his presence'.

The Bishop is completely 'twisted the truth' to what David actually stated and meant!

The Bishop is insinuating that we can make ourselves more undignified in Yahweh's presence!

Being precisely what Satan wants us to do!

It is not what David means! Also will the bishop explain how this was to be prophetic?

But before that, please let me explain how the bishop got this very wrong!

1. Firstly, look at the text! David did not say this! What he said was that "he was prepared to be more undignified than his servants". He did not mention anything about being more undignified in Yahweh's Presence! This is a spin that the bishop put onto The Bible text!

So what?

David was stating that he was prepared to become more lowly than his servants before Yahweh, rather than being more undignified to Yahweh.

Thus this stance (being David's personality) to become more lowly (humble) than his fleshly servants, which would in reality become more dignified before Yahweh because David was prepared to debase himself lower than his servants. Thus David was setting the correct mental attitude between himself and his worldly subjects.

Would this sentiment be honoured by Political and Religious leaders of today!

Of course not, look at their lifestyle! – Because they do not have the same humility as did David!

David was a meek shepherd chosen by Yahweh, but our leaders thrust themselves upon 'the stage', chosen as such by The World!

2. Thus the bishop is falsely accrediting to the text an insinuation that we might become more undignified before Yahweh – being a slur on Bible text, being one step away 'to excuse our present faults' – being a justification to repeat them again. Clearly the Bishop will vigorously deny this accusation – but he must understand that if he deviates from The Truth in what he states then confusion can be read into what he has stated!

And this is not the first time in this sermon that this attestation can be justified!

So what does it prophesy?

David was the forerunner to Jesus.

David was The King of the Fleshly Israel taking the nation to the height of its power, and Jesus becomes The King of The New Spiritual Israel to be made up of the 144000 True Christians taken out of The Christian Nation during The Gospel Age to the height of their power in The Millennium.

David was prepared to make himself lower than his servants, just as Jesus made himself lower than those who served him (being The Apostles), where we are told by The Bible that The Husband loves his wife as himself (being Jesus Christ as the Bridegroom and his Bride being the 144000).

And we observe a similar exuberance on the first Palm Sunday, as the people believed that the man riding into Jerusalem on a colt was their long awaited messiah. Off came their cloaks; down came the branches of the trees as they lined the road under the ass's feet.

I have already explained The Difference!

*It may not appear so,
Correct!*

but this is prayer, Wrong!

This is called "Worship".

I said at the beginning that this bishop did not understand the words "Prayer" and "Worship".

This has just endorsed my claim!

unrestrained expressions of joy and thankfulness to God

“Worship” is where a human dedicates their time and energies to fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire.

“Prayer” is where a human communicates to Yahweh their innermost feelings to mentally bind themselves closely to Yahweh using a language that they can understand for it to be fruitful/edifying!

“Unrestrained” means “lawlessness” – being a lack of self control.

The Bible instructs us to be lawful and in control of our body. We are instructed not to loose self control!

Thus what the bishop states is in error to what The Bible specifically tells us to do!

We are instructed to be lawful now in that we educate our synapse construction during the 1st part of our life so that we might be predisposed to being lawful in The Millennium under Christ Jesus’ rule!

Thus what we have been told by the bishop is a most unhelpful instruction for our personality!

for what he has done or is doing,

This is surely best done by imitating Jesus’ ministry – because we are told that Yahweh delighted in what His Son demonstrated here this Earth!

in which our bodies and emotions are engaged, as well as our intellect.

By imitating Jesus!

Just as Paul imitated Jesus!

Just as Paul instructed us to do in his Epistles!

Here in Birmingham, as in other inner city conurbations throughout our country, you'll find churches like this one being uninhibited in their prayer praise in the midst of many difficulties.

This is not a proud boast!

Please read my essay on “Why do we pray” to explain precisely for what should be prayed!

Being an essay with examples from The Bible instructing us how we should pray!

They are not the same type of prayers that I have heard today!

I have covered the other aspects elsewhere.

