

What is the Reward Promised in the Bible for those who are ‘saved’?

Issue date: 06 Aug 2007

It is important to read the document entitled: “What is the difference between Life and being Saved”. Where we understand the difference is “Life” means “continuously living” and where we also learn that Jesus and the Gospels use “Saved” to mean we have been released from The Curse of Satan, being the decision forced upon us by Adam and Eve that gave each one of us descendents The 1st Death from which Jesus’ Undeserved Gift of The Ransom Sacrifice has now released us. The decision whether we choose to fulfil Yahweh’s Desire or not - will now become a personal decision based upon our whole single life to be made up to 2 parts – we are presently within the 1st part of our life experiencing Evil under Satan’s system and the 1st Death now becomes “Asleep” because of Jesus’ Ransom Sacrifice so that an “awakening/rousing” into the 2nd part of our life where we shall experience Christ Jesus’ rule to experience a universally Good Society for us then to make an educated decision: Do we wish to live continuously in The Good Society or personally revert to the standards of the 1st part of our life and thus become cut-off by The 2nd Death of annihilation. It is as simple as that – but never taught by our worldly Christian Leaders because they have not the faintest idea of what Yahweh’s Most Righteous Plan is for the whole human species – even though what I have stated is clearly written in The Bible!

So following that introduction I then ask:-

Is this Reward a promise of everlasting life in (the) heaven(s)?

No! – not the Heavens (see “heaven” in Glossary).

Gal.3v16-19 it states:-

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promise made..... And you be Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Col.3v24:-

Reward of The Inheritance.

The genuine thus True Christian (see Glossary) is therefore an heir but not yet a possessor of the “promise” (reward – being a gift to an adopted son). So he is an heir, to inherit the promise given to Abraham.

Please note: “Heir”, “Promise”, “Gift”, “Adopted”, “Inherit” and “Abraham” are very important terms and the reader must understand the secondary reasoning within these words which are intrinsically prophetic and allegoric and thus pulls Yahweh’s Plan together in the most logical manner.

So what was this “promise” given?

Rom.15v8 it says:-

Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.

These “fathers” would be Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and the same promise is found in Gen.12v1-3. Here Abraham was told by God to leave the land of Babylon, to leave his friends and relatives, his old way of life – “to forsake all” and to follow where God led. He did not argue, for it is written, “So Abram departed”.

This is clearly an example for us when we are Baptised. We are to leave all our old ways (before we were Baptised) being like Babylon with the multitudinous gods (within The Materialism of western society) and are required by God to follow the footsteps of Jesus Christ = imitate Jesus’ lifestyle being “the specific god” of us teaching us how to worship Yahweh God = The Supreme Ruler of The Universe.

Thus to leave “false Babylon” and follow/imitate/commit 100% to Jesus in knowledge/faith/fidelity/assurance.

Is false Babylon – false Christendom?

Remember the Bible says in Rev.18v4 to:- “Come out of her My people.”

These clearly are The Elect/Chosen at The End Times being the remaining part of the 144000 and many more being True Brethren aiming also to become True Christians who then shall make up The Great White Multitude (Rev.7v9).

Gen.12v6-7 it says:-

Abram passed through into Sichem, the plain of Moreh. The Canaanite (people) was there. The Lord God said:- “I will give to your seed (dependents) ‘this Land’ -

But while we know the Israelites as a fleshly nation occupied this land some 450+ years later, we also know Jesus spoke of “sons of Abraham” (= “sons of ‘The Loving Father’ = Sons of Yahweh God) as being special and not part of the fleshly Israelite nation utterly rejected at 70 CE. – Thus Jesus was speaking of another nation whose Jewish DNA genes would be within those special humans elected/chosen out from the generic pool of the new nation that Jesus set up ostentatiously supposedly like him (= The Christian Nation – but was no different to The Fleshly Israelite Nation in the way it behaved). It would be a legitimate argument to state that The Worldly Christian Nation is far more culpable – for it has more accurate information about Yahweh’s Plan – because Jesus carefully explained it during his ministry (just as this website is doing now) and further we have the terrible model of The Old Israelite Nation that taught us how not to behave (by example) – but we throughout The Gospel Age have behave just the same and thus are more accountable – which we are in the midst of Yahweh’s Judgement. – For all Jews prior to Jesus’ ministry will be resurrected – but there will be some worldly Christian Leaders who shall never be resurrected – for they have blasphemed against Yahweh’s Holy Spirit in their iniquity!

So the inheritance is the land of Israel = The Promised Land !!! This is two stages of prophecy, being one at the lower level having occurred when the slave Jews came out of Egypt (always = the [heathen] World in prophecy), and the much greater fulfilment is in The Future (but NOT as Orthodox Jews believe today – because they have utterly missed the full significance of these biblical prophecies).

What where were the boundaries of Israel to be?

Gen.15v18 tells us:-

From the Nile River to the Euphrates in the Near East.

And for how long is this possession to be?

Forever!

This necessitates “everlasting” life – the very “promise” which Jesus has stressed for us to gain.

Other later scriptures enlarge on this original picture stating that during The Millennium of Christ reign, these original boundaries (of Israel) will be extended to encompass the whole Earth during these 1000 years (being the greater fulfilment – being incomprehensible to The Orthodox Jew who has no idea of Yahweh’s Master Plan as fully explained on this website www.FutureLife.Org . Being precisely the reason why I am writing it down so that all humans might come to this knowledge – if they so choose to read it – but at least I have fulfilled Yahweh’s Desire as best I am able and now the responsibility is upon the recipient of this knowledge to respond in a positive manner so that they too might fulfil Yahweh’s Desire!

When God originally made this promise to Abram, He conditioned it on obedience.

Abram did obey (up to the ultimate test of his obedience to God) when Abram proved that he was willing to sacrifice his only begotten son and heir, Isaac; - if God required it.

This was done in prophecy as an allegory of what The Almighty God did Himself later in the instance of Jesus, His only son pertaining to this planet to become The Seed of The New Nation. Jesus was sacrificed for our sins – but had to rise because he proved himself perfect unto death. Notice again, Jesus was obedient to Almighty God his Father (just as was Isaac).

Thus in Isaac’s seed was a new nation being The Vehicle to deliver Jesus to bring “Eternal Life” to “Israel” (= “those who persevere with subjector”) = The New Spiritual Nation of 144000 who have guaranteed life and thus become Sons of Yahweh God.

Thus in Jesus’ seed was a new nation being The Vehicle to deliver the 144000 to bring “Eternal Life” to “Israel” (= “those who persevere with subjector”) = The Resurrected World into The Millennium being given eternal life if committed to believing what the kings/priests of The Millennium teach them and thus they become sons of The Special Marriage between Jesus and the 144000, to be sons of “the specific god” of us = Christ Jesus. Being back full circle where Adam and Eve were created perfect by Christ Jesus.

However in this most righteous plan of Yahweh, Yahweh has not only perfected Christ Jesus’ creation (being those humans who desired to be perfected = imitate Jesus’ personality/spirit) but also has gained an additional 144000 sons for Himself in The Most Righteous Manner before all entities of The Universe!

Gen.22v15-18

I have sworn, says the Lord, because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will bless you and multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens.....

God has now made his promise “unconditional” to Abraham – it will now occur. Further it was repeated to Isaac in Gen. 26v2-5 and then again to Jacob in Gen. 35v9-12. God changed Jacob’s name to Israel and all his seed after him are therefore Israelites. So ‘the seed’ of Jacob are the Israelites who have “the promise.” For everlasting life on Earth. (See “New Israel” and “Old Israel” in Glossary).

How do the Gentiles get into this “heir-ship” to be inline for “the promise”?

In addition to that quoted on the previous page, there is:-

Eph.2v11-12

Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision, which is made in flesh by hands – remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

Paul is saying: That before you were baptised into Christ, you were Gentiles and therefore away from “the promise”, but now you are by the blood of Jesus fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God.