We're not oblivious to problems;

It is my personal opinion that you are “oblivious to problems”!

Why?

Because if you really wanted to remove these problems then you would imitate Jesus by preaching and teaching of Yahweh’s Acceptable Year – being The Millennium period where all humans will be instructed righteousness and be brought to account for their actions incurred during the 1st part of their life!

in fact many of us are deeply involved in developing strategies and action in the social, economic and political spheres.

Please read Acts.6v1-8 where it states what a True Christian (= apostle) should be doing if they are to imitate Jesus’ lifestyle.

The Bible does not state that our primary function is to be worldly social workers! Because an atheists or any person of any religion can do this! Thus this is not Yahweh’s primary function for a True Christian.

As The Bible makes crystal clear in the parable of the Good Samaritan, the True Christian is on the road from A to B, being two points where he must preach/teach The Word of God. But on his way - by perchance (being The Greek wording) – he meets someone in physical distress, to whom he helps to the best he is able. He then goes on his way to point B where he continues his ministry.

This True Christian is traveling from point A to B being “his mission = his ministry”.

The Bible is perfectly clear that he is not constantly spending his time on the road deliberately looking for people who are in physical distress – but rather only by “perchance”.

Thus what is The Goal?

Is it for physical salvation of “the fleshly body” that is only ‘to rot in the ground’?

Or rather for “The Heavenly Treasure” being the ‘retained synapse construction’ = “the personality”?

The reader must carefully reason upon the full implications of all this!

What will make society a better place?

“The fleshly body” or “the personality”?

Finally regarding politics!

The Bible in very many places specifically instructs us by principal ‘to keep out of worldly politics’!

The True Christian would obey The Bible instruction and avoid worldly politics like The Plague!

Again what did the bishop state on this subject?

Please draw your own conclusions by looking at the results of religious people getting involved with politics – all around The World!

But we do so against a background of prayer and praise,

Sadly in this congregation – being just worldly hype – for self-indulgence (as displayed by The Fruits)!

because that roots us in the will and energy of God;

The previous line and this line is stated by those from ‘all around the world’, by those of all worldly religions and we must ask ourselves:-

Are they loved by Yahweh – just as Yahweh loved His son Jesus?

who, as the scripture says, is able to do far more than we can ever think or imagine.

The most correct statement made so far in the sermon – but I think the bishop might be in for a future surprise!

This is how we know that to walk with God, no strength is lost; to talk with God, no breath is lost; to wait on God, no time is lost.

I have covered this earlier

The Spirit gives us power to keep going

Whose “spirit”?

Please see my glossary on “Spirit”, “Holy Spirit” “Air”, “Faith”, etc.

against what sometimes seem like overwhelming odds.

Bound to be - based upon what you have just given in your worldly sermon for The World to enjoy!

Amen!

I hardly think Yahweh would endorse this sermon!

I will need to give my equivalent sermon – for the reader to make the decision upon what sermon would be ideally accepted by Yahweh.

Reminds me of the parable that Jesus gave regarding the Pharisee and the poor man who both went to The Temple to pray, and ultimately which individual was justified/accepted by Yahweh!

Think deeply upon all the ramifications of that statement based upon what you read here in this critique!

Choir: If I tell God About my Problem

Choir: The Lord is my Shepherd

Cleveland Perkins:

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus, it is with sincere hearts of gratitude and love that we gather to commemorate your triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

I would like to think so!

But these are merely self-indulgent words to make the person saying them – and those people listening feel good about themselves, rather than implementing what Jesus did in their own lives!

Have they studied The Old Testament – just as Jesus did?

Are they able to quote passages back – to The Accuser – as Jesus was able?

This truly shows whether the person has “sincere hearts of gratitude” – rather than being a mere hypocrite to “The Name of Jesus”.

Thus based upon what The Bible tells me, then Yahweh is very critical in how He examines our hearts, being the motivation, zeal, drive for us to imitate His Son Jesus – being his accurate (to Yahweh’s Word) ministry.