So, through Christ Jesus (provided we precisely imitate Jesus), then Yahweh Almighty God views us as being:-
Abraham becomes our human (fleshly) father and Almighty God becomes our Spiritual Father.

Conversely (if we stay with The World):-

Adam is of course the human father of those who do not take on Christ and Satan is their spiritual father.

This is explained in:-

Gal.3v7

Know you therefore, that they which are of faith/fidelity/assurance, the same (people) are the children of Abraham.

That is why Abraham is called the “father of the faithful” – whether we are Jew or Gentile. Thus this is explained by Jesus as The Vine Root Stock and The Father (Yahweh) grafting in new branches (= those to make up the 144000) and cutting out old ones (= all religious leaders who are not specifically fulfilling Yahweh’s Desire – originally pointing at The Pharisees, but now principally worldly Christian Leaders of The Gospel Age coming into The Knowledge and then distorting it to their congregations by both words and works).

So this section explains why we see in The Bible the mention of two types of father, either Abraham or Adam assigned to present day people depending upon their actions in life.

Did Abraham receive of this everlasting Kingdom?

No!

Why not?

Let us investigate together, where we read Stephen’s inspired words in The Bible:-

Acts 7v2-5

Men, brethren and fathers, listen; the God of Glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran and said unto him: Get yourself out of your country and from your kindred and come into the land which I will show you. Then ..... removed him into this land, wherein you dwell (Israel today). And he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much to set foot on .....

Continuing this explanation so clearly later in The Bible:-

Heb. 11v8-13

By faith/fidelity/assurance he sojourned in the land of Promise as in a strange country ..... for he looked for a city which has foundation, whose builder and maker is God. These all died in faith/fidelity/assurance not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off (within their mind).

This passage tells us:-

The very fathers to whom the promises were made – all died in faith not having received their reward = they did not go to their reward at death!

Let us explain this by bringing in some more Biblical text:-

John 8v52-53 says:-

Abraham is dead.

Heb. 11v39 says:-

Those fathers obtained a good report through faith/fidelity/assurance but received not “the promise”.

Heb. 11v40 continues:-

That they (= the fathers) without us (= 144000 apostles over The Gospel Age) should not be made perfect/complete (to occur later in The Millennium when “the two flocks come together” John,10v16).

So when they receive their reward it will be at approximately the same time as all of us – that is to say when Christ’s Kingdom is set up here on Earth. As the Lords prayer specifically says it shall be.

There appear to be two differing accounts of Jesus ‘Second Coming’. In the First part (1Thes.4v16-17 where the “us” = “the body of Christ” = 144000 apostles), being only those who hear (because Jesus’ presence is within them during their life within The Gospel Age and thus able “to hear” because “they do” = imitate Jesus) will come forth or be changed (hence these must only be the ones who were ‘spiritually listening’ (= watching during their life) – “inviting Jesus into supper when he knocked at the door” Rev3v20). Where Jesus is speaking of the 144000 in John5v25 who were “dead” but in hearing and doing (= imitating Jesus) during The Gospel Age, having Jesus’ presence within them are resurrected to guaranteed life. These 144000 are judged by Yahweh as being worthy to be His sons in The Special/Greater Judgement during the True Christians 1st part of their life. But in the Second part, it says all people will come forth (even if they were not spiritually listening or watching during their life)! This is located at John5v28. But in this Second Resurrection where we are told all people both, Good and Bad people shall be raised to stand before Jesus – where it is Jesus who is judging and not his Father – thus being The Standard Judgement throughout The Millennium.

Hence there must be just a few special people at the first resurrection (first part of Jesus’ Second Coming = 1st 2nd C); then later every other person who has existed on this planet in the second part of Jesus’ Second Coming. But also put yourself in the position of being resurrected during the second part of Jesus’ Second Coming – where it does not necessarily mean that all the people who died will be raised at the same time – think carefully on the wording given – they could be raised in stages, but still ‘their resurrection’ could be at any time during the Millennium as The General Resurrection relative to the individual.

Now let me expand upon this whole topic to assist in its clarity.

Do we find in The Bible, references to Two (classes of) resurrections at Jesus’ Second coming?

Yes – Several!

There is a reference to the people of the “First Resurrection” being specifically appointed to be “Kings and Priests” and that they have passed “over judgement” into Life (guaranteed eternal) to rule for 1000 years as we read in Rev.20v6.

Later in Rev.20v13 it states that all those dead in both the sea and the graves in the earth, give up their dead. So this last occasion must be the Second or Main Resurrection (when most of the population that has ever existed on this planet is raised into the 2nd part of their Life).

Let us expand the reasoning behind these two resurrections:-

The First and Special Resurrection:-

The Bible talks about:- The First Fruits; both in The Old Testament – during sacrifices for the redemption of Israelite sins in the New testament for this special class of people. You can see the ‘miraculous parallels’ being enacted!

John.5v24-25

Truly, Truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes Him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come to Judgement (crisis), but has passed from death to life. Truly, Truly, I say to you, the hour is coming and now is (that is to say, those hearing from ‘now’ being at 33AD - to 2000 years later, different now as today you read this), when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

Clearly these are ‘special sort’ of people in existence after Jesus’ life here on Earth. These special people are among those in the graves, that metaphorically being only those who hear the call are raised, the others hear nothing and remain in their graves! Explaining what this really means – because The Bible always speaks in allegories - in a slightly ‘coded format’ and you need to get your head around quite what is being said so that “The Absolute Truth” comes to The World in the due season – as The Bible tells us – when Yahweh’s Holy Spirit makes it known (for Yahweh’s Plan to unfold specifically as required through The Ages until completion). The novice reader to Christianity must understand that the “hearing” spoken of by individuals within their Grave is metaphoric for “listening and doing”. Essentially it means when these individuals were alive in the 1st part of their life, they heard the message of Jesus Christ, actively spread The Word of God, being The Good News of his message to others and lived a life as close as they could, given their own personal circumstances to that of Jesus Christ. They died but their name was remembered by God to be raised in the First part of Jesus’ Second Coming to be one of these Kings and Priests to rule in The Millennium. Thus the Greek word “Parousia” being used to mean a change from “presence” to “coming” because at the 1st Death to 1st 2nd C is for the individual instant even though there might be any period 1 to 2000 years between the two conscious states – this concept is so important to understand.

The Second and General Resurrection (is for all mankind):-

The Bible goes on to exclaim in:-

John.5v28-29

Do not marvel at this (this ‘small’ number raised in the First Resurrection); for the hour is coming (notice it is not now – thus these main group of people are not hearing now, so these are a different type of person) when all who are in the graves will hear his voice and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgement.

I ask the reader to bear with me for perhaps repeating myself here – because I have stated it in several other explanations on this website www.FutureLife.Org , to analyse the wording here.

The word “judgement” should be translated from the Greek to read as “crisis”. It is a time of crisis for those who have done ‘bad’ (things) because they must unlearn (The Bible calls this “adjusting”) their ways nurtured within this present Earthly system under Satan’s inept rulership, and start living a good life!

It shall be very difficult for some to do this, but do it they must, else “the crisis” they will be facing will be certain and permanent death (being their/ The 2nd Death that the Bible later tells us, from which there is no returning from = utter annihilation)!

However for those who have been “good” in this present life under Satan’s control, then they have nothing to unlearn – just further positive growth – quite easy for them (especially with Jesus ruling The Earth and Satan removed) and so it will be “no crisis” for them, it will be a resurrection to life!

It does not mean upon this resurrection, it is certain and immediate death for wicked/evil/harmful/hurtful/malicious/nasty people (or those who do not take on Jesus Christ as their saviour) as many Christian apostates (= mainstream Christianity) suggest - this concept is just a lie!

Everyone shall be given a chance, or last opportunity to turn “good” and accept Jesus Christ as his or her saviour in this new world system after they have been taught righteousness within The Millennium. If they do not, then they shall die “The 2nd Death – from which there shall be no return. What some of these Christian apostates (being our present iniquitous Religious Leaders) do not seem to realise is that they may be part of a very small group of individuals who after dying in this life will then never be resurrected – The Bible warns in several places there is no second chance for these particular individuals!