In just so many places we are told – that we are carefully examined/audited by Yahweh on how we use His Holy Spirit dispensed by Jesus (as “the specific god” of us) and if we are found wanting then we are dismissed from Yahweh’s service of being an Apostle!

We acknowledge your Lordship and your sovereign rule, and take time to adore you, Creator of heaven and earth.

The worldly doctrine of “The Trinity” has ‘screwed up the mental reasoning of humans’ as we read here!

It was Yahweh as ‘The Almighty God of The Universe’ is The One Who created The Universe, and thus by definition can move outside it (in perhaps parallel universes – perhaps that is how our synapse construction can be so closely monitored within this [‘our’] universe).

It was Jesus as the specific god of us, who created us, using his Father’s holy spirit, being the knowledge and power base to create all forms of life on this planet – that The Greek calls “The adornment” of the planet.

It is Yahweh Who is The Absolute Ruler of The Universe.

It is Jesus who will be assigned full rulership of his personal creation on this planet during The Millennium.

We show our adoration to Yahweh, and utter respect to Jesus our ruler – by imitating Jesus’ lifestyle!

We glorify your great name and declare 'Hosanna in the Highest'.

We glorify Yahweh, by showing respect to His Most Righteous Plan by telling people about it!

We glorify Jesus by imitating him!

We do not glorify any of Them by shouting “Hosanna in the highest!” at certain times of the year!

This is just pure vanity!

You have shown us this morning that in the midst of struggles, we can still praise you.
I have covered this vain claim elsewhere!

[We thank you for the examples of David and the people in Jerusalem who worshipped you extravagantly.]
By their actions and work - daily!

Help us to sacrifice our hesitancy, and to worship you with boldness, without fear.

I have covered this vain claim elsewhere!

And thus it becomes worthless – just made ‘to please the worldly listening ear’!

Why are they hesitant? Because they have no real faith! But merely a ‘blind faith’!

I could analyse this whole statement to show that word by word it is utterly worthless if the person stating it had real faith based upon knowledge! Which can only come about by study!

Please compare this to ‘a professional’ at work in the secular community. If they have not been trained then they become hesitant, unable to be bold in spending time on the job, have fear of the possible unknown problem.

Can the reader understand precisely what I am trying to explain?

Sadly the duped congregation fall into this trap – as we witness by what has been stated, however the responsibility for this malaise is specifically pointed towards the false religious leaders – for which ultimately they shall be held directly responsible (where we are told ‘Jesus being the lintel’ shall fall upon them and crush them).

Father God, we thank you for the gift of prayer and for the knowledge that we can come to you as our Heavenly Father who is always attentive to our needs.

Another vain claim – this community seem very adept at making outrageous and unsubstantiated claims!

As I clearly explain with numerous Bible examples in many places on this website - Yahweh is only attentive to those humans who fulfill His Desire of them.

And I ask the reader:

What writings have delivered to the reader the most knowledge?

Is it what I have stated here and/or later in my example sermon of what the Bishop should have said for this occasion OR what they have read in the audited (against The Quality Manual being The Bible) bishop’s sermon?

Surely that must give The Answer – being the power of demonstrable works in imitating Jesus’ ministry!

So we pray for our community, our country and our world, that all people may know the power of your love.

A very common statement that I comprehensively cover in my essay “Why do we pray?”

It is a most worthless statement – the conclusion being very hypocritical of those who pray like this!

May they discover you as the God to whom they can pray,

Sadly they need a good example – and on present evidence, it is not available!

and in whom they will find peace even in the midst of adversity.

This will not occur in The World today under Satan’s present inept management style!

However personal peace is certainly forthcoming when humans know about Yahweh’s Acceptable Year. Which is precisely why we are commanded to preach/teach about it to the whole world, so that when The End to Satan’s inept management style is curtailed in much universal distress, then humans on an individual level shall have this peace of mind.

Sadly before the start of this website (2007) then this has not been widely preached – it shall now change!

Lord, fill us with hope and keep us rejoicing.

This will only occur from gathering Real Knowledge by reading The Bible daily – and not listening to worthless sermons like this!