This is a most dire warning to them!

So continuing:

We see there is no distinction in this Second part of Jesus’ Second Coming, being this mass resurrection.

Already quoted earlier in Rev.20v13 shows when it says all in the sea and the Earth come forth! Therefore the Second, latter resurrection is clearly a mass ‘Exodus’ from death!

See the link up again, with the Israelites leaving Egypt (always = heathen world of mankind when spoken of in prophecy), as slaves to The Pharaoh simulating us being slaves to Satan in this world. The Israelites go to their Promised Land, given the Mosaic Law, and in the future, we in The Millennium, where we become instructed now in Jesus’ Law. We were given the foretaste of this when Jesus was here 2000 years ago – to love God with all your heart, and your neighbour as yourself. Also note how the Israelites were able to get out – through the death of firstborn son(s), we get to our promised land of The Millennium by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ – What an allegory!

So far we have John.5v24-25 and Rev. 20v6 speaking of a limited number of “special people” being involved in the First Resurrection and a mass of the “remaining dead”, both good and bad being involved in the Second or Main/General Resurrection.

Is there anything else that separates these Two Classes?

Yes! – Three more things!

1. Period of Time.

First important point is to expand on the duration of these events.

Let us now compare the various Biblical scriptures to understand how these two resurrections are different in duration.

1Cor.15v51-52

Lo! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in a twinkling of an eye at the last (= 7th) trumpet (notice the “we”, used here within the text, is referring to the writer’s status as a person – an apostle, a “special person” who is appointed by God “to tell”; thus not an evil or just a normal person).

So this type of person who is not asleep (because it says we Apostles are not all asleep – meaning not dead), but a living person now, today – a True Apostle (= True Christian) will be changed, while still alive, from their fleshly body to a Spiritual/Celestial/Heavenly body in an instantaneous “moment of time”.

However Paul states in:-

Acts 17v30-31

The times of ignorance God overlooked (times before Jesus came onto this Earth), but now He commands all men everywhere to repent (because Jesus taught, was murdered and then rose), because He has fixed a Day (Peter says in 2Pet.3v8 – a Day of the Lord is as a 1000 years) on which He will judge (time of world crisis) the world in righteousness by a man (Jesus) whom He has appointed, and of this He has given assurance to all men by raising him (Jesus) from the dead.

Matt. 11v22,24

But I tell you, it will be more tolerable on The Day of judgement for Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. .... But I tell you that it shall be more tolerable on The Day of judgement for the land of Sodom than for you.

Hence God must resurrect these people (many wicked ones) for these statements to be true. And clearly for it to “be more tolerable” for these wicked people means they shall not be resurrected to then face instant death again – or eternal torment that so many of these Apostate and very worldly Christian religions preach to support their most errant doctrine!

But rather they shall be resurrected and during The Millennium they will come to know about Jesus (who was not known to them during the 1st part of their life) through the righteous teaching program of The Faithful Stewards (= 144000 kings/priests elected/chosen during The Gospel Age). These people from Tyre and Sidon will take to this new message quickly (like “ducks to water”) and “start believing/imitating/{committing to} Jesus in (the 2nd part of) their life to then have effectively “a resurrection to life” because they now “believe in Jesus”.

We have Martha saying in:-

John 11v24:

I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at The Last Day.

We have a number of references, principally 2Peter 3v8 where the Bible explains to us that A Day is referring to 1000 years. Other scriptures mention of Jesus’ Millennium, his 1000 year day being the times of refreshing of all things (Acts 3v21). At the end of which, Jesus will hand a “perfect” world over to his Father (1Cor. 15v28).

2. Two things happening together!

The second point separating these two Resurrections can be explained as follows:-

The First resurrection refers to two types of happenings occurring at the same time!

If the Biblical text is carefully read, it tells us that not only are the “dead” being raised up into “spiritual bodies”, but also there are some living people being changed into “spirit Beings at the same time!!!

There are no other statements in The Bible of this happening at any other time except in the Instantaneous First Resurrection.

This is in:-

1Cor.15v50-53

I tell you this, brethren: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable ..... For the trumpet will sound (the last trumpet being the 7th trumpet mentioned in Revelations when this will occur to link the two time frames) and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable nature (our present fleshly bodies from Adam) must put on the imperishable (= spiritual bodies from which Jesus and Satan presently operate from) and this mortal nature (subject to death) must put on immortality (of which The 2nd Death has no hold over – being a spiritual/celestial/heavenly body, however the mass resurrection will be raised in Fleshly DNA based bodies as we are now).

1Thes.4v16-17

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the archangel's call. And with the sound of the trumpet (the 7th being "the last/complete" trumpet sound where The Mystery [= fleshly bodies to heavenly/spiritual bodies] to become sons) of God. And the dead in Christ (Apostles and the like who are dead) will rise first; then we who are alive (the 'we' again means 'Apostles like' = True Christians who are alive at the end of The Gospel Age), who are left, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall always be with the Lord.

Matt.24v39-41 and Luke 17v34-36 (both these say similar things):

.... And so shall also the coming of the Son of man be (= Jesus). Then shall two (people) be in field; one will be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

So when this one person out of the two is taken, then it will be sudden - being transformed into a spiritual body – as it says elsewhere – in the twinkling of an eye. They then go to meet Jesus in the sky in their ever-lasting spiritual bodies. At the same time as the special 'dead persons' (Apostles and those True Christians during The Gospel Age – perhaps William Tyndale may be one) are raised to meet Jesus in the sky. Then to the individuals who remain all they will know is they looked away and turned back to see their friend no longer there – completely disappeared!

Remember absolutely nothing is impossible with Almighty God – because His name to us means:-

“I (make) become what I choose to become”.

Though it may sound incredible to us (including me) reading this. This will also link up at the same time, with the Two Witnesses rising from death (Rev.11v2) that I cover elsewhere in my other “Explanations”.

And these corroborate:-

Rev.20v6

Blessed and holy is he who shares in the First Resurrection! Over such The 2nd Death has no power (Clearly spiritual Bodies like Jesus Christ's), but they shall be Priests of God and of Christ, and they shall reign with him a thousand years.

3. The 144000 individuals being part of The First Resurrection individuals shall pass over judgment.

The third thing to show, is that the people who are raised from the dead or changed in this First Resurrection are also not subject to the judgment of “the specific god” of us (= Jesus) in this Day of Judgement over a 1000 years!

Why?

This First Resurrection refers to a small number of people (trusted “faithful stewards given responsibility of greater things”) chosen to be Priests of Jesus (Jesus being the High Priest – and elsewhere as The Bridegroom). These are the only people who have passed over (standard) Judgement (ie this ‘Day of Judgement’ that the Bible so often speaks about for ‘the masses’).

So these few people pass over (standard) judgement (by having undying heavenly/celestial/spiritual bodies – of which the “second death has no power over them”) into eternal LIFE having participated in The Greater/Special Judgement by The Father being Yahweh and found to be worthy.

Hence all other humans that have ever existed on this planet must appear before the Judgement Seat but now this is the judgment seat assigned to Jesus and his 144000 kings/priests (by Yahweh) during The Millennium period. Which The Bible tells us is during this ‘Judgement Day’, as I have explained, this will be a time of crisis for all people in a perfected fleshly DNA body who must change their ways during this 1000 year Millennium period, else they shall face The 2nd Death from which there is no return = utter annihilation.

So we can see there are distinct differences shown within The Bible between the participants of the First Resurrection and those of The Second or General Resurrection.

However where the reader may have the problem (being perpetuated by false worldly Christian doctrine by misunderstanding the now righteous logic – to be shown later) is because all references to a resurrection of the dead tell of it being at The Second Coming of our Lord Jesus for those being resurrected. Let us now look at other references within the Bible to now explain this double Second Coming which thoroughly completes the scriptural Logic as I have tried to show in the earlier sections.