It is not ‘a free ticket’ to lay back and let someone else do the work for you if you claim things “in the name” of the person who actually showed what work should be done – else you are a hypocrite ‘to the name’!

As we go onto the next line:

This we ask in the name of Jesus.

But is it asked for in the Character and Authority of Jesus – demonstrated by works?

ALL: AMEN

Bishop Basil:

Thank you for joining us here in the heart of Birmingham on this Palm Sunday. We wish you a special and blessed time during this Holy Week, as Christians everywhere keep watch with Christ. And now, Bishop Joe will lead us in the Grace.

Just the sort of ‘nice things’ The Pharisees would have said to their congregation during the days of Jesus’ ministry period – being:

“Let us be like David by rejoicing and singing his psalms to Yahweh on the anniversary of his entry into Jerusalem with The Ark!”

Bishop Joe:

We give thanks to God for all His mercies.

And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all, now and forevermore.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

And Joe should have added at the end “By imitating Jesus’ ministry”

But sadly that sounds like ‘too much hard work’! And consequently put his congregation off-side!

ALL: AMEN

Hymns: Hosanna followed by This is the Day

Now after that hard hitting (and I accept “no punches barred”) critical examination, ‘who’ does the reader actually feel Yahweh might be validating?

Perhaps I should launch into my sermon that is more appropriate and more illuminating on Yahweh’s Word to illustrate what the bishop should have communicated to his ‘audience’.

Mine being a sermon to spread The Knowledge of Yahweh’s Word to all those in darkness desiring Light, rather than as the bishop’s being a sermon full of unsubstantiated sound-bites for the worldly self-indulgence of all concerned!

My two part sermon based upon two readings of The Bible interspersed by three suitable prayers.

1st Prayer:

Almighty God Yahweh I thank you for the ability of this congregation to come together without the fear of retribution that others might face in the hostile world today. One day all humans will be able to come together to mount Zion to learn righteousness from The New Jerusalem being Your Organisation operating here on Earth through Your Son Christ Jesus ruling as The Rightful King with his trusted Bride of 144000 being The Temple within Your Organisation - Jerusalem. We yearn for that day being The Millennium where Satan, the pretender of this present disgusting worldly system will be removed – where we are told that the old heaven and old earth will be dissolved to usher in a new society where righteousness will be operating instead.

So now let us read from Your Word – The Bible, to discover how You made all this possible.

Amen.

1st Reading:-

Gen.49v8-12

“Judah, your brothers will praise you, your hand will be on the neck of your enemies, your father’s sons will bow down to you. You are a lion’s cub, O Judah, you return from the prey my son, like a lion he crouches and lies down, like a lioness – who dares to awaken him?”

The sceptre will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs, and the obedience of the nations is his.

He will tether his donkey to a vine, his colt to be the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine his teeth whiter than milk.”

Sermon 1st Part:

Here we have “Jacob”, renamed “Israel” (meaning “perseverance”) after having “persevered” with a messenger from Yahweh giving a death-bed blessing to his 12 sons to form “The Twelve Tribes of Israel” some 1700 years before Jesus’ ministry. There is just so much prophecy in just that one sentence! “Persistence” to mean “resistance” to Yahweh’s standards for the old fleshly Israel, but Yahweh gave this name “Israel” because it prophesied the same understanding for The New Spiritual Israel (of 144000) taken out of The Gospel Age who “persisted” to maintain righteousness to Yahweh’s Standards (being what He Desired of them).

The twelve tribes of Israel became The Israelite Nation that was to become The Vehicle to demonstrate Yahweh’s Omnificence through prophecy and the fulfilment of it culminating in the birth of Jesus.

The reading I have taken is where Jacob renamed Israel is blessing his son Judah that through his lineage shall be the fulfilment of Yahweh’s prophecy given way back in The Garden of Eden (Gen.3v16) where Jesus would only be bruised in the heel (to cause a stumbling – being his 3 day death), but Satan would be bruised in the head – being his termination initiated by the onset of The Millennium brought in by the resurrected, “awakened” Jesus.

Let me now directly translate this multi-faceted prophecy from Genesis:

This is speaking directly of Jesus coming for the 1st time to this world to give his ministry some 2000 years ago and then of his soon to occur future position within The Millennium.

My son Judah, The New Spiritual Israel (brothers) will praise your seed being Jesus. After your (Jesus’) resurrection you (Jesus) will be given all power and authority by Yahweh to control your enemies. The New Spiritual Israel of 144000 will worship you as a righteous bride does to a righteous husband. You, Jesus were initially as the ‘weak cub’ during your ministry, but after your resurrection you became a fully grown lion. You, now as ‘the specific god’ of us, fully grown in stature and as The King (metaphorically of animals = humans) having all the power to destroy your enemies with Yahweh’s holy spirit when displaying The Wrath of God, but able to herald in The Millennium into a restitution of peace and rest. After this show of strength – what human would dare to test themselves against “the specific god” of us Jesus?

This promise will not pass away from the lineage of Judah and the items of kingship will not leave this lineage until Jesus comes for whom these belong being the 144000 at The Rapture and the obedience of the nations will be demonstrated in The Millennium.

He will come in on his colt, then after he has died and then become resurrected, he becomes the root-stock to The Vine, where the branches of The 144000 apostles are being pruned and dressed by his Father Yahweh during The Gospel Age (of the present 2000 years). His Colt will be tied to the best braches being his original Disciples/Apostles holding the Colt. He will wash the garments being the personalities of the 144000 with the blood of his Undeserved Gift represented by the wine (also being the acceptable fruitage of The Vine to Yahweh) who imitate Jesus (and later covers the lifestyles of all the nations to enable them a resurrection in The Millennium). His teeth represent a mouth visibly open and thus speaking in whiteness, being the purity of Yahweh’s Word for salvation to those who choose to imitate Jesus, and milk being given to children who are new to The Fidelity as Paul tells us.

Is this not the most wonderful prophecy? – Half fulfilled and the remainder so soon to occur!

Amen!

2nd Prayer:

Almighty God Yahweh, I in great gratitude, thank You for Your utter Magnificence in whatever You choose to make become what You Desire. Please manoeuvre The Environment around Your apostles so that they might efficiently fulfil Your Desire to the maximum of their ability. Please enable us to retain The Knowledge that we gain from The Bible just as You promised so that by recall through the holy spirit we might be best placed to effectively communicate Your word to those people who might desire themselves in the future to imitate Jesus when made aware of the most wonderful Gift that Jesus gave to his Creation some 2000 years ago.
Amen.

2nd Reading:-

Luke.19v29-44.

“And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany at the mount called of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying: Go you into the village over against you, in the which at your entering you shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat; loose him, and bring him here. And if any man ask you: Why do you loose him? Thus you say unto him: Because the Lord has need of him. And they that were sent went on their way and found even as he had said unto them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them: Why do you loose the colt? And they said: The Lord has need of him. And they brought him to Jesus; and they threw their garments upon the colt and they set Jesus thereon. And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way. And when he come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen; saying: Blessed be the King that comes in the name of the Lord; peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, rebuke your disciples. And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying: If you had known, even you, at least in this day the things which belong unto thy peace! But now they are hid from your eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that your enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep you in on every side, and shall raze you down, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because you know not the time of thy visitation.”

Sermon 2nd Part:

This is the beginning of what is called Passion Week where Jesus triumphantly entered Jerusalem as foretold some 1700 years earlier. Other prophecies in Daniel some 600 years earlier speak of ‘days in the weeks of years’ giving the exact time before The Anointed One is to then be cut-off after 3.5 days representing Jesus’ 3.5 year ministry ending in his murder. The prophecy then speaks of another 3.5 years to indicate the holding back before Cornelius becomes baptised to represent Yahweh’s Covenant through Jesus now being opened up to The Gentiles – Where the Gentiles through The Christian Nation now become responsible for the continuance of spreading Yahweh’s Word to The World through what Peter calls “The Dispersion”. One might liken it to a relay race, where the responsibility for teaching Yahweh’s Word is transferred from the Jewish nation to The Christian Nation as more is revealed – for Jesus did not come to dissolve The Mosaic Law, but rather to fulfil it and gave us also The Methodology to fulfil it at Mark.12v30-31.