When clearly explained, this ‘problem’ disappears as I will now attempt to show:-

The few people raised in The First Resurrection to be Priests in the Millennium are those who are scripturally “dead in Christ” (people who after they have been baptised, came closest to being like Jesus Christ in their thoughts and actions – a decision made by The Father = Yahweh Almighty God). Therefore they are the only ones who will hear the call to be raised up. Hence it IS the Second Coming (and resurrection) for them these few one who “heard” = “listened and did” = imitated Jesus.

But for the remainder being the vast majority of us, who heard nothing of the call and Jesus’ “presence” upon this Earth within those few humans who imitated Jesus (as some of the ‘Comings’ mean when interpreted from the Greek text) it is like Jesus Coming (presence) as a “thief in the night” (see 1Thes 5v2,4 Rev 3v3, 16v5) then for the majority of the humans they remain waiting for another visit to the Earth by Jesus!!

What about the few who (chosen by Almighty God destined to make up the number in the Priesthood) are still alive at the End Times?

This First Resurrection, and Second Coming (= 1st 2nd C) for these few people destined for Priesthood, who hear and are also alive, is made clear in:-

Matt.24v40-43.

One is taken and the other is left.

The one left behind in The World today knows nothing about Jesus’ First (2nd) Coming and of course the ones in the ‘next door’ graves who are dead, also know nothing of the ‘odd person’ metaphorically rising from the same cemetery.

So to all those who know nothing about this 2nd Coming of our Lord (because it was just Jesus’ “presence” here to collect the few faithful and worthy to be priests) – It was all a secret to the vast majority of these people! Though this should not be confused with the rest of the world not knowing of the instant this is occurring because it speaks in.

Matt. 24v30-31 At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn (because they will realise its too late – up to then they were in the dark and not watching). They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call (= the 7th trumpet call in Revelation when “The Mystery is complete = fleshly humans become heavenly/celestial/spiritual beings = Sons of God), and they will gather his Elect (= 144000) from the four winds (= from all nations of the world), from one end of the heaven/sky to the other.

So, to ‘the mass of people’ remaining, the 2nd Coming – relative to them will be approximately 3.5 years later (to be explained later) when “Every eye shall see him leading his army of angles (Rev. 1v7 and Rev. 19v14). This will be the occasion spoken of in The Bible as that one sided “Battle of Armageddon” when the beast and the false prophet are destroyed. Satan, the origin of evil, is however not destroyed at this point in time and is just physically restrained for the next 1000 years. This is for the specific reason to assay for a period of 3.5 years the whole world of humans having been taught righteousness during The Millennium.

On this 3rd Coming (but to most people dead or alive, this will be as Jesus 2nd Coming). When he arrives as Lord of Lords and King of Kings at the head of his angelic armies, He, Himself takes over control of The World from Satan. This “time” is the beginning of his 1000 year rule, being his Day of restitution and judgement, – being The Day when all the dead are raised up, back to life again. Obviously the Ancient Worthies and the Prophets etc. who have already been resurrected to perfect Human Beings as Adam and Eve were in the beginning before they sinned. Those humans not accounted worthy will on their resurrection (during this Day of 1000 years) be taught righteousness by Jesus’ Priests. Isaiah 65 talks about 100 years being the learning/testing/assaying time, so possibly the main resurrection, allotted for Jesus’ 1000 year Day occurs in “batches” of 100 year periods for their schooling. It does here, that according to their wrongs they will receive “strips”.

Job was looking forward to this time, this “Day”; when he wrote in:-

Job.19v25-26

That He shall stand in the Latter Day up on the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.

When speaking of That Day the Bible says:-

Jer. 30v9

But they shall serve the Lord God and David their king whom I will raise up unto them.

King David is to be reinstated as their Fleshly leader, forever.

I believe Psalm 45 states clearly what will take place at the beginning of this 1000 years.

Psm.45v16 says:-

Instead of (ie, what is now considered normal) your fathers shall be your children, whom thou (the Bride) will make princes in all the Earth.