But here we see in the read passage, that a colt for Jesus is brought as prophesied in Genesis and the Prophets many years earlier for Jesus to ride into Jerusalem as a Royal King on a colt (Zech.9v9). Matthew a former tax collector fastidious with numbers tells us that two colts were collected hence the reason why two disciples departed as recorded in Luke. However Luke is only concerned with the one specific colt that Jesus rode upon, the other trailed behind that I propose was used to carry their belongings. We are told in John’s Gospel that Jesus’ friends and family of the resurrected Lazarus came to joyously cheer in The King of their lives into Jerusalem and other bystanders were also caught in this fervour. Then we are told that the ever-present Pharisee stooges collecting evidence to use against Jesus commented that the disciples and friends should not say such things! To which Jesus gives an interesting reply, inasmuch if his disciples were silenced then the stones would cry out.

The Bible is very clear on two things:

Firstly - Stones are taken to be everlasting, and thus The Bible always uses “stones” to mean those humans with ‘guaranteed everlasting life’ – thus before Jesus’ murder then examples of these people would be The Ancient Worthies, Moses, Joshua, King David, The prophets, etc of “the other flock”, and after Jesus’ resurrection these people would be the 144000 to be taken out of The Gospel Age being “the small flock” to form the stones of The New Temple that replaced the old physical temple of The Jews destroyed by The Romans in 70 CE all as prophesied earlier, and as we have just read.

Secondly - The Bible text does not state where the stones are located, and everyone assumes it means the literal stones under their feet. However this is just an assumption and is not justified from the given text.

Thus Jesus is metaphorically stating here that The Ancient Worthies, David and the prophets would be screaming out in their prophecies if the disciples’ physical utterances were suppressed.

At which point in the reading Jesus, spurred forwards by the Pharisees' blasphemy, then sorrowfully looks out towards the city of Jerusalem, knowing what was to befall it in some 36 years time – because of the accountable religious leaders' utter indifference to Yahweh's Word. They had the opportunity to take note from their Righteous King – but rather they tried to 'shut-up' and silence his dedicated followers – just as Jesus was to again forewarn his disciples some six days later as we read in John.16v1-4.

Thus as Jesus also forewarned some days later when the disciples stated how wonderful The Temple was, Jesus stated that no stone would be laid upon another indicating again that Yahweh's disfavour upon The Jews as representing His Word was to be terminated at the destruction of the physical temple by worldly forces of The Romans.

We are told that we are to take things written in The Bible for our education and warning. Likewise we understand from these warnings that the same will befall those worldly Christian leaders at the close of The Gospel Age of 2000 years, for Yahweh does not desire this type of person to be in positions of power in The Millennium – so these bastions of power containing suchlike people shall be removed by the worldly forces as represented by The Roman Army before the baton is handed over to the 144000 rightful stewards who proved themselves through the fire of refining during the 1st part of their lives.

On a personal level, The Bible instructs us that we are to aim to individually become one of these stones to make up The New Temple of God. Paul tells us that we are all to be refined and each of us shall have our work carefully examined, where it might be burnt up like straw or remain as stone. Thus I urge you all to become one of these stones where we are burning with zeal and passion to personally fulfil Yahweh's Word as we imitate Jesus to the very best of our ability in our lifestyle to the people we meet during our daily intercourse and to keep out of "meddling in people's affairs" (being the definition of "politics"). We are to take in Bible knowledge and inculcate it into our lifestyle – in this manner we shall become marked for salvation – being guaranteed everlasting life within the most wonderful society operating under our most righteous king – Christ Jesus. Amen!

3rd Prayer:

Oh Jesus Christ – while I have your presence within me, I yearn for your full exposure to The World at large where the whole resurrected World will be guided/cajoled into imitating your most perfect standard during The Millennium. In time most humans will inculcate your lifestyle within their hearts and thus come to enjoy the universal peace and security that only "The City of Peace", being the prophetic Jerusalem, being the future city of Yahweh's organisation operating here upon this Earth will deliver.

Oh Yahweh - when Your Granary is full – who in this Universe could ever again call into question anything that You Make Become?

Amen!

My sermon given is of about the same number of words, presented slightly differently - but other than that, then may I ask the reader:

Which sermon gave information to the listener?
Which sermon exuded the power of the holy spirit?
Which sermon was deferential to Yahweh?
Which sermon just gave hype to the listener?
Which sermon oozed self-indulgency?
Which sermon delivered "fruits of the holy spirit"?

And then ask yourself:

Which sermon would Yahweh rather listen to?
And again, to remind the reader of Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the poor man both praying in The Temple of Yahweh – and who ultimately was justified before Yahweh!

I make no more claims than that and ultimately leave the answers within The Fruitage of the sermons given!

This raises many more questions that we must ask within and about ourselves:

Why have we/they come together for this sermon?
Is it to worship God or themselves?
Have they come to make themselves feel better from what has occurred during the week?
Thus have they come for refreshment by having and participating in 'the entertainment'?
Is the religious Leader providing this entertainment – perhaps as The Ring Master at a circus?
Ask yourself:-

Is this what Jesus showed us?

Is this what Paul showed us?
 Look at the examples in The Bible and of the background (particularly with the “soothsayer girl”).
 Why should these examples be displayed and given to us for our edification?
 Also to whose edification are these examples given?
 How are all the personalities within these examples applicable to us?
 When Jesus was full of the holy spirit – did he show ‘slain in the spirit’ characteristics? – Clearly not!
 How does what we individually do accurately spread The Word of God into The World?
 Is this what we are to practice in The Future World (imitating Jesus’ sanity or collapsing stupefied)?
 Why the difference?
 What is necessary? And is this going to last an eternity?
 Would we want to be stupefied (‘slain in the spirit’) for the rest of eternity and/or screamed at with chanting/music pummelled into our ears – being as it is claimed – close to God?
 What actually is going through the mind of such devotes – merely the euphoria ‘of the moment’ created by professional ‘show-men’ pumping up of fleshly beta-endorphins – for which they shall ultimately ‘pay The Price’ upon Jesus’ main return - for they shall most certainly be ignored at the 1st 2nd C!
 Carefully reason upon all these things!
 Are these practices really from Yahweh or perhaps merely worldly vanity fed from another source – being Satan so that that key number of 144000 imitating Jesus is not reached!

And I ask the reader:

Please criticise my sermon as I have done The Charismatics’ sermon for a comparative yield!

What is my point in this Critique?
 Basically: Be objective and get back to “The Absolute Truth”!
 Go back to Prime Standards (= The Bible) – because secondary standards are subject to environmental effects (= personal interpretation, mainly for worldly return)!

My conclusion and recommendation

I am not criticising specifically the personalities being those on the front line, but rather their message.
 But I criticise the ‘efforts’ of the support staff being those out of the public eye, hence those teachers in the seminaries and the theologians who study everything else for their worldly sourced and worldly ‘coveted’ doctorate, rather than The Bible!
 It is the direct responsibility of the support staff (out of the public eye) to be feeding the very public teachers on the front line with material to bolster up knowledge of The Millennium to The Congregations and to insist during their ministry that it is the responsibility of the individuals within the congregation to imitate the leaders as they are themselves to be imitating Jesus, being the whole point of Jesus’ ministry (which is precisely what Paul told us)!

Your works are not being audited by me – but ultimately by Yahweh!
 But it is my duty to carry out this preliminary audit – for your ultimate protection!

How people imitate Jesus is The Golden Standard that all Christians shall be judged upon in The Greater/Special Judgement at the end of the 1st part of their life.

Are they to be found wanting?
 Their future, and yours - is solely dependant upon YOU!