To me, this says the “Bride of Christ” = the Kings and Priests being 144000 in number (elected/chosen during The Gospel Age), made up of the true and adopted Sons of Abraham will be able to “place” The Ancient Worthies, the Prophets and King David into fleshy positions of authority in The World – forever.

So:-

The Kings and Priests (or Saints), Christ’s Bride, will be Heavenly/Celestial/Spirit Beings as Jesus is now.

However in this new Earth under Jesus they shall be the “overall” Authority, while their fathers Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and David will be ”Like Children”, = to be subject to them.

This interpretation also explains the passage earlier:-

John 8v40

That they without us should not be made perfect/complete.

This means The Bride (being collected during the Gospel Age 36CE to a period just beyond our time now – till the end time of this system, and therefore the True lineage of Abraham and the adopted sons from the Gentiles) constitutes the First Resurrection. But because this First resurrection precedes the beginning of the Main Resurrection by 3.5 years and it comprises solely of these True Sons being raised, they then appoint The Ancient Worthies as Princes on this Earth a little later, then:-

This is their reward and the continual Life to enjoy it.

Thus the multiple Bride is now considered to be Fathers of their previous fathers (ie True Sons, the Priests, having authority over The Ancient Worthies could be considered as the children of these Priests.

Hence the Bride ‘collectively’ is described as Kings and Priests !!!

To sum up; when Jesus comes in power (he has always had the power, but merely not exercised it earlier) the 3rd time to this Earth, he now has his Kings and Priests (his Bride of 144000 individuals) all Spirit Beings raised up from their graves – all those accounted worthy, plus those who have been martyred in the final Great Tribulation (between the First Resurrection being the 1st 2nd C and his 3rd Coming to which most people think is his 2nd Coming). They will place The Ancient Worthies into positions of leadership around The World; we are only told of David’s position as King of Israel for eternity. These will be fleshy representatives of Jesus and his Spiritual Kings and Priests who are in overall positions of teaching and power. It is my belief the bride shall have the same power as Jesus has at present within their spiritual bodies assigned to them from Yahweh God as a further reward for the complete submission to God’s will while they lived in Satan’s world in their first life. Further Yahweh will give His Sons of God full access to His Holy Spirit and as the tool to be effective in cutting through ‘smoke screens’ deviant humans may initially try to excuse their errant ways upon their resurrection.

So the two different promises of the individual inheritances would have been fulfilled (over and above the original promise)!

Those who constitute The Bride of Jesus will have inherited the promise:-

They will be the Spiritual Kings and Priests of this world!

Those who have been accounted worthy through faith before Jesus’ ministry period will also have inherited The Promise of The Inheritance of (administrating) The World within a perfect “human body” for an eternity being the same as Adam and Eve would have done in the beginning if they had not sinned and lost it all.

These Ancient Worthies being worthy will have fleshy control over this world.

We also have the Mass Resurrection and we will be given fleshy bodies as Adam and Eve, as we have now, with a 1000 years to learn righteousness before our final 3.5 year test to righteously mimic Jesus’ original 3.5 year ministry / assay period for a “Like for Like” direct equivalence = true righteousness in The Culmination.

This is no more, and no less than that promised to Adam and Eve and all their descendants right at the beginning of human existence.

This shows the perfection and complete righteousness of Almighty God getting the whole plan correct from the very beginning, and able to add more promises of better things while rescuing His creation through Jesus without contravening any of His original laws, and further able to bring a perfect species having experience both good and evil, that now voluntarily chooses good over evil. Everything has been tested/assayed and now proved itself “good” in the sight of God.

Finally Yahweh God has demonstrated His utter omnificence in resolving the original posed question being:
Yahweh’s right to rule:

And further those very specific humans who demonstrated an intense desire to imitate Jesus during the 1st part of their life did actually become like god, being the creator of us Jesus originally “the specific god” to them, but now his Bride on the same standing and stature as him chosen and elected by The Father Yahweh.

What a wonderful Creator of The Universe and wisdom Yahweh has to exceed all other!
